Drill Breaks Through To Miners

SHEPPTON, Pa. (UPI)—Drillers today completed a 12-inch escape shaft into the tiny compartment in which two miners have been entombed 11 days.

The steel bit broke through at 3:31 p.m. EDT.

"It's through," David Fellin, 58, shouted to the men at the surface.

The word was passed quickly to Fellin's wife, Anna, who kept a lonely vigil at the mine site.

It will take up to 30 more hours, however, to widen the shaft to 18 inches to permit Fellin and Henry Throne, 28, both trapped since Aug. 13, to be brought to the surface in a specially designed rescue capsule.

At 3:28 p.m. EDT, Gordon Smith, state deputy secretary of mines, ordered the slowly turning drill stopped.

"Hold it—stop the drill, stop it," he shouted to the drilling crew.

There was a moment of silence as the drill cut through to the survival chamber by its own weight.

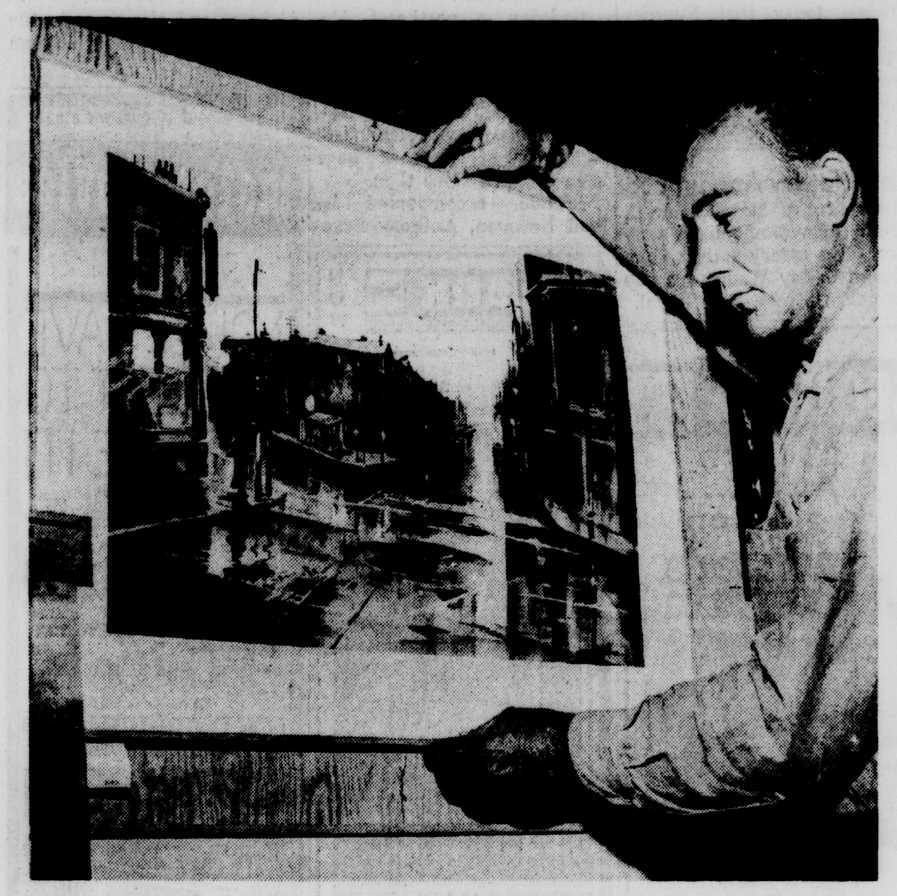
The bit was puiled a few feet back up the shaft.

Fellin told the surface: "I could see the drill before you lifted it up."

The drill broke through to the chamber at 3:31 p.m. EDT. It climaxed more than two hours of delicate drilling, a precision operation in which the giant 60-ton drilling rig rested its huge bit in the hole as gently as a cat's tread and slowly bored out the few remaining inches to the underground chamber.

The drill had to be lowered gently for fear the 250,000 pounds pressure behind it in normal operation would cause another cave-in when success was so close.

At the bottom, there was no immediate jubiliation. Fellin and his companion Henry Throne, 28, were too busy at work to take time to cheer and shout for joy as the rescue workers and families on top of the ground did.



BIG SHOW — Inmate artist Carl Pramberg hangs his prize winning water color in preparation for the annual San Quentin Arts and Crafts Festival at the prison tomorrow from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Four hundred and sixty one paintings and about 200 handicraft objects will be on display. Police Chief Goerndt Fired By City Manager In Sausalito

Attorney Says Brown Doesn't Have Power

By BRUCE COLEMAN

Sausalito Police Chief Howard W. Goerndt has been fired by City Mgr. Charles A. Brown, the Independent-Journal learned today.

The dismissal is to take affect Oct. 6, but the chief said today that he would fight for his job.

Brown in his letter of firing dated Aug. 7 listed "the matter of administration, coordination and control" as the reason for his action.

"To this end" Brown said, "the primary weakness is in the leadership of the department which lies entirely within your hands." He further charged "the absence of the necessary foresight in identifying problems before they exist only confirms your inadequate background and lack of growth which is so important in carrying out the duties of chief of police."

Goerndt's only comment today:

"I'm sticking it out. I have nothing to lose. This is my life work."

THERE SINCE '52

Goerndt, who lives at 420 Locust Street with his wife and son, Michael, has been with the department since June 9, 1952. He was four years a sergeant, became acting chief in 1958 and permanent chief in Sept. 23, 1959.

He has hired Harry Wainwright, Sausalito attorney, to fight for his job. The attorney said today that "Brown can't do it. He has no authority. It's completely in the hands of a civil service board who will hear the matter at the pleasure of the city council."

Diem's Brother Seems In Control

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (UPI)—President Ngo Dinh Diem's brother was reported today to have taken over most of the power in South Viet Nam in a quiet palace coup.

Well-informed sources said that Ngo Dinh Nhu, who has been Diem's chief political adviser for years and is head of the secret police, is the one who engineered the massive crackdown on Buddhist and opposition elements in a series of raids early Wednesday as an opening move in the quiet palace takeover.

The sources said Diem still is in the presidential palace carrying out some functions, but that his brother is now actually believed running the government.

This, plus the resignation of Vietnamese Foreign Minister Vu Van Mau in protest against the crackdown against the Buddhists, apparently were the reasons why newly arrived U. S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge has been unable to confer with government officials on the boiling crisis.

NOT CONFERRED

U.S. embassy officials said Lodge has not conferred with any Vietnamese officials since he arrived last night, and that he will not present his credentials to Diem until Monday or possibly Tuesday.

Earlier today, officials said Lodge went to the U.S. aid mission building here to see two Buddhist priests who took refuge there before dawn yesterday when the main Xa Loi pagoda next door was assaulted by government troops and police.

Mau, a Buddhist, was to have met Lodge at the airport when he arrived but had resigned instead. An eyewitness who saw Mau at the foreign ministry building said the foreign minister said he resigned "to protest against the government." He added that he had shaved his head in the manner of Buddhist monks to express his sympathy with other Buddhists in the country.

MARTIAL LAW

Mau, a quiet, reserved man who had served Diem for years, was said to be a devout Buddhist and was shocked by the crackdown in which police and soldiers raided Buddhist temples in Saigon, Hue and other centers.

Saigon remained under martial law, with top-ranking army leaders supposedly having tak-

Prison Artists To Show Works At San Quentin

San Quentin Prison inmates will display their artistic works tomorrow at the prison's annual Arts and Crafts Festival, open to the public, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Prison officials expect about 3,000 persons to visit the one-day festival.

There will be 461 entries in the art category including oils, water colors and drawings, and about 200 entries in the crafts division including wood, metal and leather objects.

All art objects will be for sale on a cash basis. There were no sales last year because in the prior year some visitors "paid" for paintings with bad checks.

At a preview show for the prisoners Ralph R. Ruiz won the "Best of Show" award for his oil. Carl Pramberg won first place in the water color division and second in oils.

Judges were Robert Hartman of the University of California Art Department, David Simpson, Richmond artist; and Amado Gonzalez, San Francisco artist and art critic.

The show will be at the prison recreation hall and adjoining patio.

McNAMARA BLASTED OVER TREATY TALK

Sen Thurmond Compares Defense Chief To 'Confidence Man' After Testimony

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Strom Thurmond (D-S.C.), likening Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara to a "confidence man," today accused the pentagon chief of giving the Senate "grossly deceptive" testimony to support ratification of the "limited" nuclear test ban treaty.

Thurmond, a major general in the Army Reserve, said in a prepared Senate speech that "many, many" discrepancies in McNamara's treaty testimony would become apparent if classified information could be revealed. Thurmond still cited what he said were several examples.

Sen. Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz.), like Thurmond, a member of the Senate Armed Services Committee and an Air Force Reserve general, also attacked McNamara for his presentations in testimony last week. Goldwater said McNamara showed "civilian optimism" in conflict with "reservations" voiced by the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Thurmond urged senators not to accept McNamara's testimony "at face value" but to analyze it in detail and "compared it with factual presentations" received in closed-door hearings.

The challenges at McNamara's testimony came as "Senate Foreign Relations chairman J. William Fulbright (D-Ark.) conceded that a split among scientists on whether the test ban should be ratified "could cost a few votes." But he said there was no danger that the pact would be rejected.

Thurmond contended that in McNamara's Aug. 13 public testimony before the Senate committees "the presentation of factual matters was unbal-

Phone Number Change Slated In Greenbrae, Los Ranchitos

Telephone customers in Greenbrae and Los Ranchitos will have only eight more months to get used to their new all-digit numbers. Then they will get new numbers.

A total of 1,900 customers will get entirely new numbers with 453, 454 and 456 prefixes switched to either 461 or 479.

District Mgr. John D. LaNoue for Pacific Telephone and Telegraph said the changes are necessary because of growth. "It has nothing at all to do with all-number dialing."

The customers whose numbers will be changed are among the 24,400 served by the San Rafael central office. "As we experience growth, the central office becomes outgrown and we have to move numbers out of that office to the others," LaNoue said.

About 1,100 customers in the Greenbrae area, north of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, from Highway 101 to slightly west of Wolf Grade will be transferred to the Corte Madera-Larkspur central office, 7 King Street in Larkspur, and given numbers beginning with the prefix 461.

About 800 customers in the Los Ranchitos area will be transferred to the Greenfield central office in Terra Linda, and given numbers beginning with the prefix 479.

Along with the changes additional equipment will be installed at the Corte Madera-Larkspur and Greenfield central offices, LaNoue said.

"The changing of telephone numbers is not unusual in growth areas," he said. "This is probably the last for a while as far as those served by the San Rafael central office area concerned."

Last April approximately 1,500 customers were switched from the San Rafael to the Greenfield office.

Some of the customers to be affected have been notified and others are being informed, LaNoue said. The numbers will be changed when new directories are issued in April.

The changes are mainly in residential areas and only "a handful of businesses are involved," he said.

The changes will be "more practical, more economical and provide better service," LaNoue said.

Spring Groundbreaking Seen For Marin City

Ground is expected to be broken in the spring for construction of 356 apartments and 38 single family homes in Marin City, the remainder of the redevelopment's non-relocation homes, and construction will be in one continuous scheme with no gaps between each section.

This was reported yesterday by James H. Scheuer, redeveloper, to the Marin County Redevelopment Agency at a special meeting. Scheuer explained that the Federal Housing Administration, which has been balking for two months on whether the Marin City redevelopment could be completed in a whole fashion, has now given the "green light" and "unlocked the dam."

Scheuer, representing California Development Co. and who has his office in New York, had been requested to talk to the agency and answer questions of Marin City residents on the redevelopment completion.

His representatives reported that besides the 356 apartments and 38 homes, 56 relocation apartments will be built with construction to be begun soon, 30 more single family "pole houses" are to be built and the commercial area is to be built.

Six persons have plans drawn up and out to bid for homes they intent to have built themselves and the ap-

Private Organization Offers College Dorms

A non-profit citizen foundation is being organized in Marin to be the clearing house for funds to construct a dormitory at the College of Marin —at no cost to taxpayers.

The group is being organized by the San Rafael Rotary Club which has appointed Fred F. Enemark to head its committee.

"It is my personal opinion . . . that residence housing can be provided on the college property . . . within a year, without any cost to the college or to the taxpayers," Enemark wrote in an explanatory letter to college trustees. He was unable to attend the trustee meeting last night at the college.

The project is envisioned by Enemark as being a "wholly and completely non-profit, self-supporting" one. The college at present has no on-campus housing facilities.

The first unit of the proposed structure probably would be built on 2½ acres of college owned land off Hillside and Kent streets near the campus. It might house 50 men and 50 women, though college president Stephen E. Epler told trustees that there is "some doubt that the initial financing could cover that many students."

No decision has been made on whether students would eat their meals in the student cafeteria or whether no provision will be made for meals.

Trustees appointed board member Mrs. Elizabeth Deedy as an ex officio member of the citizen committee headed by Enemark.

Undersecretary To Troubleshoot

WASHINGTON (AP) — President John E. Kennedy is sending Undersecretary of State George Ball to Portugal and Pakistan in an effort to rub out sore spots in relations with the two allies.

Portugal and the United States are at odds in their policies towards Portugal's African territories.

U.S.-Pakistan relations took a turn for the worse when the United States rushed arms to India following Red China's attack last fall.

Curriculum Unit Retains Plans

MONTEREY (AP)—The State Curriculum Commission today refused to abandon its plan for multi-tract adoptions of new mathematics books for elementary schools.

The 11-member group rejected a motion by Commissioner H. M. McPherson of Napa to provide one instead of two basic textbooks for grades one through six.

Doctor McPherson said the books under consideration were not diverse enough to warrant separate titles for averages and above average students.

AEC Announces New Nevada Test

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Atomic Energy Commission said another underground nuclear test was set off today at its Nevada test site.

The test is the third since this country agreed with Russia and Great Britain on a treaty which would ban all except underground testing.

Today's test was of low yield, meaning a blast equivalent of less than 20,000 tons of TNT. Other underground tests were set off Aug. 12 and 15.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Peace Corps Called 'Materialistic'

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Evangelist Billy Graham says the Peace Corps is too materialistic.

Addressing a crusade audience, Graham said: "So far it (the Peace Corps) is almost completely materialistic in its aims. Without God at its center, it cannot possibly accomplish all that we might hope for."

Faulty Instrument Hampers X-15

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP)—X-15 pilot Joseph A. Walker says a faulty instrument made him undershoot his goal by two miles. He hit a record altitude of 66½ miles anyway yesterday.

Walker placed blame on a new instrument, an altitude predictor. It is designed to tell the pilot when to shut down the engine or lower the climb angle to avoid over-shooting his mark.

"Near the top of the climb I had an altitude prediction of 363,000 feet," the space agency pilot told newsmen after the flight. "So I nosed her over a little. It looks like the predictor was off about 11,000 feet."

Tito, Khrushchev Head For Brioni

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP)—Soviet Premier Khrushchev took off today for a roundabout trip to President Tito's Brioni Island hideaway and talks there with the Yugoslav leader.

Khrushchev, Tito and their wives flew south to Titograd, the capital of Montenegro.

From Titograd the party was to proceed west to the port of Kotor to board Tito's yacht for a two-day cruise northward along the Dalmatian Coast to Brioni.

Charleston Integration Ordered

CHARLESTON, S.C. (AP)—Charleston has been ordered to admit 11 Negroes to its all-white schools on Sept. 3. School officials reluctantly bowed to the ruling yesterday by U.S. Dist. Judge J. Robert Martin Jr.

Two white high schools and two white grammar schools in this port city, smouldering from summer-long racial demonstrations, will be integrated.

Wealth 'Embarrassing'

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — A Presbyterian minister, back from two months in the United States, says he found the wealth of American churches embarrassing.

"American ministers agreed with me and are concerned with the difficulty of keeping spiritual values in sight above monetary values," said the Rev. Gordon Powell.

The clergyman said some churches he visited in the United States had incomes ranging from $200,000 to $600,000.

Castro Predicts Win

HAVANA (AP)—Prime Minister Fidel Castro says the Cuban revolution is "going ahead and will win despite piratic attacks of counter-revolutionists."

It was his first public reference to hit-run raids on refineries and factories by counter-revolutionary groups. Castro spoke at the opening of Cuba's annual student games.

Negro Gets Navy Post

WASHINGTON (AP) — Stanley P. Hebert, the highest ranking Negro officer in Wisconsin's state government, has been appointed deputy consul general of the U.S. Navy Department.

The appointment of Hebert, 41, a member of the Wisconsin Public Service Commission, was announced yesterday by Secretary of the Navy Fred Korth.

Referendum Predicted

ALGIERS (AP) — The newspaper Alger Republicain reported today "from a reliable source" that the Algerian constitutional referendum will be held Sept. 15 to choose the nation's first president under the constitution.

Envoy Joins Foundation

NEW YORK (AP) — Walter C. Dowling, former U.S. ambassador to West Germany, will become a consultant to the Ford Foundation, the foundation announced.

Dowling, 58, a native of Atkinson, Ga., has been ambassador to West Germany and Korea and an assistant secretary of state.

London Rights March

LONDON (AP)—A group of African, Asian and West Indian organizations in London plan to march on the U.S. Embassy Aug. 31 to express solidarity with the Negro civil rights march in Washington three days earlier.

Barry Offers Support

ATLANTA (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz.) says he would support Nelson Rockefeller if the New York governor won the Republican nomination for president in 1964.

"The country can't stand another four years of Kennedy," he said yesterday after replying yes to a direct question on possible support of Rockefeller.

Major General Dies

WASHINGTON (AP) — Maj. Gen. Charles D. W. Canaham, 62, who accepted the surrender of 244,000 German prisoners in one day of World War II, died Wednesday of a lung ailment. He had served as director of the Army Council of Review in Washington from 1955 to 1958 and was commanding general of the 11th Army Corps from 1958 until he retired in 1961.

Point Reyes Weaver Wins State Fair Award

Mrs. Henry M. Hill of Creamery Road in Point Reyes has won an honorable mention in the weaving classes of the home economics competition of the California State Fair in Sacramento. She won the award with her place mat and napkin and stole entries.

Mrs. Hill made her first entry into the fair competition last year and won a first prize and $10 in the same event. Her honorable mention this time was worth one dollar, which was enough to reimburse her for the entrance fee of the same amount.

FOR 35 CENTS

New Booklet Aims To Keep Nation Fit

WASHINGTON (UPI) — For 35 cents, you can get a 64-page booklet that President John F. Kennedy's council of physical fitness says will help keep you trim and healthy.

The booklet containing instructions for a 20-minute-a-day exercise program, was unveiled yesterday at ceremonies sponsored by the American Osteopathic Assn.

Newsmen covering the event started off their health quest with a handicap. They were treated to a bar full of drinks and a table ladened with rich food.

35 CENTS

Others who want the illustrated booklet "Adult Physical Fitness" can acquire it by sending 35 cents to the superintendent of documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C.

Prepared by the Physical Fitness Council, the booklet has a foreward by the president calling for increased attention to physical fitness by Americans to help keep the nation strong.

It prescribes exercises for both men and women, enabling the physically dissipated to gradually gain fitness by spending 15 to 20 minutes a day in their living rooms.

FEMALE VIGOR

Illustrating the female's climb to vigor is the government's answer to Debbie Drake—Gail Tirana. At 104 pounds the petite Miss Tirana is living proof of the booklet's effectiveness.

"I've never dieted and I eat cookies all the time," she said.

Marine Lance Cpl. Robert Henderson is the booklet's male model.

Readers are warned not to try too much at first. Beginners start at level one with a minimum of toe touches, straddle hops, flutter kicks and jog-walks. They work their way up to level five where the same exercises are increased in number.

For men, there is an additional section on isometrics — the exercise system which has swept the training programs of professional football.

ISOMETRICS

Basically, isometric exercises involve pitting one muscle against another, such as pushing the hands together or pulling locked hands apart.

Additional hints on other helpful exercises such as swimming, are also detailed.

The booklet's public debut was accompanied by the premier of a technicolor film, also sponsored by the osteopaths, showing the pitfalls of inactivity.

Jury Indicts Prison Escaper

Jesse James Gilbert, 37, a burglar-murderer who walked away from San Quentin Prison last July 20, was indicted last night by the Marin County Grand Jury.

Gilbert is still at large after more than a month of freedom. When he is found, Gilbert will face the grand jury's charge of prison escape.

In 1946, Gilbert was convicted of burglary in Orange County. In 1947, while at San Quentin, he stabbed another inmate to death and was convicted in Marin Superior Court of second degree murder. He was paroled in 1957, then brought back to San Quentin for second degree burglary in Los Angeles in 1961.

$30 Million In Pay TV Stocks Sale Planned

WASHINGTON (AP) — A new pay-television company, Subscription Television, Inc., filed a registration statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission yesterday for the offering of about 30 million dollars in stock to the public.

Among other things, it said it had tentative contracts to televise home baseball games of the Los Angeles Dodgers and the San Francisco Giants. Owners of the two teams are among the stockholders.

The company has headquarters in New York but will operate initially in the Los Angeles and San Francisco areas.

The prospectus said the contracts with the two major league baseball clubs provide that the company must be in commercial operation with 20,000 subscribers in each of the two major areas by July 1964. Another requirement is that net proceeds from the stock sale and other resources will be used in establishing the initial system.

In addition to sport events, the firm said it intends to present current movies and cultural and other special attractions. There have been unofficial reports that the charge for individual programs will be from $1 to $1.50, in addition to a $10 initial installation charge and a basic monthly fee of about $4.

The company was established last January by Lear-Siegler, Inc., and the Reuben H. Donnelly Corp., a subsidiary of Dun and Bradstreet. Each holds 11.3 per cent of the new company's stock.

Another 46.8 per cent of the stock is held by Tolvision of America, Inc., which assigned to the new firm a subsidiary which holds license rights to the system to be used. Under the stock transaction, the subsidiary, Program Corp., became a wholly owned subsidiary of Subscription Television.

The system to be used is owned by Skiatron Electrons and Television Corp.

The two founding companies will retain a 19 per cent voting power each, with another 26.5 per cent going to Tolvision.

There are now 1,328,972 shares of common stock outstanding.

L'AQUILA, Italy (AP)—There is skiing each year until the end of May on the slopes of the 10,000-foot Gran Sasso, highest mountain of the Appennines, between Rome and the Adriatic.

Movie Actors Win Negroes' Cheers In Integration Drive

GADSDEN, Ala. (AP)—Stirred by a wildly-cheering Negro greeting, Marlon Brando and three fellow movie actors sought to convince Gadsden officials today that Negroes must have racial equality.

They promised to seek conferences with members of the City Commission and officials of two of the major industries —Goodyear Company and Republic Steel—in what they described as an effort to establish better communications between the races.

Gadsden, a northeast Alabama industrial city of 60,000, has been the scene of frequent Negro demonstrations since June 10 when an antisegregation campaign was launched. Hundreds of Negroes have been arrested since then.

Brando, accompanied by Paul Newman, Anthony Franciosa, and Virgil Frye, spoke at a meeting in a packed Negro church last night, and predicted that the day of the "hard-core segregationist" in Alabama and elsewhere in the South is fast approaching an end.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Peace Corps Called 'Materialistic'

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Evangelist Billy Graham says the Peace Corps is too materialistic.

Addressing a crusade audience, Graham said: "So far it (the Peace Corps) is almost completely materialistic in its aims. Without God at its center, it cannot possibly accomplish all that we might hope for."

Faulty Instrument Hampers X-15

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP)—X-15 pilot Joseph A. Walker says a faulty instrument made him undershoot his goal by two miles. He hit a record altitude of 66½ miles anyway yesterday.

Walker placed blame on a new instrument, an altitude predictor. It is designed to tell the pilot when to shut down the engine or lower the climb angle to avoid over-shooting his mark.

"Near the top of the climb I had an altitude prediction of 363,000 feet," the space agency pilot told newsmen after the flight. "So I nosed her over a little. It looks like the predictor was off about 11,000 feet."

ERIC A. JOHNSTON
Movie leader dies

Eric Johnson, Government, Business Leader, Dies At 66

WASHINGTON (AP)—Eric A. Johnston, president of the Motion Picture Association of America and a business leader and government trouble shooter for nearly three decades, is dead at 66.

Johnston succumbed last night at George Washington University Hospital to the effects of a stroke detected two months ago on his return from a trip to Europe. He had been in critical condition for more than a month.

Johnston pursued several careers, some of them simultaneously, starting as a grade-school newspaper carrier to help support his widowed mother. He worked his way through the University of Washington as a door-to-door vacuum cleaner salesman, graduating just in time to become the Marine Corps' youngest major in World War I.

He was best known, perhaps, as head of the motion picture industry, serving 18 years as president of the Motion Picture Association of America. His annual salary was $100,000.

Educated as a lawyer, he pursued a career in business, pyramiding his interests on the Brown-Johnston Co., a Spokane, Wash., electrical firm. He formed the Columbia Electrical and Manufacturing Co. to produce the appliances sold by Brown-Johnston, and held posts with other firms.

In 1942 he attained national prominence on election as president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States. In the post he led a drive for business cooperation with President Franklin D. Roosevelt and an end to Roosevelt - baiting. He served four terms gaining stature as an eloquent spokesman for the free enterprise system..

After the war he served as administrator of the Economic Stabilization Agency in 1951 and as chairman of the International Development Agency from 1952 until his death.

A native of the District of Columbia, Johnston returned here from the West when he became head of the Motion Picture Association. He was married to Ina Harriet Hughes in 1922 and she and their two daughters, Mrs. William Carlin Fix and Mrs. Herbert Butler, survive.

Memorial services will be held Monday morning in St. John's Episcopal church here. Burial will be in Spokane, Wash., probably on Wednesday. .

Park 'Float Plans'

MIAMI (AP) — The vast, unmarked sea of tall grass in the Everglades National Park can be so tricky to navigate that park officials now advise boaters to file "float plans," like airplane flight plans, to show their route and expected time of return.

Owner's Eagle Eye Explained By Discovery

TROY, Ohio (AP) — A section of timbers splintered five or six years ago at the Altman Mills feed plant north of here, and some excavation had to be done to make repairs.

The work took five days and an employee recalls Russell Stacy Altman, the elderly mill owner, kept an eagle eye on the workmen.

Now he knows why.

The excavators had dug within five feet of where Altman buried some of the huge fortune in U.S. currency which millhands, digging again this week, have unearthed.

On top of the earlier discovery of two 10-gallon milk cans stuffed to the brim with about $350,000 in small denomination bills, the workers turned up a five-gallon can yesterday with more than $150,000 in it.

State Taking In More, Spending More In '63

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — California started the new fiscal year with both revenues and expenditures running ahead of a year ago, State Controller Alan Cranston reported today.

In a report for July, the first month of the 1963-64 fiscal year, Cranston said expenditures totaled 141 million dollars, up 16 per cent from July 1962.

Revenues came to 74 million dollars for the month, a 5.4 per cent gain, the cash balance in the general fund on July 31 was 50 million dollars, however, down from the 75 million dollars of a year earlier.

The major expenditures for the month were school apportionments, 40 million dollars; University of California, 8 million dollars; aid to needy aged, 16 million dollars; bonds 9 million dollars; and aid to needy children, 7 million dollars.

The main revenues were sales tax 40 million dollars, a 6.2 per cent gain; bank and corporation taxes, 9 million dollars; personal income tax 5 million dollars; cigarette tax, 6 million dollars; and liquor tax, 5 million dollars.

It said Scotland Yard had relayed confidential information through the international police body.

Acid Attacker Lucero Given 2 Sentences

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Albert Lucero, 52 yesterday was sentenced to consecutive prison terms of five years to life and one to 14 years for his part in the acid attack on grocer Harry Goldman.

Goldman was blinded in one eye and suffered impaired vision in the other last March 13 when Rudy Hoskins, 17, hurled acid in his face. Hoskins was sentenced to five years to life.

Lucero previously pleaded guilty to two charges: first degree burglary, which carried the five years to life sentence, and assault with a caustic chemical, 1 to 14 years.

The burglary count was a technical charge rising from Lucero's hiring Hoskins to throw acid in the grocer's face.

en over some powers. But informed sources said the city actually is under the control of Col. Le Quang Tung, a tough, police-trained officer who is chief of the presidential survey office. This office is the top palace security agency and controls all Vietnamese special forces.

They added that Tung now is directly responsible to Nhu and is, in fact, for the present, the most powerful military official in the country.

The Vietnamese government was reported to have asked U.S. embassy officials to hand over the Buddhist priest but the embassy refused on the ground that the aid mission building and grounds have diplomatic immunity.

Later this morning, Lodge met with the embassy staff and then went into a conference with Gen. Paul D. Harkins, chief of the U.S. military assistance command in Viet Nam.

Officials said Lodge was expected to spend the weekend conferring with American officials in an effort to get a clear picture of what has been going on here. He was ordered to Saigon ahead of schedule by President Kennedy when the sudden crisis erupted this week.

Diplomatic sources said latest word from Hue reported an estimated 30 Buddhists were killed and another 70 injured when government forces stormed the main Tu Dam pagoda there Wednesday. But these reports could not be confirmed independently.

Other sources said that Pham Bieu Tam, dean of the faculty of medicine at Saigon University, was arrested last night because he allegedly refused to sign a loyalty petition.

anced to the extent that it was misleading."

He took special issue with McNamara's statements in the anti-ballistic missile field. He attacked the secretary's contention that Soviet and U.S. experience "appears to be comparable although obtained in different ways" on the problem of "blackout" of communications and anti-missile radar resulting from high altitude explosions.

Goldwater took issue with McNamara's statement about "tens of thousands" of nuclear warheads in the U.S. weapons arsenal. Goldwater said warheads mean little if "we do not have adequate means of delivering them."

"It is the readiness to strike, the real readiness to defend ourselves that count," he said. If there are doubts about delivery ability, he said, "this treaty will not ease those doubts but merely turn them into more grave dangers." This should be threshed out now, he contended.

Commerce Committee Asks Rail Arbitration

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Commerce Committee, working against a Thursday strike deadline, approved today a bill providing for binding arbitration to settle the deadlocked dispute over railroad work rules.

The bill, calling for the creation of a seven-man arbitration board, is to be taken up by the Senate Monday.

The board would be composed of two representatives of the carriers and two of the unions and of three public members designated by the other four members, or, if they are unable to agree, appointed by the president.

The committee rejected President John F. Kennedy's proposal for submitting the four-year-old dispute to the Interstate Commerce Commission, which would have been empowered to issue work rules binding for two years.

The bill follows the lines of a proposal made a week ago by Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz for creation of an arbitration panel.

The bill, approved by the Commerce Committee without dissent, would bar a strike or walkout or the posting of new work rules, pending arbitration of the dispute.

The bill provides for referring to the arbitration board the two main issues in dispute — firemen's jobs and the makeup of train crews.

plicants are to put $500 down on the land within a week. The homes are to be built on Buckelew Street near Donohue Avenue.

Scheuer described this as "an epoch - making achievement," saying "I don't know a single program in the U. S. which has afforded a place where you get a site of land and can go ahead and build the type of house you want to live in."

The redeveloper said he hopes the commercial development, to be built in the flat area near Highway 101, will be under construction at the same time as non - relocation units get started next spring.

He said there is to be a swimming pool and park area. The pool is to be located in the cooperative apartment area of non-relocation housing and will be open to all on a community recreation group plan.

Scheuer said there has been some delay in relocating 150 families now living in World War II housing units. "It's essential to the success of the new community to eliminate the last vestiges of existing blight," he said.

"We're going to have to evict some," declared Bert Klah, executive director of the agency.

"Man's judgment is no better than his information," said John Tolan, treasurer for Barrett Homes Inc., builders of the redevelopment units. "These people are inadequately informed as to what they are confronted with." He referred to people living in old housing not having knowledge of what they can buy or where they can move.

Scheuer explained he has no plans for starting ridgeland development above Marin City but that he expects homes to be in ranges from $35,000 to $50,000 in price. There are 200 lots, he said.

Asked when the 30 new pole houses in Unit IV would be built, Tolan said he could not give any date but added "We are right into the winter with them. They will be slow."

He reported that of 33 families who bought the first group of pole houses the average income per family is $8,366 and the average net worth $6,636. He said two families were in the $5-$6,000 range in annual income; none in $6-$6,999; nine in $7-$7,999; five in $8,$8,999; seven in the $9-$9,999 and 10 over $10,000.

Long Beach Man Given Treatment

A Long Beach artist, believed to have swallowed an overdose of barbiturates at a Tiburon home, is under treatment at San Rafael General Hospital.

He is Peter D. Angel, 33, who was visiting Diane Schlettgen of 2550 Mar East, Tiburon. Miss Schlettgen said Angel went to sleep on the couch and could not be aroused Wednesday. She called Angel's friend, Richard C. Brewer of Corinthian Island, Tiburon, who called an ambulance. Angel was taken to the hospital unconscious.

Brewer told Sheriff's Deputy W. R. Keaton Jr. that Angel may have taken about 25 pills.

Both Sides Lose In Divorce Case

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — A bitter, two-day court battle between actress Dorothy Malone and her actor-husband Jacques Begerac ended yesterday with both having their petitions denied.

Bergerac had sought increased visitation rights with their two children, Mimi, 3, and Diane, 18 months, and Miss Malone asked that she be allowed to move to Texas. Each also was denied requests to hold the other in contempt.

Trial date has not yet been set for their divorce suit in which each charges the other with cruelty.

Council Pay Proposed For Novato Ballot

The people of Novato may get a chance to vote on whether or not to pay the city councilmen.

This was agreed at last night's three man council meeting (councilmen Everett Pozzi and Howard Schoof were absent).

"If the citizens vote a salary, shall we put it in a budget?" councilman John Angeloni asked during the budget study session.

"I'm not in favor of it; $15 or $25 a meeting would make no difference to me," said Mayor M. E. (Babe) Silva.

"I think the people should have a chance to vote on it," councilman Lucile Cannon said.

Silva and Angeloni then agreed that it should be put on the ballot, but did not take a formal vote on when it should be done.

The Novato city councilmen now serve without any pay.

$585 Million Cut By House From Aid Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House gave President John F. Kennedy a stunning setback today by slashing 585 million dollars from the foreign aid bill.

A coalition of Republicans and Southern Democrats put over the deep cut in a last-minute maneuver.

The authorization stood at 3.5 billion dollars.

The president had asked 4.5 billion dollars. The House Foreign Affairs committee cut that to 4.1 billion dollars, and the surprise move today cut it another 585 million dollars.

The reduction itself was put into the bill on a roll call vote of 222-188.

On final passage a little later, the roll call count was 224-186.

In the final vote, 172 Democrats and 52 Republicans voted for the bill and 66 Democrats and 120 Republicans against it.

Both votes were a direct turnaround from the record of last night's long session when advocates of the reduction lost all around.

cers and employees of the city of Sausalito except the clerk, treasurer and attorney, subject to rules and regulations of the civil service commission.

Brown said an employee who has been suspended has the right of appeal of a board of review.

Brown, in his letter to Goerndt, said:

"I have been principally concerned with your ability to cary out the duties and responsibilities of chief of police. My conclusion as of this date is that the police department is comprised of a high caliber of men and women and that through the adoption of numerous policies both through our past discussions and also the extensive reports and recommendations of the state department of justice the organization is fairly well set up to provide efficient operation.

"The principal problem at this point remains to be the matter of administration, coordination and control of the existing organization . . .

"I have therefore determined that in the best interest of the city and of your own future your employment with the city of Sausalito should be terminated. In order to make the change as easy as possible for you I have set termination date as 60 days from this date . . .

"Our relationship in the past three years has not been unpleasant. Your personal attitudes have made our working relationship most enjoyable. I am very sorry that your personal growth could not have been such as to enable us to continue the relationship," the two-page letter concluded.

Wainwright said he has advised Brown that his letter is "unclear and speaks in vague generalities."

"I demand to know the authority under which you presume to exercise the power to advise Chief Goerndt that 60 days hence he is no longer to be an employee . . .(and) to know in precise terms the factual charges you make against Chief Goerndt," Wainwright said in a letter.

Goerndt was appointed chief in 1959 by then city manager Donald A. Duerr. The appointment came after a three-month hassle over examination procedures which divided the community.

Goerndt was named acting chief Dec. 9, 1958, replacing Morin County Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos.

Reaction in Sausalito to the firing was either explosive or quiet.

Sausalito councilmen said they didn't have anything to do with the firing of Goerndt.

Marsha Owen (Sally Stanford) said "they ought to fire Brown. Brown gets the money while the other guys do the work. He makes over $1,000 a month. Howard Goerndt has done a good job. Sausalito is not the easiest place to police."

"It's absolutely the last straw," said Leonard Bjorklund, Sausalito attorney.

"He hasn't been fired," said Councilman Carl W. Gabrielson in surprise. He added: "All I can say is, why don't you call Charlie Brown?"

"I haven't any comment," said Councilman Howard Sievers.

Councilman Michael Harris said "we've had complaints before over and over."

Councilman Jan Paul Dyk was on vacation and Mayor Paul Micou was not available for comment.

Nicasio Man Bruised When Car Leaves Road

A Nicasio man was bruised at 1:40 a.m. today when the car he was riding in left the Petaluma-Point Reyes Station Road and landed nose down in a culvert.

William R. Stewart, 43, of the Dolceini ranch told California Highway Patrolmen Charles Heart and Samuel Thomas he would see his doctor.

He was riding in a 1950 sedan driven by Farris Quincy Stiles, 58, of the same address. Stiles said he "must have fallen asleep."

OBITUARIES

Dorothy A. Dale Dies At 55

Mrs. Dorothy A. Dale, 55, of Arenal Avenue and Marine Way, Stinson Beach, died yesterday in a local hospital after a short illness.

Mrs. Dale, a native of Texas, has been a resident of the county for 16 years, living first in Greenbrae. She was a member of Allied Arts of Stinson Beach and the Marin Art and Garden Society.

She is survived by her husband, Ralph Dale, captain of the Department of Fish and Game's patrol boat, Albacore, in Sausalito; a son and daughter, Gary W. Dale, and Mrs. Beverley A. Floto, both of Stinson Beach, and four grandchildren.

MOUNT TAMALPAIS CEMETERY

Quiet Beauty

for families of every faith

Ninety years ago, Marin pioneers set aside this lovely site as a final resting place for all faiths.

Since then, Mount Tamalpais has developed facilities to meet each family's preference. Here are lovely gardens, the Angeles Garden or Memory Chapel mausoleums for above-ground burial, Marin's modern new crematorium, and the Chapel of Light Columbarium.

If you haven't visited Mount Tamalpais, you are invited to see the beauty of its typically Marin setting. Our staff will be glad to answer your questions.

en over some powers. But informed sources said the city actually is under the control of Col. Le Quang Tung, a tough, police-trained officer who is chief of the presidential survey office. This office is the top palace security agency and controls all Vietnamese special forces.

They added that Tung now is directly responsible to Nhu and is, in fact, for the present, the most powerful military official in the country.

The Vietnamese government was reported to have asked U.S. embassy officials to hand over the Buddhist priest but the embassy refused on the ground that the aid mission building and grounds have diplomatic immunity.

Later this morning, Lodge met with the embassy staff and then went into a conference with Gen. Paul D. Harkins, chief of the U.S. military assistance command in Viet Nam.

Officials said Lodge was expected to spend the weekend conferring with American officials in an effort to get a clear picture of what has been going on here. He was ordered to Saigon ahead of schedule by President Kennedy when the sudden crisis erupted this week.

Diplomatic sources said latest word from Hue reported an estimated 30 Buddhists were killed and another 70 injured when government forces stormed the main Tu Dam pagoda there Wednesday. But these reports could not be confirmed independently.

Other sources said that Pham Bieu Tam, dean of the faculty of medicine at Saigon University, was arrested last night because he allegedly refused to sign a loyalty petition.

anced to the extent that it was misleading."

He took special issue with McNamara's statements in the anti-ballistic missile field. He attacked the secretary's contention that Soviet and U.S. experience "appears to be comparable although obtained in different ways" on the problem of "blackout" of communications and anti-missile radar resulting from high altitude explosions.

Goldwater took issue with McNamara's statement about "tens of thousands" of nuclear warheads in the U.S. weapons arsenal. Goldwater said warheads mean little if "we do not have adequate means of delivering them."

"It is the readiness to strike, the real readiness to defend ourselves that count," he said. If there are doubts about delivery ability, he said, "this treaty will not ease those doubts but merely turn them into more grave dangers." This should be threshed out now, he contended.

Commerce Committee Asks Rail Arbitration

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Commerce Committee, working against a Thursday strike deadline, approved today a bill providing for binding arbitration to settle the deadlocked dispute over railroad work rules.

The bill, calling for the creation of a seven-man arbitration board, is to be taken up by the Senate Monday.

The board would be composed of two representatives of the carriers and two of the unions and of three public members designated by the other four members, or, if they are unable to agree, appointed by the president.

The committee rejected President John F. Kennedy's proposal for submitting the four-year-old dispute to the Interstate Commerce Commission, which would have been empowered to issue work rules binding for two years.

The bill follows the lines of a proposal made a week ago by Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz for creation of an arbitration panel.

The bill, approved by the Commerce Committee without dissent, would bar a strike or walkout or the posting of new work rules, pending arbitration of the dispute.

The bill provides for referring to the arbitration board the two main issues in dispute — firemen's jobs and the makeup of train crews.

DEVELOP

plicants are to put $500 down on the land within a week. The homes are to be built on Buckelew Street near Donohue Avenue.

Scheuer described this as "an epoch - making achievement," saying "I don't know a single program in the U. S. which has afforded a place where you get a site of land and can go ahead and build the type of house you want to live in."

The redeveloper said he hopes the commercial development, to be built in the flat area near Highway 101, will be under construction at the same time as non - relocation units get started next spring.

He said there is to be a swimming pool and park area. The pool is to be located in the cooperative apartment area of non-relocation housing and will be open to all on a community recreation group plan.

Scheuer said there has been some delay in relocating 150 families now living in World War II housing units. "It's essential to the success of the new community to eliminate the last vestiges of existing blight," he said.

"We're going to have to evict some," declared Bert Klah, executive director of the agency.

"Man's judgment is no better than his information," said John Tolan, treasurer for Barrett Homes Inc., builders of the redevelopment units. "These people are inadequately informed as to what they are confronted with." He referred to people living in old housing not having knowledge of what they can buy or where they can move.

Scheuer explained he has no plans for starting ridgeland development above Marin City but that he expects homes to be in ranges from $35,000 to $50,000 in price. There are 200 lots, he said.

Asked when the 30 new pole houses in Unit IV would be built, Tolan said he could not give any date but added "We are right into the winter with them. They will be slow."

He reported that of 33 families who bought the first group of pole houses the average income per family is $8,366 and the average net worth $6,636. He said two families were in the $5-$6,000 range in annual income; none in $6-$6,999; nine in $7-$7,999; five in $8,$8,999; seven in the $9-$9,999 and 10 over $10,000.

Long Beach Man Given Treatment

A Long Beach artist, believed to have swallowed an overdose of barbiturates at a Tiburon home, is under treatment at San Rafael General Hospital.

He is Peter D. Angel, 33, who was visiting Diane Schlettgen of 2550 Mar East, Tiburon. Miss Schlettgen said Angel went to sleep on the couch and could not be aroused Wednesday. She called Angel's friend, Richard C. Brewer of Corinthian Island, Tiburon, who called an ambulance. Angel was taken to the hospital unconscious.

Brewer told Sheriff's Deputy W. R. Keaton Jr. that Angel may have taken about 25 pills.

Both Sides Lose In Divorce Case

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — A bitter, two-day court battle between actress Dorothy Malone and her actor-husband Jacques Begerac ended yesterday with both having their petitions denied.

Bergerac had sought increased visitation rights with their two children, Mimi, 3, and Diane, 18 months, and Miss Malone asked that she be allowed to move to Texas. Each also was denied requests to hold the other in contempt.

Trial date has not yet been set for their divorce suit in which each charges the other with cruelty.

Council Pay Proposed For Novato Ballot

The people of Novato may get a chance to vote on whether or not to pay the city councilmen.

This was agreed at last night's three man council meeting (councilmen Everett Pozzi and Howard Schoof were absent).

"If the citizens vote a salary, shall we put it in a budget?" councilman John Angeloni asked during the budget study session.

"I'm not in favor of it; $15 or $25 a meeting would make no difference to me," said Mayor M. E. (Babe) Silva.

"I think the people should have a chance to vote on it," councilman Lucile Cannon said.

Silva and Angeloni then agreed that it should be put on the ballot, but did not take a formal vote on when it should be done.

The Novato city councilmen now serve without any pay.

$585 Million Cut By House From Aid Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House gave President John F. Kennedy a stunning setback today by slashing 585 million dollars from the foreign aid bill.

A coalition of Republicans and Southern Democrats put over the deep cut in a last-minute maneuver.

The authorization stood at 3.5 billion dollars.

The president had asked 4.5 billion dollars. The House Foreign Affairs committee cut that to 4.1 billion dollars, and the surprise move today cut it another 585 million dollars.

The reduction itself was put into the bill on a roll call vote of 222-188.

On final passage a little later, the roll call count was 224-186.

In the final vote, 172 Democrats and 52 Republicans voted for the bill and 66 Democrats and 120 Republicans against it.

Both votes were a direct turnaround from the record of last night's long session when advocates of the reduction lost all around.

cers and employees of the city of Sausalito except the clerk, treasurer and attorney, subject to rules and regulations of the civil service commission.

Brown said an employee who has been suspended has the right of appeal of a board of review.

Brown, in his letter to Goerndt, said:

"I have been principally concerned with your ability to cary out the duties and responsibilities of chief of police. My conclusion as of this date is that the police department is comprised of a high caliber of men and women and that through the adoption of numerous policies both through our past discussions and also the extensive reports and recommendations of the state department of justice the organization is fairly well set up to provide efficient operation.

"The principal problem at this point remains to be the matter of administration, coordination and control of the existing organization . . .

"I have therefore determined that in the best interest of the city and of your own future your employment with the city of Sausalito should be terminated. In order to make the change as easy as possible for you I have set termination date as 60 days from this date . . .

"Our relationship in the past three years has not been unpleasant. Your personal attitudes have made our working relationship most enjoyable. I am very sorry that your personal growth could not have been such as to enable us to continue the relationship," the two-page letter concluded.

Wainwright said he has advised Brown that his letter is "unclear and speaks in vague generalities."

"I demand to know the authority under which you presume to exercise the power to advise Chief Goerndt that 60 days hence he is no longer to be an employee . . .(and) to know in precise terms the factual charges you make against Chief Goerndt," Wainwright said in a letter.

Goerndt was appointed chief in 1959 by then city manager Donald A. Duerr. The appointment came after a three-month hassle over examination procedures which divided the community.

Goerndt was named acting chief Dec. 9, 1958, replacing Morin County Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos.

Reaction in Sausalito to the firing was either explosive or quiet.

Sausalito councilmen said they didn't have anything to do with the firing of Goerndt.

Marsha Owen (Sally Stanford) said "they ought to fire Brown. Brown gets the money while the other guys do the work. He makes over $1,000 a month. Howard Goerndt has done a good job. Sausalito is not the easiest place to police."

"It's absolutely the last straw," said Leonard Bjorklund, Sausalito attorney.

"He hasn't been fired," said Councilman Carl W. Gabrielson in surprise. He added: "All I can say is, why don't you call Charlie Brown?"

"I haven't any comment," said Councilman Howard Sievers.

Councilman Michael Harris said "we've had complaints before over and over."

Councilman Jan Paul Dyk was on vacation and Mayor Paul Micou was not available for comment.

Nicasio Man Bruised When Car Leaves Road

A Nicasio man was bruised at 1:40 a.m. today when the car he was riding in left the Petaluma-Point Reyes Station Road and landed nose down in a culvert.

William R. Stewart, 43, of the Dolceini ranch told California Highway Patrolmen Charles Heart and Samuel Thomas he would see his doctor.

He was riding in a 1950 sedan driven by Farris Quincy Stiles, 58, of the same address. Stiles said he "must have fallen asleep."

MOUNT TAMALPAIS CEMETERY

Quiet Beauty

for families of every faith

Ninety years ago, Marin pioneers set aside this lovely site as a final resting place for all faiths.

Since then, Mount Tamalpais has developed facilities to meet each family's preference. Here are lovely gardens, the Angeles Garden or Memory Chapel mausoleums for above-ground burial, Marin's modern new crematorium, and the Chapel of Light Columbarium.

If you haven't visited Mount Tamalpais, you are invited to see the beauty of its typically Marin setting. Our staff will be glad to answer your questions.

SHORT PLAYS SHOW WHIMSY, COMEDY

Wilder's 'Plays For Bleecker Street' Have West Premier By Strawhatters

By FRED WYATT

"Plays for Bleecker Street," latest works by Thornton Wilder, received a gusty West Coast premier at the picturesque old Festival Theater in San Anselmo last Friday night.

The production by a cast mostly from Marin will be repeated at 8:30 p. m. today and tomorrow and each Wednesday, Friday and Saturday through Sept. 14 in the theater at San Francisco Theological Seminary.

The plays appear now in Marin after two years in New York because the playwright's sister Isabel Wilder was highly impressed by the local group's production of his "Skin of Our Teeth" in 1960.

There are three one - act plays.

"Infancy" is a warmly comic sequence in Central Park in the 1920's with two grown men cast as babies in buggies.

"Childhood" is an eerie bit of quasi-whimsy in the "real and imagined present" with three Marin young people as rather disillusioned children.

"Someone from Assisi" is a solemn, at times bitter action set in the convent at St. Damian's near Assisi in the year 1221 A. D.

The starter, "Infancy," presents a Lagunitas couple who romp through their roles: Robert Franks as a cop and his wife Vanna Franks as a maid taking a "baby" for an airing. Baby Tommy is played wistfully by John Worthington, with Glenn Connor in that role on alternate nights. Both live in San Anselmo.

Baby Mo, genius, is played with irony by Louis Bennett of Oakland, 15 years with Festival theater. The maid minding him is Marjorie Casebier, San Anselmo, also long with the group.

"Infancy" and "Childhood" are from a Wilder series, "The Seven Ages of Man."

"Childhood" stars Lynne Theller, 18, of San Anselmo, Buffy Ford, 19, of Larkspur, and Douglas Gower, 12, of Terra Linda, as children unhappy with their parents, played by Conrad Knudsen of San Rafael and Lois de Banzie of San Francisco.

On alternate nights the boy's role, in which Douglas opened, is played by Robert Remington, 11 of San Anselmo. The role of the older girl Caroline, played by Lynne, will be taken over Sept. 4 by Cynthia Southmayd, 17, of Kentfield.

The children want to run away. In a fantasy sequence they decamp on a bus driven by Knudsen, with Miss de Banzie as a veiled passenger.

"Assisi" features Richard Irvin of Richmond as Father Francis and Carol Brumm of San Anselmo as Mother Clara, both later to be canonized, Elizabeth Berryhill of San Anselmo as Mona Lucrezia and Marjorie Casebier as a servant.

Lust is alluded to in this sequence from Wilder's "The Seven Deadly Sins."

The variegated works are pulled together by director Elizabeth Fuller of San Anselmo. Carol Brumm and Elizabeth Berryhill, co-founders of the theater, are other mainstays of the production.

Trustees Hear Deficiency Report For College Library

College of Marin trustees took a look at their library services last night and didn't like what they saw.

They requested that a detailed, concise report on library needs and shortages be submitted to them as soon as possible, "before Halloween," said Mrs. Elizabeth Deedy, with wry emphasis on speed.

The book discussion followed a three-page report from college librarian Charles Mastin who said that many aspects of library service "under the impact of higher enrollment, longer hours, heavier book processing load and defective building design, are declining."

Mastin went on to list some of the deficiencies in the library: A card catalog containing many errors from past years and lacking proper cross references in many cases; cataloging of books is behind so that some purchases remain unused for some time; work areas are inefficient and the professional staff has not been augmented since 1958 ("no other branch of the college can make that statement," Mastin wrote in the report); there is no formal instruction course for students on how to use the library.

"Let's get caught up and stay caught up," Mrs. Deedy said, as other trustees nodded agreement.

"Let's obtain whatever help possible to bring this up to standard," trustee chairman Robert Rogers said. The library contains about 22,000 books and about 250 periodical titles.

Trustees last night also:

1. Set 4 p.m. Sept. 30 as the date for an adjourned meeting during which bids on the physical education complex of buildings will be considered. The low bid on the project was $1,618,313, more than $300,000 over estimated costs.
2. Heard that full-time day student enrollment is expected to rise about 20 per cent over last year to approximately 1,750 students.
3. Approved an outlay of $500 for the college's share of salary payment for personnel in data processing work. The college and other schools in Marin use county data processing services for some work.
4. Agreed to take the initiative in a study of flood control with area city governments. Corte Madera Creek periodically overflows onto the campus.
5. Approved final a papers for purchase of a lot at 3 Laurel Avenue for $13,164.

Sausalito Art Fair Scheduled During Holiday

The ninth annual Sausalito Art Fair will be presented by the Sausalito Chamber of Commerce over Labor Day week end, Aug. 31 - Sept. 2 at the Central School grounds. Hours of the fair, directed by Mill Valley artist H. Kenneth McCurdy, are 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. daily.

In addition to paintings to be displayed, there will be many art in action booths. Among the participants will be Don Eaton of Sausalito who will make hand craft jewelry; James Jensen of Sausalito who will make welded sculpture; Ann Cost, owner of Sandalmaker in Sausalito, who will show how to make sandals, belts and handbags from cowhide; Farhad Moezzi, who will demonstrate sculpture and ceramic work and Alice Moezzi of San Rafael who will demonstrate sculpture and ceramic work, and Alice Shannon of Berkeley who will show how she manufactures jewelry.

Entertainment will be sponsored by the Sausalito Little Theater under direction of George Gray. On opening day Saturday there will be a jazz concert in the afternoon plus music by Flamenco guitarists Ron and Jeff Chinn.

Sunday at 1 p.m. the San Francisco Mime Troupe, sponsored by Neil Davis, proprietor of Sausalito's No Name Bar, will present "The Root," an adaption of Machiavelli's "Mandrake" by Milton Savage. It is to be given in the style of the classic Italian comedy theater.

Monday at 1 p.m. the King Hall Puppeteers of San Francisco will present their original version of "Alice in Wonderland" with Sue Speegle as Alice.

Folk musicians and singers will perform at intervals throughout the three day fair so that entertainment will be continuous, McCurdy said.

Prizes amounting to $500 art to be awarded to exhibiting artists in three classes, amateur, professional and student.

RANCH TWINS GAIN CALVES IN MULTIPLES

Twins George and Robert Gallagher of Point Reyes Station, who have been successfully doubling in brass for sometime, tripled with calves on their Petaluma Road Ranch Sunday.

One of their Holstein cows gave birth to two heifers and a bull calf. The bull calf, a healthy specimen was sold this week. The mother and the two heifers are at the ranch, doing well.

Robert Gallagher said it was the first triplet birth he has ever seen. Wayne Engvall, Marin County farm adviser, said today that triplet births are rare in cattle, about as rare as they are with humans.

Barthelmess Estate Valued At $1 Million

Silent film star Richard Barthelmess, father of Mary B. Bradley of San Rafael, left an estate valued at $1,000,000, including substantial real estate holdings in New York and California.

Barthelmess died of cancer Saturday at his Long Island Home. The Associated Press reported today that his will, filed in Surrogate Court for probate, bequeathed his property to his widow, Jessica S. Barthelmess of Manhattan; Mrs. Bradley, and a stepson, Stewart Barthelmess, who lives in France.

Most of the estate was apparently left to his widow, while the remainder is to be put in trust funds for his daughter and stepson and their heirs.

Novato Sets 1963 $528,000 Budget

The Novato City Council at an adjourned meeting last night adopted a 1963-64 budget which calls for an expenditure of $528,000 against an estimated income of $538,000.

However, the three man council, councilman Everett Pozzi and Howard Schoof absent, decided to delay setting the tax rate until next Tuesday's regular council meeting when all councilmen are expected to be present.

Novato has an assessed valuation of $23,733,622, city administrator J. Julien Baget said.

"Each cent of tax rate will produce $2,370 in income," he stated.

During the discussion of the tax rate last night, councilman Lucile Cannon wanted a 34 cent tax rate. (The city now has 30 cents which includes 15 for lighting, 10 cents parks and recreation and five cents general.)

"The people voted in the swimming pool bonds, so they expect to pay the four cents more in taxes for it," Mrs. Cannon said.

"I want to hold the line on the tax rate," said Mayor M. E. (Babe) Silva. "I want the street light tax rate held where it is. There is a big demand for street lights, and I'm all for lights."

Councilman John Angeloni stated that he favored Mrs. Cannon's idea.

Changes approved last night in the budget include: Another car for the parks and recreation and planning departments (which now share one car), $750 for the junior chamber of commerce to advertise Western Weekend and an increase of $200 for the audit of the city's books.

All proposed capital improvements for 1963-64 were approved by the council.

Included are: The Grant Avenue bridge, requested by the Parent-Teachers Assn., and placed in top priority by Mayor Silva; the Novato Boulevard pathway, improvement of Machin Avenue drainage and other storm drainage and street resurfacing projects.

Baget also reported that the audit now in progress would show that the city has close to $100,000 in unappropriated surplus rather than the $86,000 he estimated for the budget.

Angelonia suggested that Service Lane in back of the Mission Lodge be paved to take some of the traffic between Grant Avenue and the Novato Fair Shopping Center. It was added to the capital improvement projects.

Councilman Cannon's motion to accept Baget's recommendations for salary increases based on the recent state survey, died for lack of a second. These would have cost $6,800 for the one range increases and $5,900 for special recommended increases, mainly an extra range increase for police sergeants, officers and police clerks.

In other action, the council:

1. Approved specifications for a station wagon, two door sedan and pick up truck.
2. Accepted the remodeled civic center as complete and ordered payment to the contractor of the $29,385, holding back 10 per cent for 35 days.
3. Approved payment of $156,541.32 in claims for July. Baget noted that more than $114,000 of this was for assessment districts.
4. Authorized Mayor Silva and Baget to ask the State Division of Highways about possible purchase of the Grant School property. Baget told the council that the city might purchase the property over a five to seven year payment period.
5. Adjourned to its regular meeting next Tuesday after setting next Thursday as the date to meet with Richard Banwell, architect of the city swimming pool, to discuss the council's dissatisfaction with the architect.

Oranges Are Nice But Money Better

Mrs. Janet Gartner of 545 Browning Street, Tamalpais Valley, had the choice between a railroad carload of oranges or $4,000.

She didn't hesitate. "There isn't much you can do with that many oranges," she said today.

Mrs. Gartner, who was the top winner of a sweepstakes contest conducted by Sunkist said she has been "on a spending spree."

Her husband, Warren, is a statistician for the State Public Utilities Commission.

Trustees Hear Deficiency Report For College Library

College of Marin trustees took a look at their library services last night and didn't like what they saw.

They requested that a detailed, concise report on library needs and shortages be submitted to them as soon as possible, "before Halloween," said Mrs. Elizabeth Deedy, with wry emphasis on speed.

The book discussion followed a three-page report from college librarian Charles Mastin who said that many aspects of library service "under the impact of higher enrollment, longer hours, heavier book processing load and defective building design, are declining."

Mastin went on to list some of the deficiencies in the library: A card catalog containing many errors from past years and lacking proper cross references in many cases; cataloging of books is behind so that some purchases remain unused for some time; work areas are inefficient and the professional staff has not been augmented since 1958 ("no other branch of the college can make that statement," Mastin wrote in the report); there is no formal instruction course for students on how to use the library.

"Let's get caught up and stay caught up," Mrs. Deedy said, as other trustees nodded agreement.

"Let's obtain whatever help possible to bring this up to standard," trustee chairman Robert Rogers said. The library contains about 22,000 books and about 250 periodical titles.

Trustees last night also:

1. Set 4 p.m. Sept. 30 as the date for an adjourned meeting during which bids on the physical education complex of buildings will be considered. The low bid on the project was $1,618,313, more than $300,000 over estimated costs.
2. Heard that full-time day student enrollment is expected to rise about 20 per cent over last year to approximately 1,750 students.
3. Approved an outlay of $500 for the college's share of salary payment for personnel in data processing work. The college and other schools in Marin use county data processing services for some work.
4. Agreed to take the initiative in a study of flood control with area city governments. Corte Madera Creek periodically overflows onto the campus.
5. Approved final a papers for purchase of a lot at 3 Laurel Avenue for $13,164.

Sausalito Art Fair Scheduled During Holiday

The ninth annual Sausalito Art Fair will be presented by the Sausalito Chamber of Commerce over Labor Day week end, Aug. 31 - Sept. 2 at the Central School grounds. Hours of the fair, directed by Mill Valley artist H. Kenneth McCurdy, are 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. daily.

In addition to paintings to be displayed, there will be many art in action booths. Among the participants will be Don Eaton of Sausalito who will make hand craft jewelry; James Jensen of Sausalito who will make welded sculpture; Ann Cost, owner of Sandalmaker in Sausalito, who will show how to make sandals, belts and handbags from cowhide; Farhad Moezzi, who will demonstrate sculpture and ceramic work and Alice Moezzi of San Rafael who will demonstrate sculpture and ceramic work, and Alice Shannon of Berkeley who will show how she manufactures jewelry.

Entertainment will be sponsored by the Sausalito Little Theater under direction of George Gray. On opening day Saturday there will be a jazz concert in the afternoon plus music by Flamenco guitarists Ron and Jeff Chinn.

Sunday at 1 p.m. the San Francisco Mime Troupe, sponsored by Neil Davis, proprietor of Sausalito's No Name Bar, will present "The Root," an adaption of Machiavelli's "Mandrake" by Milton Savage. It is to be given in the style of the classic Italian comedy theater.

Monday at 1 p.m. the King Hall Puppeteers of San Francisco will present their original version of "Alice in Wonderland" with Sue Speegle as Alice.

Folk musicians and singers will perform at intervals throughout the three day fair so that entertainment will be continuous, McCurdy said.

Prizes amounting to $500 art to be awarded to exhibiting artists in three classes, amateur, professional and student.

RANCH TWINS GAIN CALVES IN MULTIPLES

Twins George and Robert Gallagher of Point Reyes Station, who have been successfully doubling in brass for sometime, tripled with calves on their Petaluma Road Ranch Sunday.

One of their Holstein cows gave birth to two heifers and a bull calf. The bull calf, a healthy specimen was sold this week. The mother and the two heifers are at the ranch, doing well.

Robert Gallagher said it was the first triplet birth he has ever seen. Wayne Engvall, Marin County farm adviser, said today that triplet births are rare in cattle, about as rare as they are with humans.

Barthelmess Estate Valued At $1 Million

Silent film star Richard Barthelmess, father of Mary B. Bradley of San Rafael, left an estate valued at $1,000,000, including substantial real estate holdings in New York and California.

Barthelmess died of cancer Saturday at his Long Island Home. The Associated Press reported today that his will, filed in Surrogate Court for probate, bequeathed his property to his widow, Jessica S. Barthelmess of Manhattan; Mrs. Bradley, and a stepson, Stewart Barthelmess, who lives in France.

Most of the estate was apparently left to his widow, while the remainder is to be put in trust funds for his daughter and stepson and their heirs.

Novato Sets 1963 $528,000 Budget

The Novato City Council at an adjourned meeting last night adopted a 1963-64 budget which calls for an expenditure of $528,000 against an estimated income of $538,000.

However, the three man council, councilman Everett Pozzi and Howard Schoof absent, decided to delay setting the tax rate until next Tuesday's regular council meeting when all councilmen are expected to be present.

Novato has an assessed valuation of $23,733,622, city administrator J. Julien Baget said.

"Each cent of tax rate will produce $2,370 in income," he stated.

During the discussion of the tax rate last night, councilman Lucile Cannon wanted a 34 cent tax rate. (The city now has 30 cents which includes 15 for lighting, 10 cents parks and recreation and five cents general.)

"The people voted in the swimming pool bonds, so they expect to pay the four cents more in taxes for it," Mrs. Cannon said.

"I want to hold the line on the tax rate," said Mayor M. E. (Babe) Silva. "I want the street light tax rate held where it is. There is a big demand for street lights, and I'm all for lights."

Councilman John Angeloni stated that he favored Mrs. Cannon's idea.

Changes approved last night in the budget include: Another car for the parks and recreation and planning departments (which now share one car), $750 for the junior chamber of commerce to advertise Western Weekend and an increase of $200 for the audit of the city's books.

All proposed capital improvements for 1963-64 were approved by the council.

Included are: The Grant Avenue bridge, requested by the Parent-Teachers Assn., and placed in top priority by Mayor Silva; the Novato Boulevard pathway, improvement of Machin Avenue drainage and other storm drainage and street resurfacing projects.

Baget also reported that the audit now in progress would show that the city has close to $100,000 in unappropriated surplus rather than the $86,000 he estimated for the budget.

Angelonia suggested that Service Lane in back of the Mission Lodge be paved to take some of the traffic between Grant Avenue and the Novato Fair Shopping Center. It was added to the capital improvement projects.

Councilman Cannon's motion to accept Baget's recommendations for salary increases based on the recent state survey, died for lack of a second. These would have cost $6,800 for the one range increases and $5,900 for special recommended increases, mainly an extra range increase for police sergeants, officers and police clerks.

In other action, the council:

1. Approved specifications for a station wagon, two door sedan and pick up truck.
2. Accepted the remodeled civic center as complete and ordered payment to the contractor of the $29,385, holding back 10 per cent for 35 days.
3. Approved payment of $156,541.32 in claims for July. Baget noted that more than $114,000 of this was for assessment districts.
4. Authorized Mayor Silva and Baget to ask the State Division of Highways about possible purchase of the Grant School property. Baget told the council that the city might purchase the property over a five to seven year payment period.
5. Adjourned to its regular meeting next Tuesday after setting next Thursday as the date to meet with Richard Banwell, architect of the city swimming pool, to discuss the council's dissatisfaction with the architect.

Boy, 14, Walks Out Of Wilderness After Five-Day Ordeal In Sierra

COMBINED AP & UPI

TAHOE CITY — A 14-year-old Compton boy was under a doctor's watchful eye today after a five-day ordeal alone in the Sierra wildnerness.

Peter Thomas Barajas was hiking down a trail yesterday when he was found by a San Francisco man and his daughter headed for the Sierra back country to fish.

Peter got a good meal, a happy reunion with his parents, a thorough checkup by a doctor and was put to bed at the home of a relative in Tahoe City, on the western edge of Lake Tahoe.

The doctor who examined Peter said he came through with no serious injuries, but suffered a minor concussion, a broken nose, bruises, scrapes, and a very sore foot from a fall on rocks early Sunday morning.

Peter was also running a fever from an infection, said Dr. Ray Wiser.

Dr. Wiser said Peter seemed to be confused, probably an after affect of the concussion. The boy thought he was unconscious only a few hours when a rock slipped from under his foot and he fell Sunday. However, Dr. Wiser said he might have been unconscious for a whole day.

Peter thought he had been lost only three or four days instead of five, the doctor said.

All the boy had to eat was a can of corn and one of beef stew which he found at an abandoned hunting or fishing camp. He opened the cans with a pocket knife he carried.

Sheriff William A. Scott of Placer County said Peter might have covered as much as 30 miles in his zig-zag wanderings through the rugged country.

Dr. L. N. Leonard of San Francisco and his 12-year-old daughter Judy, riding toward the Rubicon River, spotted Peter on the trail.

At Yosemite National Park, two dirty, hungry and tired San Diego boys found their way to safety yesterday as searchers spanned out through the western edge of the park.

Kirk McLeod, 10, and Kim Deal, 11, disappeared 22 hours earlier when they wandered off from their trailer in the North Crane Creek campgrounds Wednesday afternoon.

They said they decided to go for a walk but got lost when they left the road to go along a creek they thought led back to the camp.

During the night they used their knives to get kindling and matches to start a fire to keep warm.

At daybreak, they attempted to retrace their steps and finally got to a point two miles from their camp where they found swimmers in the river. The swimmers took them back to rangers.

At Fresno fear was growing as searchers resumed efforts today to find a missing 4-year-old Southern California boy who wandered away from his High Sierra camp early yesterday.

Roger Griffen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don R. Griffen, Buena Park, disappeared from where his family was staying in Deer Creek campground on the shores of 7,000-foot-high Lake Millerton. The boy was reported missing at 8:30 a.m. from the camp 72 miles northeast of Fresno.

Possible Park Land Debated In Larkspur

What to do with the 42 acres of city-owned land along Doherty Drive, long considered the site of a future Larkspur City Park, was pondered by the citizens committee for public facilities last night.

The committee is working with the city planning commission and other groups to prepare a new Larkspur general plan.

Committee chairman David F. Scott, head of the planning commission, presided.

Members discussed either to use about five acres of the park site for a new city hall and other elements of a civic center, an idea favored by Principal Donald Kreps of Redwood High School and Larkspur School District trustee Pauline Secor.

Kreps, Mrs. Secor and Lawrence Goldberg, a Kentfield School District trustee, were assigned by Scott to survey the number of pupils of various schools living in Larkspur and gather other school statistics.

Oakley Dexter, library board director Mrs. Phillip Haly and Peggy Young were assigned to report on preservation of historical sites such as the Baltimore mill and the redwood grove in Dolliver Park, and the original redwood grove along the old Highway 101.

Peter Krug, secretary of the local park and recreation commission, was assigned to survey recreation facilities offered by various groups.

An overlay map showing the city's major roads, major land holdings by large property owners and large areas that are undeveloped was displayed by planning consultant John Erickson. Committee members discussed it with Erickson and planning intern Dobie Jenkins.

Scott expressed gratitude that nearly all committee members were present. Date of the next meeting is expected to be set after the joint meeting of the committee with four other citizens committees Thursday.

Auto Accident Near Highway Injures Three

Three persons were injured at 4:10 p.m. yesterday when one car rammed another into a light pole on the southbound connector road from Corte Madera into Highway 101.

A car driven by William G. Silva, 21, Marin General Hospital dietary aid of 360 Bell Lane, Mill Valley, hit the rear of an eastbound car driven by Marie G. Grimm, 67, of San Francisco, as she turned into the connector road from Tamalpais Drive, reported California Patrolman Donald Greer.

Mrs. Grimm and two passengers, Edward Burroni, 67, and Evelyn Burroni, 62, also San Francisco, were treated at Marin General Hospital for cuts.

The Burronis were transferred in good condition to French Hospital, San Francisco.

Silva was cited for unsafe speed.

Bookmaking Indictments Handed Down

William P. Mountanos, 51, of San Francisco, brother of Marin Sheriff Louis Mountanos, was indicted by the Marin County Grand Jury last night on four counts of bookmaking.

Free on $1,050 bail, Mountanos is scheduled to appear in Marin Superior Court Monday morning.

The grand jury indictment accuses Mountanos of taking horse-racing bets on Aug. 7, 10, 14, and 21. The bets were for races held at Bay Meadows, Stockton, and at Del Mar in San Diego, according to San Rafael police and agents of the Alcoholic Beverage Control department.

San Rafael Police Inspectors Thomas Cheetham and Richard Camper arrested Mountanos Wednesday night at The Patio bar, 869 Fourth Street, San Rafael. Co-owner of the bar is another brother, George Mountanos.

William Mountanos reportedly accepted $10 bets from liquor control agents. San Rafael police said the alleged bookmaking operations were conducted at The Patio.

Collie Follows Girl To Wrong Home, Returns

A buff, white and black collie named Sheyne performed the "Return of the Native" this week.

It took the combined efforts of the Independet-Journal, radio station KTIM and an anonymous reader and listener to get him back to his owners, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Haynan of 14 West Renz Road, Mill Valley.

The Haymans and 3-year-old Sheyne lived in San Rafael, near San Anselmo, until a year ago when they moved to Virginia. Last week they returned to Marin and rented the house in Mill Valley. Sheyne was shipped out by plane, and the second night he was back in Marin he disappeared.

Mrs. Heyman placed a classified ad in the Independent-Journal and waited. Two nights ago she was rewarded by a telephone call from a woman who gave her name as Mrs. Michael. Mrs. Michael had heard a description on KTIM of a tri-color collie which had followed 9 year-old Vicky Walsh, daughter of Mrs. Louise Walsh, to her home at 1 Sunnyview Avenue, San Anselmo.

The dog had been turned over to the Humane Society. When Mrs. Michael saw the ad in the I-J, she suspected that it was the same dog and called Mrs. Heyman.

Yesterday Sheyne was brought home from the pound.

Telstar Town Greets Pollsters

ANDOVER, Maine (AP)—What happens to a town of 790 people when it gets an internationally known space-age installation? Well, for one thing, it is visited by polltakers.

Andover, site of the Telstar antenna system for overseas communication via satellite, had its pulse taken this summer by a University of Maine survey team. Results are not complete but preliminary findings show that the townspeople have taken the whole thing in stride and the Telstar staff likes the place.

The town now has a school problem. But who hasn't?

Marin CORE Seeks Anti-Bias Action

The Marin Congress for Racial Equality yesterday asked the Marin County Redevelopment Agency to take five actions which may keep persons from being "edged out of Marin City and Marin County."

The CORE housing committee, in a letter signed by chairman Loren Bock of Fairfax asked that the actions be taken after the agency has made both a door-to-door survey in Marin City to determine the residents housing wants and after the agency has provided answers to a CORE questionnaire.

No action was taken by the commission, chairman Alton Lerch saying the commission will take the letter under advisement.

"The future of a number of families in Marin City rests in uncertainty and uneasiness," the letter said. "They fear that unpalatable situations will be offered them when the remainder of the bungalow housing is torn down next year—either being forced to buy a house or co-op apartment they don't want, being edged out of Marin City and Marin County because no one has done anything to find them other housing or being moved from one slum to another."

The five actions requested are as follows:

1. That the redevelopment agency provide apartment units to be rented instead of sold as co-operatives for families who prefer to rent;

2. That the agency plan units in the next apartments to accommodate all single persons not eligible for low cost housing who want to continue to live in Marin City.

3. That the agency promptly sell lots for private development to those families with money to build.

4. That it be announced publicly that no families will be forced to leave Marin City because of the redevelopment unless the agency can provide "decent, safe and sanitary" homes in Marin at prices they can pay and which are "reasonably accessible to their places of employment."

5. That redevelopment architects meet informally with Marin City residents interested in buying or renting the new homes and apartments and work with them in planning the remaining units.

"The architects should do what they do for any private client: Listen to the residents' suggestions, make every effort to incorporate these ideas into their drawings, offer acceptable substitutes or explain why such suggestions are not feasible," the letter said.

Relative to the proposed survey, Donald O. Stutsman, agency deputy director, said all but 16 of the Marin City residents had been "seen" within the last six months.

"It would be interesting to see the results of that survey," said Mrs. Bock. She then asked if there were any reasons why plans could not be made for single persons to occupy apartments yet to be built.

It was explained that under the financing setup for moderate or middle income rents the federal government does not provide housing for single persons.

Redeveloper James H. Scheuer said "the need is for families with children . . . single persons are most able to find for themselves."

"We have tried to find a location for the 19 single persons," reported Bert Klahn, executive director, "and have just placed three Negro families at Hilarita Housing (in Tiburon). We can house 19 single persons over there without any trouble so I don't know why this is a problem."

Woman Wins $97.22 Interest On Million

Mrs. Robert L. Grimes of 568 Tamarack Drive, Terra Linda, last night won 3½ per cent interest on a million dollars at a drawing at the grand opening of the Crocker-Anglo National Bank in Terra Linda.

The interest amounted to $97.22. Mrs. Grimes said, "I plan to leave the money in the bank and build it up to a million dollars."

Auto Accident Near Highway Injures Three

Three persons were injured at 4:10 p.m. yesterday when one car rammed another into a light pole on the southbound connector road from Corte Madera into Highway 101.

A car driven by William G. Silva, 21, Marin General Hospital dietary aid of 360 Bell Lane, Mill Valley, hit the rear of an eastbound car driven by Marie G. Grimm, 67, of San Francisco, as she turned into the connector road from Tamalpais Drive, reported California Patrolman Donald Greer.

Mrs. Grimm and two passengers, Edward Burroni, 67, and Evelyn Burroni, 62, also San Francisco, were treated at Marin General Hospital for cuts.

The Burronis were transferred in good condition to French Hospital, San Francisco.

Silva was cited for unsafe speed.

Bookmaking Indictments Handed Down

William P. Mountanos, 51, of San Francisco, brother of Marin Sheriff Louis Mountanos, was indicted by the Marin County Grand Jury last night on four counts of bookmaking.

Free on $1,050 bail, Mountanos is scheduled to appear in Marin Superior Court Monday morning.

The grand jury indictment accuses Mountanos of taking horse-racing bets on Aug. 7, 10, 14, and 21. The bets were for races held at Bay Meadows, Stockton, and at Del Mar in San Diego, according to San Rafael police and agents of the Alcoholic Beverage Control department.

San Rafael Police Inspectors Thomas Cheetham and Richard Camper arrested Mountanos Wednesday night at The Patio bar, 869 Fourth Street, San Rafael. Co-owner of the bar is another brother, George Mountanos.

William Mountanos reportedly accepted $10 bets from liquor control agents. San Rafael police said the alleged bookmaking operations were conducted at The Patio.

Collie Follows Girl To Wrong Home, Returns

A buff, white and black collie named Sheyne performed the "Return of the Native" this week.

It took the combined efforts of the Independet-Journal, radio station KTIM and an anonymous reader and listener to get him back to his owners, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Haynan of 14 West Renz Road, Mill Valley.

The Haymans and 3-year-old Sheyne lived in San Rafael, near San Anselmo, until a year ago when they moved to Virginia. Last week they returned to Marin and rented the house in Mill Valley. Sheyne was shipped out by plane, and the second night he was back in Marin he disappeared.

Mrs. Heyman placed a classified ad in the Independent-Journal and waited. Two nights ago she was rewarded by a telephone call from a woman who gave her name as Mrs. Michael. Mrs. Michael had heard a description on KTIM of a tri-color collie which had followed 9 year-old Vicky Walsh, daughter of Mrs. Louise Walsh, to her home at 1 Sunnyview Avenue, San Anselmo.

The dog had been turned over to the Humane Society. When Mrs. Michael saw the ad in the I-J, she suspected that it was the same dog and called Mrs. Heyman.

Yesterday Sheyne was brought home from the pound.

Telstar Town Greets Pollsters

ANDOVER, Maine (AP)—What happens to a town of 790 people when it gets an internationally known space-age installation? Well, for one thing, it is visited by polltakers.

Andover, site of the Telstar antenna system for overseas communication via satellite, had its pulse taken this summer by a University of Maine survey team. Results are not complete but preliminary findings show that the townspeople have taken the whole thing in stride and the Telstar staff likes the place.

The town now has a school problem. But who hasn't?

Marin CORE Seeks Anti-Bias Action

The Marin Congress for Racial Equality yesterday asked the Marin County Redevelopment Agency to take five actions which may keep persons from being "edged out of Marin City and Marin County."

The CORE housing committee, in a letter signed by chairman Loren Bock of Fairfax asked that the actions be taken after the agency has made both a door-to-door survey in Marin City to determine the residents housing wants and after the agency has provided answers to a CORE questionnaire.

No action was taken by the commission, chairman Alton Lerch saying the commission will take the letter under advisement.

"The future of a number of families in Marin City rests in uncertainty and uneasiness," the letter said. "They fear that unpalatable situations will be offered them when the remainder of the bungalow housing is torn down next year—either being forced to buy a house or co-op apartment they don't want, being edged out of Marin City and Marin County because no one has done anything to find them other housing or being moved from one slum to another."

The five actions requested are as follows:

1. That the redevelopment agency provide apartment units to be rented instead of sold as co-operatives for families who prefer to rent;

2. That the agency plan units in the next apartments to accommodate all single persons not eligible for low cost housing who want to continue to live in Marin City.

3. That the agency promptly sell lots for private development to those families with money to build.

4. That it be announced publicly that no families will be forced to leave Marin City because of the redevelopment unless the agency can provide "decent, safe and sanitary" homes in Marin at prices they can pay and which are "reasonably accessible to their places of employment."

5. That redevelopment architects meet informally with Marin City residents interested in buying or renting the new homes and apartments and work with them in planning the remaining units.

"The architects should do what they do for any private client: Listen to the residents' suggestions, make every effort to incorporate these ideas into their drawings, offer acceptable substitutes or explain why such suggestions are not feasible," the letter said.

Relative to the proposed survey, Donald O. Stutsman, agency deputy director, said all but 16 of the Marin City residents had been "seen" within the last six months.

"It would be interesting to see the results of that survey," said Mrs. Bock. She then asked if there were any reasons why plans could not be made for single persons to occupy apartments yet to be built.

It was explained that under the financing setup for moderate or middle income rents the federal government does not provide housing for single persons.

Redeveloper James H. Scheuer said "the need is for families with children . . . single persons are most able to find for themselves."

"We have tried to find a location for the 19 single persons," reported Bert Klahn, executive director, "and have just placed three Negro families at Hilarita Housing (in Tiburon). We can house 19 single persons over there without any trouble so I don't know why this is a problem."

Woman Wins $97.22 Interest On Million

Mrs. Robert L. Grimes of 568 Tamarack Drive, Terra Linda, last night won 3½ per cent interest on a million dollars at a drawing at the grand opening of the Crocker-Anglo National Bank in Terra Linda.

The interest amounted to $97.22. Mrs. Grimes said, "I plan to leave the money in the bank and build it up to a million dollars."

Hallinans Won't Let Property Go

Neither Heaven nor Hell — nor the Roman Catholic Church — will persuade attorney Vincent Hallinan of Belvedere to give up a choice piece of property in San Francisco.

With the aim of expanding St. Boniface's Church, Franciscan Fathers have purchased all but one parcel of land in the block bounded by McAllister, Golden Gate, Leavenworth and Jones streets in San Francisco.

The remaining piece, a corner lot including four stores and a 24-unit apartment building, belongs to Hallinan in the name of his son, Patrick.

"We'll never sell it," the attorney said today.

"Two or three years ago, the Church made us an offer of $300,000," Hallinan said. "We told them then that it's not for sale, and it's still not. We've had inquiries from them since but no further discussion."

Hallinan said he and his son wouldn't consider selling the land—even if an offer came along from somebody other than the Fathers. The attorney, an avowed atheist, has asked the church to prove there is a Heaven and Hell, in a lawsuit claiming the church misrepresented what it could offer in the way of salvation to a man who left $175,000 to Catholic institutions.

"One of our tenants on the McAllister Street property is the American-Russian Institute," Hallinan said, "an organization to establish good relations between the two countries."

"I guess they're atheists, too," he said.

SCIENTIST GIVES MANTLE RATIONALE

Tuve Tells Philosophy Of His Work At Symposium On Earth Study Project

BERKELEY (AP)—The scientist said it very simply: "I love Mother Earth. And we will all feel more at home as we learn more about the great abyss under our feet."

To Dr. Merle A. Tuve of Washington, D. C., that is the prime philosophic objective a huge new international study of the Earth, the upper mantle project, starting in 1964. And because, he adds, "I feel sure 10,000 more generations of men will walk this earth."

Doctor Tuve extemporaneously gave newsmen his philosophy of the project and how a scientist personally feels, in a preview of today's symposium on the upper mantle project at the 13th Assembly of the International Union of Geodesy and Geophysics on the University of California Campus.

The upper mantle project will evolve scientists of some 60 nations in a probing of the Earth's crust and its still-mysterious mantle or main bulk, down to a depth of 600 miles.

The mantle is several thousand miles thick, separating the thin continental crusts, on which humans live, from the center of the earth which is generally considered to be a great swirling lake of molten metal.

"Science is an aesthetic experience, a deep satisfaction," Doctor Tuve said. "We are not just technicians, seizing upon a fact saying 'aha! I've just discovered a fact!' We are interested in the meaning of the facts, and there's a long way to go."

Doctor Tuve is director of the Department of Terrestial Magnetism at the Carnegie Institution in Washington and chairman of the Geophysics Research Board of the National Academy of Sciences.

The project is aimed at gathering information on the state of the world beneath our feet, its origin and past history and its probable future, said Doctor Tuve and J. M. Harrison of Ottowa, director of the Geological Survey of Canada and Dr. V. A. Magnitsky of Moscow State University.

Police Officer Spots His Man In Unlucky Trip

Thomas Jay Wilson Jr., 40, of Berkeley came back to San Rafael at the wrong time last night.

Wilson, who had been in Bakersfield for the past three weeks, returned to San Rafael and was walking on A Street near Third Street when he was spotted by Police Officer Gilbert Freitas.

Freitas, who was off duty, took Wilson to jail and booked him on three counts of fictitious checks.

Police said Wilson had passed three checks in San Rafael totaling $35. Wilson has passed more than $600 in bad checks in the Bay Area, including some in Mill Valley, San Anselmo and Fairfax, police said.

He was paroled from San Quentin in March on a bad check charge, according to police.

Unification Opponents Set Platform Job

Citizens opposed to unification of the entire Tamalpais High School District have "an educational mission" to put facts about unification before the people, the chairman of an anti-unification group declared today.

About 35 persons attended the second meeting of the Citizens Committee Against Unification of the Tamalpais District As a Whole last night in the Adaline E. Kent School in Kentfield.

"We are reviewing our proposed policy platform," said Chairman John E. Cahill of Kentfield, "to determine facts which should be brought out at public hearings on the proposed unification, which will probably be held during October."

Cahill emphasized the committee is "not necessarily against any kind of unification, but against unification of the whole district."

He said there "will not be much time at the hearings to ask many questions, and we want to be certain that our report is distributed so that all the facts will be known."

The committee will meet again Sept. 26 in Sausalito.

An 1,800-year-old Roman bridge at Alcantara, Spain, is still in use.

Sausalito Sets School Signup

Sausalito schools will be open for registration of pupils starting Monday from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. daily, Supt. Marcus F. Davis said today.

Parents with kindergarten children are urged to register their children prior to school opening on Sept. 3, Davis said. All children who are eligible for kindergarten must be four years and nine months of age on or before Sept. 2.

Hospitality hours will be held at Central and Bayside schools at 8 a.m., Sept. 3 under sponsorship of the Parent-Teacher Assn.

Last year Sausalito school children were first among Marin's public schools to return to studies, going back Aug. 29. This year, with an 183 day calendar for the year, the students go back on the same day as those at Fairfax. Fairfax also has a 183-day calendar.

Bolinas Marina Plan Given Harbor District

A proposal to develop approximately 110 acres of the Bolinas lagoon tidelands as a recreational marina was presented to the Bolinas Harbor District last night.

The marina, which would be planned for yachting and small boating, swimming and fishing, would be leased from the district by the Finley Realty Assn., which has also proposed a 800-acre residential development to run from the lagoon up to 1,600 feet elevation on a ridge of Mount Tamalpais.

The company asked a 50 year lease on the tidelands on the east side of the lagoon with payment to the harbor district at $5,000 a year plus five per cent of its gross sales.

Gene W. McDaniel, president of the district board, said directors want to make a thorough study of the proposal before maknig a decision.

School Master Key Said Stolen

A thief stole a master key that will unlock almost every door at San Pedro School, east of San Rafael, sheriff's deputies reported today.

The key was in a purse, left in the kitchen area of the school recreation hall yesterday. The purse belonged to Susan Marie Knopf, 17, an assistant recreation director.

She notified school Recreation Director Williams Hopstock, who called the sheriff.

Bishops Issue Rights Message

WASHINGTON (AP) — Roman Catholic bishops of the United States called on Catholics today to "act to remove obstacles that impede the rights and opportunities of our Negro brethren."

"We should do our part to see that voting, jobs, housing, education and public facilities are freely available to every American," the bishops said in a pastoral letter released by the National Catholic Welfare Conference.

The conference, which speaks for the Catholic hierarchy in the United States, said the letter would be read in many U.S. dioceses this Sunday. A spokesman said the bishops are not required to have it read and some, for various reasons, may choose to ignore it.

Sebastopol Roofer Hurt In Novato Fall

Claude M. Fisher of Sebastopol, was hospitalized at 4:15 p.m. yesterday from injuries received in a fall from a roof of a house at 852 Cypress Avenue, Novato.

Fisher, an employee of the Jack W. Shields Construction Co. of 610 Wilson Avenue, received contusions and possible sprains. He was reported in satisfactory condition in Novato hospital. He was working on re-roofing the house when he slipped and fell, according to company officials.

Bright Orange Life Raft Gone From Dock

A five-man life raft, bright orange in color, disappeared from a private dock in Santa Venetia yesterday.

Robert M. Hensen of 809 Vendola Drive told Sheriff's Deputy Ernest Nielsen he had left the raft in the dock behind his home. It is about three by five feet and is worth $135.

DINING OUT AND INNS

By HARRY CRAFT

Repeats On Menu Keep Repeats Among Customers In Restaurant

A man can get in a rut eating at the same place all the time, even if it represents everything desirable in food, service, price and all round friendliness.

Not to throw cold vichyssoise on restaurant loyalty, for this is what keeps many establishments going when the tourist and visiting firemen trade is at low ebb.

It's a rare restaurateur who can depend on a complete change of faces day after day, and keep his chef busy, here in Marin, anyway. Whether the customers come from this side of the bay or from out of town, it's the repeats that count.

Which reminds me — there are people who have been living in Marin for some time and still know less about their home dining-out facilities than they do about San Francisco. A pox on them. They could at least try them once in a while.

I am often asked what my favorite Marin restaurant is—a question that I invariably answer in the plural. Usually as plurally as possible, for most of the time the inquirers are actually more interested in leading up to a discussion of their own favorites.

It makes them very happy when they find their opinions shared.

Don't take this as an inside confession of a restaurant writer. The fact is, there are few if any places in Marin which I deliberately avoid. I believe that, on the whole, Marin restaurateurs can hold up their heads as high as in any other section of the country.

And here's a tip. If a first experience isn't up to expectations, don't cross the place off your list for all time. Give it another chance.

No ship always sails on an even keel. And if you don't think the water can be rough when a dishwasher doesn't show up, a waitress takes sick or the freezer goes off — you don't know the restaurant business.

HERE'S ONE PLACE that has been pretty fortunate—if trouble happens it seldom shows. I never feel that I am sticking my neck out in recommending it.

Consistency it has—in food and service and other things. I've never been disappointed here, and it's high on the frequency list of other people's favorites.

Rubini's in Fairfax. I don't seem to get there as often as I should. When I do, enthusiasm bubbles out all over again, for where do you find such a steak, lobster steak or flaming shish kabob?

Or a Lowell Hawk at the piano who can play almost anything you name.

Ray O'Connell, now serving here, has turned into a prime waiter—or perhaps he always did have a knack for this end of the restaurant business and we never realized it.

THE PANDORA RESTAURANT—or something like that—will be the name of the new restaurant that goes in San Anselmo at the former Fleur de Lys location. It invites curiosity, to say the least.

But the owner isn't sure of all his plans yet—or that the transaction is sufficiently solid to make any. So he's deferring all announcements. Can't say that I blame him.

BACK THIS WEEK from a food executives convention in Las Vegas, restaurateur Eugene Lackenbach had an unhappy climax to an otherwise informative trip. A careless driver whacked the back of the hack carrying him to the Las Vegas airport and gave him a whiplash. His neck is in bad shape.

IN GAY PAREE—Paul and Renee Devaux on their vacation and having a wonderful time in their homeland after six years away from it. Seems they didn't need that French dictionary to get back in the swing after all. They can forget about La Petite Auberge. Pierre and Roger are doing alright.

A TOSS-UP. Abalone a la Giovani, baked flounder gourmet or stuffed turbot at Sabella's. If you've already tried one, try the others. Not new on the menu—in fact, they're old standbys — but hard to beat.

STARTING TONIGHT at the Embers in Corte Madera — Rose Dykes at the piano. She is billed as "little Sofi Tuker" with that spelling. Yolanda Apostoli says "her hands are like four on the keyboard." Friday and Saturday night appearances.

Yolanda's Dunk-It coffee shop in Larkspur is now open and doing a good business.

Auto Thief Chooses Wrong Car To Steal

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—George Eugene Bueno, 17, of Pueblo, Colo., was indicted yesterday on an FBI complaint charging theft of federal property.

The FBI said that Bueno broke into a downtown Pueblo garage Sunday night and stole a car. Bueno should have picked another car. This one belonged to the FBI.

Just One Thing Wrong

GALLUP, N.M. (AP) — There was only one thing wrong with new badges delivered to the Gallup police department yesterday. They bore the state seal of Arizona, not New Mexico.

First Agency Agrees To Surplus Water Plan

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Department of Water Resources says the San Bernardino Valley Municipal Water District has become the first agency to agree with the state's plan to sell surplus water plan water at low cost.

William E. Warne, director of water resources, said the district agreed to modify its contract, which had said surplus water had to be sold to produce the highest net revenue.

Anderson Proclaims State 'Freedom Day'

SACRAMENTO (AP) —Acting Gov. Glenn. M. Anderson has proclaimed Aug. 28, the date of the planned civil rights march on Washington, D. C., "Freedom Day" in California.

He urged all Californians to "lend their spiritual support" to the march, saying that would dramatize the need for President John F. Kennedy's "far-reaching civil rights program."

Own Fire Department

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — As a precaution against fire, the Kentucky pioneer built the chimney of his log cabin so that if it caught fire he could pull out a log and collapse the burning chimney.

Venezuelans Hit American's Home

MARCAY, Venezuela (AP) — Terrorists set fire to the home of an American Air Force sergeant with a gasoline bomb yesterday, police reported.

The attack on the home of Sgt. William Elliott of the U.S. Air Force mission was attributed to members of a pro-Communist terrorist organization calling itself the Armed Forces of National Liberation (FALN).

They have made previous attacks on American homes in recent months.

DETROIT, Mich. (UPI) — The first electric self-starter for an automobile was developed in 1911 by C. P. Kettering.

Marin Boy Wins Future Engineer Project Prize

One of the three Marin youths who exhibited at the Future Engineers Show at the San Francisco Cow Palace finished among the top 10 of the 37 boys who entered. All received $25 savings bonds for participating in it.

The seventh annual science fair was part of the 1963 Western Electronic Show and Convention. It ends today.

Lonnie Masouredis, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Masouredis of 9 DeAnza Way, San Rafael, passed the first elimination and made the top 10 with his project describing the "Effect of Pressure on Gas Discharge."

The other two Marin exhibitors were Bill Blankenburg, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Blankenburg of 131 Meernaa Avenue, Fairfax, and Brian Nelson, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Nelson of 2323 Paradise Drive, Tiburon.

DINING OUT AND INNS

By HARRY CRAFT

Repeats On Menu Keep Repeats Among Customers In Restaurant

A man can get in a rut eating at the same place all the time, even if it represents everything desirable in food, service, price and all round friendliness.

Not to throw cold vichyssoise on restaurant loyalty, for this is what keeps many establishments going when the tourist and visiting firemen trade is at low ebb.

It's a rare restaurateur who can depend on a complete change of faces day after day, and keep his chef busy, here in Marin, anyway. Whether the customers come from this side of the bay or from out of town, it's the repeats that count.

Which reminds me — there are people who have been living in Marin for some time and still know less about their home dining-out facilities than they do about San Francisco. A pox on them. They could at least try them once in a while.

I am often asked what my favorite Marin restaurant is—a question that I invariably answer in the plural. Usually as plurally as possible, for most of the time the inquirers are actually more interested in leading up to a discussion of their own favorites.

It makes them very happy when they find their opinions shared.

Don't take this as an inside confession of a restaurant writer. The fact is, there are few if any places in Marin which I deliberately avoid. I believe that, on the whole, Marin restaurateurs can hold up their heads as high as in any other section of the country.

And here's a tip. If a first experience isn't up to expectations, don't cross the place off your list for all time. Give it another chance.

No ship always sails on an even keel. And if you don't think the water can be rough when a dishwasher doesn't show up, a waitress takes sick or the freezer goes off — you don't know the restaurant business.

HERE'S ONE PLACE that has been pretty fortunate—if trouble happens it seldom shows. I never feel that I am sticking my neck out in recommending it.

Consistency it has—in food and service and other things. I've never been disappointed here, and it's high on the frequency list of other people's favorites.

Rubini's in Fairfax. I don't seem to get there as often as I should. When I do, enthusiasm bubbles out all over again, for where do you find such a steak, lobster steak or flaming shish kabob?

Or a Lowell Hawk at the piano who can play almost anything you name.

Ray O'Connell, now serving here, has turned into a prime waiter—or perhaps he always did have a knack for this end of the restaurant business and we never realized it.

THE PANDORA RESTAURANT—or something like that—will be the name of the new restaurant that goes in San Anselmo at the former Fleur de Lys location. It invites curiosity, to say the least.

But the owner isn't sure of all his plans yet—or that the transaction is sufficiently solid to make any. So he's deferring all announcements. Can't say that I blame him.

BACK THIS WEEK from a food executives convention in Las Vegas, restaurateur Eugene Lackenbach had an unhappy climax to an otherwise informative trip. A careless driver whacked the back of the hack carrying him to the Las Vegas airport and gave him a whiplash. His neck is in bad shape.

IN GAY PAREE—Paul and Renee Devaux on their vacation and having a wonderful time in their homeland after six years away from it. Seems they didn't need that French dictionary to get back in the swing after all. They can forget about La Petite Auberge. Pierre and Roger are doing alright.

A TOSS-UP. Abalone a la Giovani, baked flounder gourmet or stuffed turbot at Sabella's. If you've already tried one, try the others. Not new on the menu—in fact, they're old standbys — but hard to beat.

STARTING TONIGHT at the Embers in Corte Madera — Rose Dykes at the piano. She is billed as "little Sofi Tuker" with that spelling. Yolanda Apostoli says "her hands are like four on the keyboard." Friday and Saturday night appearances.

ALONG MARIN'S SPORTS TRAIL

By JIM GILMARTIN

Cruel Dipsea Trail Once Again To Punish Marathoners Sunday

Does it poop you, Papa, to weed the garden or run to the corner store? Does your heart skip a beat at the mere thought of climbing a flight of stairs?

Then you'll appreciate the endurance — or sheer intestinal fortitude—of the some 100-plus men and boys who'll challenge Marin's famed Dipsea Handicap Race Sunday—a tortuous 6.8-mile run from Mill Valley to Stinson Beach.

In these times of JFK-inspired hikes the Dipsea distance may sound like a drop in the bucket, but when you study the terrain over which these athletes must run you realize why so many marathoners consider this truly one of America's toughest races.

Stand at the finish line in Stinson Beach and watch the harriers come in. Sure, some are in good shape, smiling at their conquest of this Everest of foot racing. But others will show the toll the Dipsea takes on the human body. I've seen men stagger across the finish line, open mouths ringed with foam, heads jerking and rolling, rubbery legs bleeding from dirty wounds.

All this for a medal, possible a trophy at the most. You wonder what lures these athletes into this athletic hell. Call it the spirit of competition if you will; I call it madness.

WHAT IS the Dipsea? Well, it starts innocently enough on a sleepy, Sunday morning in serene Mill Valley as the runners look up at the "Sleeping Princess" known as Mt. Tamalpais, over whose shoulders they are about to embark.

Shortly after the start they are confronted with their first major obstacle — the famed 442 steps up closer to the Sleeping Princess who by now has awakened with a roar. "What a bitch!" the runners must say to themselves.

After the steps the trail continues to rise sharply to the top of a ridge overlooking Muir Woods, down into which the stout-hearted harriers gallop. Once through the woods they then are confronted with another lung-bursting climb—to the top of 1,800-foot Lone Pine.

THIS IS the start of the home stretch, where runners can see the ocean. It's here where they call on their fortitude to drive them home to the beach. Thus, this long downhill grind is where the spills come and the legs and feet take an awful beating. The bandage concession is a profit-maker. They get blisters on their blisters.

Once across the finish line the runners are invited to take a dip in the sea (Dipsea, see?) Few can make it—or want to.

At the turn of the century the trail used to be a regular Sunday hike for members of the Olympic Club. Someone suggested a competitive race over the trail and in 1905 it started its long history as such.

THE TRAIL hasn't changed much over the years, but it has been improved somewhat by Jim Imperiale and his Marin Athletic Club.

Track and field records are broken every day, but the Dipsea is an exception. The record of 47 minutes, 22 seconds set in 1937 by Norman Bright of the Olympic Club still stands. Only teen-ager Bob Hope of Mill Valley in 1960 and Irishman Peter McArdle last year came close to breaking it with times under 48 minutes.

I was going to try to break the record myself, but, hell, my Hillman couldn't even make the grade out of Mill Valley. I'll sit this one out.

LOOK FOR the Chicago Cubs to call up Marin's John Boccabella to the parent club before the season's end. The Pocatello, Ida. farm club rookie has been hitting up a storm and the Cubs may want to give him a personal once-over. Since Pocatello's season ends Sept. 1, Boccabella could make his major league debut on Sept. 2 when the Cubs play a doubleheader at Candlestick Park.

LARKSPUR'S Doug Wilson, playing with the Giants' Decatur, Ill. farm club, has been notified by the S.F. front office he'll be sent to Arizona this October and November to play in an instructional league.

KEG MARATHON TO HELP IN CANCER FIGHT

Three Marin youths will stage a bowling marathon tomorrow at Greenbrae Lanes, starting at 6 p.m., in hopes of making money for the American Cancer Society.

Andre Frere, 17, student at Redwood, and Gary Parraga and Jim Krause, both 18-year-old graduates of Redwood, will start bowling at 6 o'clock "and will stop when we get too tired to bowl any more," said Krause, spokesman for the group.

Richmond Sailor Tops 110 Field

By ALFRED MATSON

Although he finished third in yesterday's fourth race of the International 110 class regatta on San Francisco Bay, Gordon Nash, Richmond's torrid sailor, still leads the pack by a fairly good margin. He has 130½ points, second placer Brick Landon, San Diego, 125 and Dick Allen, San Diego, is in the third spot with 124½. In yesterday's turbulent hassle, Nash was lucky and unlucky, all at the same time. Less than 200 yards from the weather mark on the final beat, his jib halliard parted while well in the lead and he barely rounded the buoy ahead of onrushing Landon. Yet on the run down with main alone, he still finished third. If that halliard had parted in an early stage of the race, his chances of copping the title would have parted with it.

HEAVY CASUALTIES

Conditions were even worse than that of Wednesday, as the winds were reckoned at close to 25 miles and again the casualties were heavy. The lad who has taken the most lumps is likable Al Frost, the four time champion from San Diego. The first day he was disqualified, the second time out he had gear failure, on the third try he completed the race in sixth position, yesterday he was dismasted, truly an epic of hard luck.

Today was the hour of final reckoning as the fifth and last race was to produce the 1963 International champion. If Gordon Nash can retain the impetus that has brought him to his leading position, the handsome trophy that bespeaks the champion will find a welcome home for the coming year at the Richmond Y.C.

It was nice to observe that other Bay Area sailors were among the top 10 finishers yesterday. Grant Willson was fourth, Jim Davies seventh and Bob Klein eighth. Willson has also moved up into the seventh slot in the over-all standings.

Cards Halt Dodgers

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The St. Louis Cardinals, almost left high and dry by Curt Flood, took off for Houston today after salvaging the finale of a three-game set with National League leading Los Angeles and temporarily at least, throwing the Dodgers' runaway chances overboard.

Despite a base-running boner by the sure-footed Flood, the Cardinals kept the Dodgers from building their lead to a whopping 8½ games by edging the front-runners 3-2 last night in a game punctuated by missed opportunities.

Flood, racing around third on Bill White's hit with the score tied 2-2 in the fifth, missed the bag and had to retreat. By the time Flood, who had four hits for the night, retraced his steps, it was too late to try and score.

As it turned out, the Cardinals snapped the tie in the sixth on a double by Ken Boyer and Julian Javier's single, ending the Dodgers winning streak at seven games and trimming their lead to 6½ games.

The Cardinals, who came into Los Angeles only 5½ games back and riding a three-game winning streak, now will be looking to make up ground against the Colts while the Dodgers tackle the suddenly potent Milwaukee Braves.

The Braves, who have moved into sixth place by winning eight of their last 10, lost to third-place San Francisco 8-6 as Juan Marichal posted his 19th victory despite a grand slam homer by Milwaukee's Joe Torre. The Giants are 7½ back.

In the only other N.L. game scheduled, Roberto Clemente hit a grand slam homer in Pittsburgh's 9-3 belting of the Chicago Cubs.

The Cardinals scored twice in the first against Dodgers starter Don Drysdale, 16-14. Dick Groat was hit by a pitch, moved to third on a single by White and scored on Stan Musial's grounder before Boyer singled White home. The Dodgers came back to tie in the third against Ernie Broglio, 14-8, on run-producing singles by Wally Moon and Tommy Davis. After that they were unable to come up with the key hit.

The Dodgers got men on first and third with one out in the eighth but Wally Moon got trapped off third when Ron Fairly swung and missed a pitch by Ray Sadecki. Fairly then struck out to end that threat. The Dodgers got Frank Howard to third with two out in the ninth, but Sam Jones relieved Sadecki and struck out pinch hitter Bill Skowron to end the game.

A crowd of 48,569 turned out for the series windup, bringing the total attendance for the three games to 153,816.

A double by Donn Clendenon and Jim Pagliaroni's single broke a 3-3 tie in the sixth before Clemente broke it open for the Pirates with his grand slam in the ninth. Bob Bailey belted a triple and homer for the Pirates as they hopped over the slipping Cubs into seventh place. Bob Friend, 15-11, got the victory with Al McBean's relief help. Larry Jackson, 14-12, was the loser.

O'Dell, Pierce Nominated For Weekend Contests

San Francisco Giant Manager Al Dark hopes his bullpen won't see Red this weekend.

Nothing would please Dark more than to see Jack Sanford, Billy O'Dell and Billy Pierce go the distance in the San Francisco's three upcoming games with the Cincinnati Reds.

The Giant leader switched from O'Dell to Juan Marichal against the Milwaukee Braves yesterday, mainly because of worry over his bullpen.

"The bullpen is weak and tired and if O'Dell can't go the distance, I don't know who I would have had," Dark said after Marichal snapped the Giants' five-game losing streak with an 8-6 win over the Braves.

Jim Maloney (8-5), the youngster from Fresno hurls for the visitors tonight facing veteran Sanford (12-12).

Giant injuries are healing and in the finale against the Braves, the Giants started a nearly complete No. 1 unit.

Marichal won his 19th game of the season, a career high for him, and cut the Braves' win skein off at five straight. But he had to survive a grand slam homer by Joe Torre to do it.

Torre hit his four-ply blast in the eighth inning when Marichal seemed to be breezing. The Giant righthander had an 8-2 lead and had gone three-up-three-down through the fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh innings.

But singles by Frank Bolling and Hank Aaron and a walk to Eddie Mathews loaded the bases in the eighth. Torre unloaded them, getting his first homer in Candlestick Park.

That made the score 8-6 and Marichal kept it that way despite giving up a single in the ninth that brought the tying run to the plate.

TWO IN FIRST

San Francisco got two in the first when Orlando Cepeda singled with the bases full. In the top of the third the Braves tied it on Gene Oliver's two-run double.

But the Giants got four in the bottom of the same frame, three of them on Felipe Alou's 15th homer of the year. In the seventh Willie McCovey tripled and Willie Mays singled for one run and Mays later scored on a passed ball. At the time the runs didn't seem important, but Torre's blast in the next frame changed that and these counters were the eventual winning ones.

Jottings: The injury-plagued Giants got a scare in the top of the third when May's made a spectacular diving grab of Lee Maye's drive into right center. Mays rolled over and clutched his arm as he was surrounded by teammates. The trainer said after the game that the star centerfielder had just hit his "crazybone." . . . Dark credited Mays with the key play of the game in breaking up a double play in the third inning prior to Alou's homer. If the Braves had made the twin killing—and Bailey was legging it out to first—the inning would have ended. Instead the Giants scored four times .

ALONG MARIN'S SPORTS TRAIL

Cruel Dipsea Trail Once Again To Punish Marathoners Sunday

Does it poop you, Papa, to weed the garden or run to the corner store? Does your heart skip a beat at the mere thought of climbing a flight of stairs?

Then you'll appreciate the endurance—or sheer intestinal fortitude—of the some 100-plus men and boys who'll challenge Marin's famed Dipsea Handicap Race Sunday—a tortuous 6.8-mile run from Mill Valley to Stinson Beach.

In these times of JFK-inspired hikes the Dipsea distance may sound like a drop in the bucket, but when you study the terrain over which these athletes must run you realize why so many marathoners consider this truly one of America's toughest races.

Stand at the finish line in Stinson Beach and watch the harriers come in. Sure, some are in good shape, smiling at their conquest of this Everest of foot racing. But others will show the toll the Dipsea takes on the human body. I've seen men stagger across the finish line, open mouths ringed with foam, heads jerking and rolling, rubbery legs bleeding from dirty wounds.

All this for a medal, possible a trophy at the most. You wonder what lures these athletes into this athletic hell. Call it the spirit of competition if you will; I call it madness.

WHAT IS the Dipsea? Well, it starts innocently enough on a sleepy, Sunday morning in serene Mill Valley as the runners look up at the "Sleeping Princess" known as Mt. Tamalpais, over whose shoulders they are about to embark.

Shortly after the start they are confronted with their first major obstacle — the famed 442 steps up closer to the Sleeping Princess who by now has awakened with a roar. "What a bitch!" the runners must say to themselves.

After the steps the trail continues to rise sharply to the top of a ridge overlooking Muir Woods, down into which the stout-hearted harriers gallop. Once through the woods they then are confronted with another lung-bursting climb—to the top of 1,800-foot Lone Pine.

THIS IS the start of the home stretch, where runners can see the ocean. It's here where they call on their fortitude to drive them home to the beach. Thus, this long downhill grind is where the spills come and the legs and feet take an awful beating. The bandage concession is a profit-maker. They get blisters on their blisters.

Once across the finish line the runners are invited to take a dip in the sea (Dipsea, see?) Few can make it—or want to.

At the turn of the century the trail used to be a regular Sunday hike for members of the Olympic Club. Someone suggested a competitive race over the trail and in 1905 it started its long history as such.

THE TRAIL hasn't changed much over the years, but it has been improved somewhat by Jim Imperiale and his Marin Athletic Club.

Track and field records are broken every day, but the Dipsea is an exception. The record of 47 minutes, 22 seconds set in 1937 by Norman Bright of the Olympic Club still stands. Only teen-ager Bob Hope of Mill Valley in 1960 and Irishman Peter McArdle last year came close to breaking it with times under 48 minutes.

I was going to try to break the record myself, but, hell, my Hillman couldn't even make the grade out of Mill Valley. I'll sit this one out.

LOOK FOR the Chicago Cubs to call up Marin's John Boccabella to the parent club before the season's end. The Pocatello, Ida. farm club rookie has been hitting up a storm and the Cubs may want to give him a personal once-over. Since Pocatello's season ends Sept. 1, Boccabella could make his major league debut on Sept. 2 when the Cubs play a doubleheader at Candlestick Park.

LARKSPUR'S Doug Wilson, playing with the Giants' Decatur, Ill. farm club, has been notified by the S.F. front office he'll be sent to Arizona this October and November to play in an instructional league.

KEG MARATHON TO HELP IN CANCER FIGHT

Three Marin youths will stage a bowling marathon tomorrow at Greenbrae Lanes, starting at 6 p.m., in hopes of making money for the American Cancer Society.

Andre Frere, 17, student at Redwood, and Gary Parraga and Jim Krause, both 18-year-old graduates of Redwood, will start bowling at 6 o'clock "and will stop when we get too tired to bowl any more," said Krause, spokesman for the group.

Richmond Sailor Tops 110 Field

By ALFRED MATSON

Although he finished third in yesterday's fourth race of the International 110 class regatta on San Francisco Bay, Gordon Nash, Richmond's torrid sailor, still leads the pack by a fairly good margin. He has 130½ points, second placer Brick Landon, San Diego, 125 and Dick Allen, San Diego, is in the third spot with 124½. In yesterday's turbulent hassle, Nash was lucky and unlucky, all at the same time. Less than 200 yards from the weather mark on the final beat, his jib halliard parted while well in the lead and he barely rounded the buoy ahead of onrushing Landon. Yet on the run down with main alone, he still finished third. If that halliard had parted in an early stage of the race, his chances of copping the title would have parted with it.

San Francisco Giant Manager Al Dark hopes his bullpen won't see Red this weekend.

Nothing would please Dark more than to see Jack Sanford, Billy O'Dell and Billy Pierce go the distance in the San Francisco's three upcoming games with the Cincinnati Reds.

The Giant leader switched from O'Dell to Juan Marichal against the Milwaukee Braves yesterday, mainly because of worry over his bullpen.

DODGERS' DON DRYSDALE DOING DARING DANCE

In what appears to be a dance of the Dodgers, Don Drysdale (53) and Maury Wills (30) converge on a throw to third base in seventh inning of last night's game against St. Louis at Chavez Ravine. 49ers Put Injured Conner On Waivers

Clyde Conner, injured veteran end, was placed on waivers yesterday by the San Francisco 49ers.

Conner, 30, in his eighth year, broke a collarbone July 24 and is not expected back in action for another two and one-half weeks.

The former University of Pacific player has been replaced since his injury by flanker end Jim Johnson, second-year man from UCLA. If Conner is claimed by another National Football League team, he cannot be cut as long as he is still injured.

Coach Red Hickey and President Vic Morabito both vigorously denied reports published yesterday that the 49ers turned down a deal with the Los Angeles Rams that would have brought fullback Ollie Matson or end Lamar Lundy to San Francisco for guard Ted Connolly.

Connolly has asked to be traded, won't sign his contract and has not reported this year.

AMERICAN LEAGUE ROUNDUP

Now Cocky Stuart Claims He Topped Ted Williams

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Cocky Dick Stuart may be all talk and a yard wide but he can always say he topped Ted Williams.

And don't worry about the big uninhibited Boston first baseman—he'll say it all right because it happens to be true in one respect, anyway.

When the Pirates traded Stuart to the Red Sox last winter, so the story goes, he was asked whether he felt he would hit more homers than Williams did at Fenway Park.

Stuart promptly inquired: "How many did he hit his first year up?"

Informed that Williams had belted 31 homers his first season with the Red Sox, Stuart said "I oughta' hit more than that."

And he has.

Stuart, the American League home run leader, smashed his 33rd of the year with one yesterday to help the Red Sox wallop the White Sox, 11-2.

Big Stu also leads the league in runs batted in. Those two he accounted for yesterday upped his total to 93—13 ahead of his nearest challenger.

Stuart, however, didn't quite do the job on the White Sox alone. Ed Bressoud drove in six runs with a grand slam homer and two sacrifice flies while rookie Dave Morehead earned his eighth victory with a seven-hitter. Joe Horlen was the loser.

The Yankees retained their 10-game lead even though they dropped a 7-4 decision to the Indians, the Orioles roughed up the Angels, 5-1, and the Athletics beat the Senators, 6-2, in the only other A.L. games scheduled.

Cleveland rocked Ralph Terry for three homers in handing him his 13th loss against 14 victories. Tito Francona hit his eighth homer and Fred Whitfield and Willie Kirkland each hit his 15th before Terry was chased in the fourth. Jim (Mudcat) Grant gained his 10th victory although he gave up a grand slam to Johnny Blanchard in the sixth and was relieved by Gary Bell in the eighth.

Big Upset In S.A. Softball Tourney

Fairchild posted the biggest upset in the four-year history of the San Anselmo Invitational Softball Tournament by clobbering Two - Rock Army, 9-1, last night before a large crowd at Memorial Park.

The Fairchild win throws the tourney into a four-way race between Two-Rock (3-1), Sohner Tree Service (2 - 1), North Bay Flag (2-1) and Country Club Bowl (1-1). Fairchild (2-2) and Old Mill (0-4) are out of contention.

CRUCIAL GAME

A crucial game is on tap at 6:30 tonight when Country Club Bowl and Two-Rock will meet in a replay of their Tuesday game which was called because of darkness after 10 innings with the score tied at 2-2.

The hero's role last night would have to be shared by pitcher Bob Brown and first-baseman Ed Schulze.

Brown limited the hard-hitting Army nine to three hits while striking out five. And all Schulze did was hit two singles, a double and a triple to drive in five runs while scoring twice himself.

In notching the victory, Fairchild scored twice in the first with Milt Garfield and Schulze supplying the key blows and four more in the third to drive Two-Rock's ace hurler to cover.

Back - to - back - triples by Schulze and catcher Dave Culley highlighted the third - inning uprising.

Schulze with his four hits and Culley and Jim Phillips with three each accounted for 10 of Fairchild's 15 safeties.

Marin Youth In Norcal Golf Finals

Rick Webb of Kentfield was the lone Marin aspirant left in the Northern California Golf Assn. Junior Amateur Championship today and was to tee off in the final round today.

Webb was to take on Lyle fifth flight. The Kentfield linkster defeated John Pepple 5 and 4 in yesterday's semi-final round while Wehrman was eliminating Nicky Marinaro 3 and 2.

Bob Richeda of San Anselmo was eliminated from the sixth flight yesterday when he was defeated by Ken Kundert 4 and 3 in the semi-finals.

In the championship flight, Johnny Miller of San Francisco and Len Studinger of Burlingame, both 17, were to meet for the Norcal title today on the Olympic Club's Lakeside course in San Francisco.

NIGHTTIME GOLF HAS A BRIGHT FUTURE

SEWELL, N.J. (AP)—Okay, so nighttime golf is here. Now what?

"We won't play the National Open under arcs any time soon," said P. J. Boatright, assistant executive director of the U.S. Golf Association. "It's interesting and it's fun, but you can't expect it to take the place of daytime play.

"Night golf should lend itself particularly to the overcrowded public courses."

"It has its problems," added Fred Corcoran, tournament director of the International Golf Assn. "I remember I predicted back in 1939 that golf courses one day would be lighted, but it'll be a few years before this becomes a general fad."

Boatright and Corcoran were two of the many golf personalities invited to Tall Pines here this weekend to see a bit of golf history made—lighting of the first regulation course.

At a cost of $63,000, 121 powerful mercury floodlights of 1,000 watts each have been mounted on 76 40-foot wood poles around the nine-hole course, pouring out light equal to the flame of six million candles.

Although driving ranges, miniature layouts and some 200 sporty par-three courses are illuminated for night play, this is the first man-sized course to beat the darkness barrier. Tall Pines, a private club, has holes comparable to those the pros play on tour, with 28 deep sand traps, 1,000 added trees and out-of-bounds on five holes.

A par five hole stretches 520 yards. A valley par four reaches 420 yards, and another 415. There is a par three of 215 yards. Played twice around, it measures 6,460 yards with par 35-35-70.

"It's not daylight, but it's the nearest thing to it and the best money can buy," said the owner of the little private club, Peter McEvoy, Sr.

Larry Dengler, marketing engineer for the electrical concern which installed the system, predicted there would be a mass movement toward lighted courses, with municipal layouts in the van.

"It's a Godsend for the working man," added Dengler, of General Electric.

Leo Fraser, Atlantic City professional who hit off the first ball, said he found the greatest trouble was in judging distances. "That could be remedied with a lot of night play," he said.

Charles Arena, the swarthy host pro who shot an even par 35 on his first tour, said nighttime golf was just as easy as playing in the daylight but conceded: "You have to concentrate a bit more—you have to be more careful of every shot because you can't be as sure of your lie."

Stan Dudas, professional from nearby Moorestown, said he found the greens heavy and hard to judge because of the dew. "Scraping with a bamboo pole would help," he added.

Several of the nocturnal enthusiasts thought an iridescent ball—one painted yellow as used in the early days of big league baseball under lights—might be an answer. Somebody suggested, jestingly, a miner's cap with a strong light to focus on the lie of the ball as added equipment.

A few players lost balls in the rough. One marked his ball on the green with a dime, then couldn't find the dime.

"What frightens me," said another of the pioneers of moonlight play, "is what happens if the fuse blows and all the lights go out. You would need a seeing eye dog to get back to the club house."

'Big Mo' Stokes Still On Road To Recovery

MONTICELLO, N.Y. (AP)—It's been five years since a rare brain illness cut down the bright basketball career of an amiable giant from Pennsylvania — Maurice Stokes.

His friends in the National Basketball Assn. remember him well. They're contributing the fifth annual benefit game here tonight for Big Mo to help him toward the day he can leave Christ Hospital in Cincinnati.

Stokes has made what his doctor's call gradual progress. The swift illness left him paralyzed at first and unable to speak.

He's learned to speak some simple words, and has worked hard to regain some movement in arms and legs, to the point where he can walk with a body brace. He can laugh.

Jack Twyman, veteran Cincinnati Royals star and Stokes' teammate when Big Mo was rounding into an NBA marvel, became his legal guardian. Twyman developed the yearly game to help pay Stokes' big hospital bills. Most of the top NBA stars come here for the game, including Bill Russell, Wilt Chamberlain, Oscar Robertson, Bob Pettit and retired Bob Cousy.

Twyman said Stokes is cheerful, uncomplaining and grimly determined to be able to walk out of the hospital.

Dr. Benjamin Hawkins, Royals team physician and an orthopedic expert, said "I think his progress is encouraging and satisfactory. He has shown continuing improvement."

Stokes' weekdays have been full of work — chiefly physiotherapy and speech therapy, sometimes extending into evening hours.

Stokes, a college star at St. Francis of Loretto, Pa., was a 6-foot-7, 235-pound Royals standout at rebounding and playmaking when the team was in the 1958 playoffs.

He had been dazed March 12 by a wallop on the head at a game in Minneapolis, but apparently had recovered. On a flight from Detroit three days later, he lapsed into unconsciousness, and was given oxygen.

Stokes hovered on the edge of death for days. Doctors said he had post-traumatic encephalopathy, big words for a brain inflammation after an injury.

DEL MAR (AP)—Blue Norther, $13, won the Del Mar feature yesterday.

RAIDERS MAY START PAIR OF NEWCOMERS

SANTA ROSA (UPI) — The Oakland Raiders may start two newcomers in their exhibition battle Sunday at Oakland against the New York Jets.

The team yesterday obtained defensive halfback Jim McMillan from Denver in return for a high draft choice. McMillan, a three-year starter at Denver, played his college ball at Colorado State. He weighs 192 pounds.

Davis nominated linebacker Clancy Osborne, also a newcomer, as a starter at right linebacker. He was waived out of the National Football League last week and signed by the Raiders as a free agent.

Pop Warner Scrum

The Redwood Junior Giants and Mill Valley Junior Indians, both of the Marin Pop Warner Football League, will hold a practice scrimmage tomorrow, 10 a.m., at the Strawberry Recreation Park.

Pinky's, Giants Cop Drake Cage Playoffs

Pinky's Pizza of the adult division and the Giants of the high school division are the champions of the Drake High School Summer Basketball League.

Pinky's whipped the Old Soldiers 67-51 in the adult playoff game and the Giant cagers scored a come-from-behind 59-49 victory over the Bulldogs in the title game of the high school division last night.

Leading throughout the contest, Pinky's found an understaffed team in the Old Soldiers which had only seven cagers show up for the final game. Halftime score found Pinky's in front by a 36-26 margin.

High scorer for Pinky's was Joe McGrath with 18 as teammate Larry Trick scored 13. High point man for the Soldiers was Don Pino with a 23-point performance while Larry Fulton scored 11.

In the high school finale, the Bulldogs led 37-36 after three quarters of play, btu the Giants came back to outscore the Bulldogs in the final period 23-12.

Top men for the Giants were Jim Halm with 17 and Bob Piro with 14, while Rod Monti with 17 points and John McKinnon with 15 led the Bulldog attack.

Members of the two championship teams received individual trophies and Pinky's was given a team trophy at the conclusion of the games.

Wins $30,772.50

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP)—An unidentified bettor won $30,772.50 on the twin double at Brandywine Raceway, a harness track, last night. The winning combination was 1-4-4-1.

DODGERS' DON DRYSDALE DOING DARING DANCE

In what appears to be a dance of the Dodgers, Don Drysdale (53) and Maury Wills (30) converge on a throw to third base in seventh inning of last night's game against St. Louis at Chavez Ravine. Ernie Broglio (sliding), Cardinal hurler, advanced safely on a St. Louis hit that bounced off Drysdale's leg in left field. Drysdale caught the late throw and Wills came down on Broglio. The Cards won, 3-2. (AP Wirephoto)

Wild Rivers Study Brings Good News To Cal's Outdoor Lovers

STEVENS

A release just in from the United States Department of Interior should be appreciated by all outdoor lovers. It pertains to a recently completed Wild Rivers Study, and lists for consideration a number of rivers throughout the nation, five of which are in this state. They are: Feather River, Middle Fork; Kern, North Fork; Klamath, Sacramento and Smith.

Chairman Crafts, Director of the Department of the Interior's Bureau of Outdoor Recreation, noted that industrial, commercial and other development of the nation's rivers is on the increase. "Once developed," he said, "these streams may lose forever the inherent values for outdoor recreation and related values which they now possess." Said the study team: "The need to identify and preserve a nationwide system of free flowing and undeveloped rivers, or segments of rivers, for their outdoor recreation, scientific, esthetic and symbolic values is urgent."

The team also stated: "The setting aside of certain wild rivers for recreation and other values is as much in the national interest as setting others aside for industrial and commercial purposes. Undeveloped rivers offer unique values to all Americans; they are symbols of timelessness and continuity, and of history. Rivers substantially in their natural state afford a needed variety of recreation and related experience possible nowhere else."

THE JOINT Interior-Agriculture study is the first ever made of the nation's rivers for this purpose on such a broad scale.

The Wild Rivers Study team's report will, (1) explain the need and urgency for wild river protection, (2) identify a considerable number of relatively undeveloped rivers or segments, with high outdoor recreational potential, (3) evaluate a portion of these rivers in detail, (4) recommend ways to protect them, and (5) indicate action required to meet further national need for wild rivers.

The group's report and recommendations will be submitted to Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman and Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall, who will then submit them to the President's Recreational Advisory Council for review.

It's sorta nice that in this era of industrial and economic rat-racing, someone has found time to consider other values beside the accumulation of the dollar and the stockpiling of munitions. Makes a guy glad to be an American living in a state that has more natural beauty than most others.

CALMER SEAS have improved salmon, bass and rockfishing in the ocean. The wonderful run of stripers continues in the S.F. Bay region, but is still slow in the upper San Pablo.

A RUMOR is going the rounds that a fair to good run of bass has hit the back country. I could get no verification of that event, however.

And that's it for today. Goodbye, good luck, and go get your share of fresh air, sunshine and, maybe, fish.

Cal Kids In Li'l League Championship

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa (AP) — Stratford, Conn., will stake its chatter and pep against the amazing pitching of Granada Hills, Calif., tomorrow for the 1963 Little League baseball championship.

If the record books mean anything at all, the battle looks like a real humdinger, matching two of the most evenly balanced teams in the history of the tournament.

A composite look at the squads in previous games in the World Series of the tiny tots of baseball shows a close pattern right down the line. Granada Hills, conqueror of Houston, Tex., and Izmir, Turkey, has pounded out 17 hits, collected 17 runs, committed one error and yielded eight hits and two runs in 15 innings.

Stratford, the hustle team of the series, has come up with 13 hits and 10 runs, committed four errors and given up five hits and one run in 12 innings, whipping Valleyfield, Quebec, and Duluth, Minn.

GREAT PITCHING

But pitching has been the spark of the Californians. Young Dave Sehnem, slated to start in the championship game, whiffed 18 Houston batters in nine innings to open the series and tiny Tom Berry added 13 more against Turkey for an amazing total of 31 in 15 innings.

The fancy fielding Nutmeg staters counter this awesome display with an almost air tight defense.

Veteran Little League historians call chatterbox Mike Kowaski one of the best third basemen in mighty mite baseball today.

The Connecticut youngsters put on a dazzling display of their fielding prowess yesterday in beating Duluth 5-0 in a semifinal.

Just two hours earlier, Berry, son of Granada Hills manager Glen Berry, fired a one-hit shutout to pace the Californians to a 14-0 whitewash of Izmir, a team of U.S. Army and Air Force youngsters.

Monterrey, Mexico, and Houston, Tex., eliminated earlier in the week, met today in a consolation game.

Cole Hurls 2-1 Win In Cal League

Ron Cole of Mill Valley, hurler for the Modesto Colts of the California League, outpitched Leon Criner last night as Modesto took a tight 2-1 decision from the Salinas Mets.

Cole, former star at Tamalpais High and College of Marin, allowed but five hits while his teammates collected eight off Criner.

The Colts tallied once in the third inning when Lee Hyman singled and scored on Len Tucker's single. The second run came in the sixth when Ray Ferrand and Tucker singled and worked a delayed double steal with Ferrand scoring the deciding run.

Gary Mykkanen drove Hank McGraw across with the lone Mets run off Cole in the seventh inning.

Warriors Add 7 Home Games

The San Francisco Warriors announced yesterday that seven home games, six of them elsewhere in Northern California, have been added to their National Basketball Assn. schedule:

Nov. 9 vs. New York at Oakland; Dec. 10, vs Baltimore at Oakland; Dec. 18, vs St. Louis at Sacramento; Dec. 22, vs Philadelphia at San Francisco; Jan. 2, vs St. Louis at Oakland; Jan. 12, vs. New York at Oakland; Feb. 6, vs. Detroit at San Jose.

Marin Athletic Club coach Jim Imperiale splashes water in the face of team member Phillip Smith at the six mile mark of the 1961 historic Dipsea Race. The 1963 running of the famed race, which covers a 6.8-mile course, will be held Sunday starting at 10 a.m. from Lytton Square in Mill Valley. Imperiale will be rooting for his team which will have between 30 and 40 entrants this year. For description of the Dipsea, see "Along Marin's Sports Trail" on page 9.

3 Southern Gents Set Pace In American Golf Classic

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Julius Boros, Miller Barber and Johnny Pott, three Southern gentlemen with hot putters, went into the second round of the $50,000 American Golf Classic today tied for the lead.

All three shot three-under-par 67's in the opening round yesterday while the pre-tournament favorites, Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus, could do no better than match par.

Two strokes behind the leaders were Jay Hebert, Australian Bruce Crampton, Gay Brewer Jr., Dave Hill, Al Geiberger and Dave Marr.

Equalling par with Palmer and Nicklaus were George Bayer, Ed Furgol, Ted Kroll and Rex Baxter Jr. Eleven others, including Gary Player who returned from a month's rest, were tied with 71's while southpaw Bob Charles, the British Open champion, was in a group of seven with 72's.

Boros, the 43-year-old U. S. Open champion who has earned $70,956 while having the best year of his career, toured the opening round with 28 putts and one-putted eight greens. The veteran from Mid Pines, N. C., drove out of the fairways seven times but again proved he plays his best golf on tough courses as he picked up four birdies.

Although they found themselves three strokes off the lead, Palmer and Nicklaus remained the main attraction and in excellent position to take down the top prize of $9,000. Palmer bogeyed the first and last holes and might have finished one under par if his second shot on the 18th hole had not canght branches of a tree and fallen short.

Nicklaus birdied the second and fourth holes but ran into trouble on No. 3. His second shot landed on the edge of a pond. Jack took off his shoes and socks, stepped into the water and hit out of the mud. He needed three more strokes to get down and the double bogey six cost him a chance of breaking par.

16-Year-Old Lass In Women's Golf Semis

WILLIAMSTOWN, Mass. (UPI) —Defending titlist Jo Anne Gunderson and former champion Mrs. Anne Quast Welts meet today in the semi-finals of the National Women's Amateur Golf Tournament to see which one gets a shot at writing her name in the record book.

And a West Coast teen-ager, Peggy Conley, is eyeing a mark in this event which has stood since 1896. Miss Conley, 16, of Spokane, Wash., meets Carol Sorenson in a fight for the other berth in Saturday's 36-hole final at the Taconic Golf Club.

The unshakable Miss Gunderson, a Providence, R.I., blonde, is after her fourth title in seven years. Should the pretty 24-year-old former Washington State girl win, she would be only the second to capture this event four times.

Miss Conley, if she wins today, would be in position to become the second 16-year-old to gain the crown. Miss Beatrix Hoyt, youngest tourney winner, did it at age 16 in 1896, the second year of the tourney.

Miss Sorenson of Janesville, Wis., a 22-year-old student at Arizona State, won the girl's junior title in 1960 and was last year's titlist in the Western Amateur.

IT'S SAFER TO BROWSE ALONE

Gather 'round me, fellows, and join in a lament common to us all. Recall the last time you foolishly arose from your easy chair and suggested to your ever-loving she come with you to the neighborhood magazine store. Maybe you'll find something interesting to read to blot out the drudgery of summer re-runs. The thought never occurred to you that it was Friday night, now, did it?

The dress shop next door was aglow and inviting, and the gleam in your wife's eye told you it wasn't the Women's Home Companion she was after. Next came the long waits, standing uncomfortably on one foot and then the other, while determined women plowed through tortured racks, and giggling teen-agers pranced saucily before full-length mirrors in seeming endless new creations.

Finally, just about when you decided you were stuck for life in this strange and frightening world of women, you got the nudge and the bill. It was almost a relief to shell out this time, if only you could escape to that magazine store. Poorer and definitely more weary, you made your way toward the girlie rack. Now, heck, who was responsible for putting that row of philosophical works right next to those magazines? And, will that man of the cloth stand right there all night? Well, nothing's right with the world, anyway, so let's pick up Newsweek and read all about everyone's miseries.

The other Sunday afternoon, I was stuck for "country" jargon to give a sense of authenticity to our used car hoe-down ad that was bubbling in my pumpkin head (there, I wasn't completely stuck). So, I thought maybe something by Ernie Ford or the Beverly Hillbillies would help. Nothing in the local stores. In a fatal family gesture, I invited Myrl and Marilyn to help me search the way-out book stores in Sausalito.

We were lucky right away. Found a parking space at the curb. Then, we were unlucky (at least, I was). It was right next to an intriguing dress shop. And, isn't that shift darling, darling? I'll just try it on. I promise. Just try it on. You don't mind, do you? Two shifts and a darling hat and a darling matching bag and a painful 60-odd dollars later, I still couldn't find a book hokey enough to help me. Next time, I'll research the library. No stores on Fifth.

In truth however, I really didn't mind the side trip. The shifts and accessories were nice, if not darling—and, with Hawaii in the near offing, they actually were sensible purchases. No other Ford dealer's wife is about to out-dazzle mine, by cracky (see, I didn't need Ernie Ford, after all).

If you're inclined to browse in our showroom at Ames Ford, friend, you might as well bring the wife—and, the kids, too. Woe be onto you if you drive one home without consulting her, anyway, so make it a joint project and avoid some grief.

Wild Rivers Study Brings Good News To Cal's Outdoor Lovers

STEVENS

A release just in from the United States Department of Interior should be appreciated by all outdoor lovers. It pertains to a recently completed Wild Rivers Study, and lists for consideration a number of rivers throughout the nation, five of which are in this state. They are: Feather River, Middle Fork; Kern, North Fork; Klamath, Sacramento and Smith.

Chairman Crafts, Director of the Department of the Interior's Bureau of Outdoor Recreation, noted that industrial, commercial and other development of the nation's rivers is on the increase. "Once developed," he said, "these streams may lose forever the inherent values for outdoor recreation and related values which they now possess." Said the study team: "The need to identify and preserve a nationwide system of free flowing and undeveloped rivers, or segments of rivers, for their outdoor recreation, scientific, esthetic and symbolic values is urgent."

The team also stated: "The setting aside of certain wild rivers for recreation and other values is as much in the national interest as setting others aside for industrial and commercial purposes. Undeveloped rivers offer unique values to all Americans; they are symbols of timelessness and continuity, and of history. Rivers substantially in their natural state afford a needed variety of recreation and related experience possible nowhere else."

THE JOINT Interior-Agriculture study is the first ever made of the nation's rivers for this purpose on such a broad scale.

The Wild Rivers Study team's report will, (1) explain the need and urgency for wild river protection, (2) identify a considerable number of relatively undeveloped rivers or segments, with high outdoor recreational potential, (3) evaluate a portion of these rivers in detail, (4) recommend ways to protect them, and (5) indicate action required to meet further national need for wild rivers.

The group's report and recommendations will be submitted to Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman and Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall, who will then submit them to the President's Recreational Advisory Council for review.

It's sorta nice that in this era of industrial and economic ratracing, someone has found time to consider other values beside the accumulation of the dollar and the stockpiling of munitions. Makes a guy glad to be an American living in a state that has more natural beauty than most others.

CALMER SEAS have improved salmon, bass and rockfishing in the ocean. The wonderful run of stripers continues in the S.F. Bay region, but is still slow in the upper San Pablo.

A RUMOR is going the rounds that a fair to good run of bass has hit the back country. I could get no verification of that event, however.

MUSIC SURVIVES FIRE

Fire gutted the Stanford Junior High School at Sacramento, but left a concert grand piano untouched amidst the ruins. The school band master, Bill Welsh, searching through the debris yesterday, came across the canvas-covered piano. He took off the cover, sat down and discovered the instrument was in good shape and perfect tune.

MOSK TO REQUEST VEHICLES SHAKEUP

Attorney General Puts Part Of Blame On Civil Service For DMV Scandal

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Atty. Gen. Stanley Mosk says he will ask Governor Brown to reorganize the State Department of Motor Vehicles in the wake of dismissal of five high-ranking DMV officials.

The state's Civil Service Systems was "a major contributor to corruption" in the cases disclosed, Mosk said in a letter to Brown which he made public yesterday.

The attorney general said he expects more firings, but not in top jobs.

DMV Director Tom Bright, at Mosk's direction, fired Wednesday Registrar of Vehicles A. J .Veglia, Chief Investigator William P. Scandland and Investigator James E. Edling.

Earlier in the day, the Los Angeles County Grand Jury returned a 21 - count indictment against Morris Genser. Genser was head of DMV investigations in Southern California until his dismissal earlier this summer. Also named were Edling and David Koffman, head of the California Dealers Service Agency. They were charged with bribery, grand theft, extortion, perjury and conspiracy.

Witnesses told the jury during a seven-day hearing that dealers paid from $58 to $6,000 to the defendants for licensing or other favors.

Genser was arraigned in Superior Court yesterday on the charges contained in the indictment. He was freed on $7,500 bail.

Ford Settles 7-Day Stamping Plant Strike

CHICAGO (UPI) — Company and union officials today announced settlement of a 7-day strike against the Ford Motor Co. which had idled more than 30,000 workers in six states.

Agreement on basic issues in the strike against Ford's stamping plant in suburban Chicago Heights was announced by representatives of Ford and of the United Auto Workers.

Peirce Takes Demotion For Transit Post

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — John M. Peirce resigned yesterday as general manager of the Bay Area Rapid Transit District to devote full time to the district's fiscal affairs.

The district's board of directors accepted the resignation at a morning meeting and immediately appointed Peirce to the newly created post of controller-treasurer-insurance manager.

In other action, the board established the district's tax rate for the 1963-64 fiscal year at 8.4 cents per $100 of assessed valuation.

Peirce, former state director of finance, told the board in his letter of resignation that the transit program's one billion dollars in capital money required full-time management.

In his new position Peirce will be paid $5,000 less than his $32,500 annual salary as general manager. He will continue to handle the duties of general manager until a successor is found.

New Autos Will Have Seat Belts Installed

DETROIT (AP)—The Auto industry made a major concession to the average motorist yesterday but the car owner will pay the bill.

General Motors, followed in quick succession by Chrysler, Ford and American Motors, announced, effective Jan. 1, 1964, that all their new cars will be equipped with seat belts. Studebaker started the trend with a similar announcement last March 1.

The industry had been under growing pressure since the 1950's when Nash-Kelvinator's 1950 Rambler series offered seat belts.

Groups interested in traffic safety and in cutting down the nation's death toll of an estimated 40,000 persons in some 10-million car accidents had urged wider adoption of safety belts.

The paper industry utilizes 10 per cent of the U.S. chemical industry's output.

MUSIC SURVIVES FIRE

Fire gutted the Stanford Junior High School at Sacramento, but left a concert grand piano untouched amidst the ruins. The school band master, Bill Welsh, searching through the debris yesterday, came across the canvas-covered piano. He took off the cover, sat down and discovered the instrument was in good shape and perfect tune.

MOSK TO REQUEST VEHICLES SHAKEUP

Attorney General Puts Part Of Blame On Civil Service For DMV Scandal

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Atty. Gen. Stanley Mosk says he will ask Governor Brown to reorganize the State Department of Motor Vehicles in the wake of dismissal of five high-ranking DMV officials.

The state's Civil Service Systems was "a major contributor to corruption" in the cases disclosed, Mosk said in a letter to Brown which he made public yesterday.

The attorney general said he expects more firings, but not in top jobs.

DMV Director Tom Bright, at Mosk's direction, fired Wednesday Registrar of Vehicles A. J .Veglia, Chief Investigator William P. Scandland and Investigator James E. Edling.

Earlier in the day, the Los Angeles County Grand Jury returned a 21 - count indictment against Morris Genser. Genser was head of DMV investigations in Southern California until his dismissal earlier this summer. Also named were Edling and David Koffman, head of the California Dealers Service Agency. They were charged with bribery, grand theft, extortion, perjury and conspiracy.

Witnesses told the jury during a seven-day hearing that dealers paid from $58 to $6,000 to the defendants for licensing or other favors.

Genser was arraigned in Superior Court yesterday on the charges contained in the indictment. He was freed on $7,500 bail.

Ford Settles 7-Day Stamping Plant Strike

CHICAGO (UPI) — Company and union officials today announced settlement of a 7-day strike against the Ford Motor Co. which had idled more than 30,000 workers in six states.

Agreement on basic issues in the strike against Ford's stamping plant in suburban Chicago Heights was announced by representatives of Ford and of the United Auto Workers.

Peirce Takes Demotion For Transit Post

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — John M. Peirce resigned yesterday as general manager of the Bay Area Rapid Transit District to devote full time to the district's fiscal affairs.

The district's board of directors accepted the resignation at a morning meeting and immediately appointed Peirce to the newly created post of controller-treasurer-insurance manager.

In other action, the board established the district's tax rate for the 1963-64 fiscal year at 8.4 cents per $100 of assessed valuation.

Peirce, former state director of finance, told the board in his letter of resignation that the transit program's one billion dollars in capital money required full-time management.

Architect Stresses Truth Of Material

Seventh in a series on Marin's working women.

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

Sausalito architect Violeta Autumn first started thinking about designing houses when she was five years old.

A native of Chiclayo, Peru, of Russian ancestry, she was traveling across the Andes with her mother and was shocked at the sight of the dirty, miserable huts of the Indians.

"Do they really live in those places?" she asked. On being told by her mother that they did, she exclaimed, "Some day I'm going to come back and build houses for them!"

"SO FAR SHE hasn't fulfilled that ambition, but she is a young woman. Some day she hopes to return again to Peru, where she has already told friends, "You are designing boxes to bury yourselves in." This will not be as a citizen of Peru, for Violeta Autumn became a citizen of the United States this year.

Meanwhile her first major architectural achievement is her own house, which is among the distinctive ones in Sausalito. She says it expresses herself and the site, a nearly vertical one on Sausalito Boulevard. Fitting a house to a site and the needs of its prospective occupants are the basic principles she follows, to the extent that she even prefers to live with the family of a client for a while to observe their way of life and emotional needs. She did this recently with some clients in Idaho.

REFERRING TO HER own home, she said, "The view is explosive, yet the house has a feeling of protection because I'm inclined to be an introvert. An extrovert would have opened it out."

Structurally the house has some interesting salient features. It is built entirely of natural woods—heart of redwood and vertical grained Douglas fir—hand sanded on the interior by the Autumns over a period of eight months to a satin finish. There's not a speck of paint anywhere.

"I like materials to be truthful," she explained, "not to pretend to be something else, like formica made to look like wood."

On the nearly vertical site three sides of the house are against the hill, and the concrete retaining walls form the inside finished walls of exposed aggregate. Two storied, tall, narrow windows admitting light to the entire interior look out on a spectacular view of the Bay and San Francisco, and the fireplace has a two-storied copper hood.

INTERIOR DECOR reflects the young architect's South American background in her favorite pre-Colombian art objects and in a living room rug of llama skins. Adding distinction is her own art work, for painting was her first love, and she is also a professional muralist.

She has done two murals for the First National Bank of Nevada on the south shore of Lake Tahoe, is working on one for them in Las Vegas and will do another in Reno. At the request of the Bank the designs depict scenes and people of pioneer days in the West, such as Snowshoe Thompson, who is the central figure in the Lake Tahoe murals.

Her style of painting has been classed by a museum as "Viennese expressionist."

VIOLETA AUTUMN received her professional training at the University of Oklahoma in Norman, where she was graduated in 1953 with a bachelor of architecture degree and two years of engineering. She had previously attended high school in Lima, Peru, and in Panama but was graduated from high school in Norman.

Following her graduation from the university she spent four months touring Europe and Israel. On the return trip she met her husband, Sanford Autumn, who has a master's degree in psychology and is a statistician at the Langley Porter Neuropsychiatric Institute in San Francisco.

Violeta's first experience was gained in doing working drawings for a Palo Alto architect before her marriage in 1954. By 1957 she had her architectural license and started work for herself.

TWO AND A HALF years ago the Autumns built their home in Sausalito, and Violeta now carries on her profession in her office and studio there. Her work consists of architectural designs for clients, murals and renderings for other architects.

In her spare time she works on illustrations for a book of poems being written by San Francisco poet Alice Paula.

As for future trends in architecture, Mrs. Autumn said, "I think we will get away from steel boxes. Automation may be what will free us from them because people will have so much time on their hands that they will dedicate it to the appreciation and creation of beauty."

THE AUTUMN'S home is to be featured in an architectural magazine in the near future.

VIOLETA AUTUMN, Sausalito architect, is also a muralist. Here she applies silver foil to a study of one of the murals she has designed for a bank in Las Vegas. Completed, it will be in asphalt tile and will stand 20 feet high. Much of her work is done lying on the floor. The rug of llama skins is one of the interior decor features which reflect her South American background.

NORTHGATE SERIES

President Of Center To Be Honored At Style Luncheon

Mrs. Norman B. Livermore, president of the Marin Art and Garden Center, will be honored on her 80th birthday at Wednesday's Northgate Group fashion show and luncheon in Ross.

A series of surprises have been arranged for Mrs. Livermore and the more than 500 guests who have reserved tables for the affair. The founder groups and affiliate organizations of the center are sponsoring the event, the final luncheon of the 1963 series.

Mrs. Peter H. Skaer and Mrs. John C. Siemens, sponsor chairmen of the weekly luncheons, are working with Mrs. Harvie Freed, event chairman, enlisting members of the groups to assist in arrangements for the unusual number of guests. To date, in 16 years of the series, the record number who attended was 400.

Mrs. Les Vogel Jr. and Mrs. Hal Wagner, co-chairmen of the fashion shows, today announced the models who will show the fall clothes.

The models and their groups are Mesdames William G. Morrisey III, Dion Ramsey-Raisan: Northgate Group; Mesdames James McKenney, Evan Goldenberg, Luciano Sabella, Pixie Parents Inc.; Mesdames Shirley Ness, A. G. Falk, Elmer Albritton; Marin Junior Theatre; Mrs. Robert L. Tuckey Jr. and Miss Judy James, Decorations Guild; Mesdames A. A. Courteney Jr., Linda R. Pearman, Robert R. Morrison, Marin Society of Artists; Mesdames Norman Sanguinetti, Richard O'Brien, Achille Paladini, Ross Valley Players.

Members of the Garden Society of Marin, the Marin Garden Club, the Marin Music Chest, and the Marin Conservation League will participate in the special day as hostesses, volunteer waitresses, and arrangement chairmen in the salute to the founder of the Marin Art and Garden Center.

MARIN'S SOCIAL WHIRL

Two Brides-Elect Honored At Parties Here, Across Bay

By FLORENCE DONNELLY

Two popular brides-elect, Carla Rosenbaum and Jill Clumeck, have been extensively entertained. Jill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Clumeck of Ross, will be married to John Friedenrich Sept. 1 in a garden ceremony at the home of her parents. Rabbi Alvin Fine will officiate at the wedding which will be followed by a reception and dinner. Jill and John are both graduates of Stanford University and John, also a graduate of Stanford Law School, will begin legal practice in the fall.

Carla, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rosenbaum Jr. of San Rafael, is engaged to Michael Geister, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Geister of San Rafael. Their wedding date has been advanced to Nov. 24 because of a change in Mike's business plans. He and Carla had first set a wedding day in February. Their wedding on Nov. 24 will take place at Temple Emanu-el in San Francisco with Dr. Irving Reichert officiating.

Carla and her mother recently gave a luncheon at El Prado in San Francisco for Jill. Also at the luncheon were Mrs. Clumeck, Mrs. David Friedenrich and Kathie Anixter, who will be maid of honor for both Carla and Jill.

MRS. OTTO H. POEHLMANN entertained at two luncheons at her San Anselmo home this week. Monday she had 21 guests and on Tuesday, 17. Following luncheon the guests played bridge or bolivia, an advanced form of canasta.

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES STROM of San Rafael have had as their houseguests for two weeks her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Franconi of East Williston, Long Island. The Stroms took the visitors to Lake Tahoe, Carmel and Las Vegas. Mr. and Mrs. Franconi will fly back to Long Island Tuesday.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN BURESH of San Rafael, their daughter Susan, and son Scott, have returned from a motor trip north. In Seattle, Sue, who is a sophomore at Scripps College, visited a classmate, Barbara Long. The Buresh clan then drove to British Columbia and stayed at a beautiful resort, Harrison Hot Springs, drove around the island and to picturesque Victoria. They had to return home sooner than they expected as Mr. Buresh, an attorney, had some legal business which required immediate attention.

MRS. VERA HARLAN of Sausalito and Henry F. Clouette Jr. took a sentimental journey to Nevada Saturday to exchange marriage vows in the Methodist Church in Carson City. The bridegroom's father, the late Henry F. Clouette, was born in Carson City where his parents were married.

Mrs. Harlan, a long time resident of Sausalito, is a director of the Marin County Historical Society and active in many other organizations. Her father, John W. Haffley, lives in Pittsburgh, Pa. Mr. and Mrs. Clouette, who honeymooned at Lake Tahoe, will make their home in Sausalito. He is bridge and building superintendent of the Northwestern Pacific Railroad and has been with the company many years. Mr. and Mrs. Clouette will make a delayed honeymoon trip in October.

THE RUSSELL JOHNSONS, who are leaving their three children with a housekeeper and nurse at their Kent Woodlands home, fly to New York Sept. 2 and sail from there aboard the S.S. France for Europe. The ship will make port in Le Havre. The Johnsons will go from there to Paris where they'll buy a car in which they will tour the continent.

The George Faulkners of Fairhills, San Rafael gave a bon voyage dinner for the Johnsons. Also in their honor is the dinner Mr. and Mrs. William Milliken of San Anselmo are hosting tonight.

WEDDING PLANS were discussed by Jill Clumeck, left, and Carla Rosenbaum at a luncheon given recently by Carla's mother, Mrs. Charles Rosenbaum Jr. of San Rafael.

Ruth E. Tavenner Becomes Bride In San Rafael Rite

Ruth Elaine Tavenner of San Rafael became the bride of Richard John Jasinsky of Millbrae on Sunday, at St. Raphael's Church, San Rafael.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marley E. Tavenner of San Rafael, and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jasinsky of Millbrae.

The double ring nuptial rites were performed at 2 p.m. by the Rev. Louis C. Emmerth. Ruth was wearing a floor length gown of white organza and lace when she was given in marriage by her father. Her attendants were gowned in floor length aqua taffeta dresses.

They were her sister, Mrs. Dean Burford of New York, matron of honor, and Sharon Adriano of Cotati, Donna Agusto of San Rafael and Rena Nestlehut of Kentfield, bridesmaids.

Susie Burford, the bride's niece, and Vicki Jasinsky, the bridegroom's niece, were the flower girls. They wore frocks of yellow nylon over organdy.

Best man for the bridegroom, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jasinsky, was his uncle, Vic Stein of Millbrae. Serving as ushers were the bridegroom's brothers, Robert Jasinsky and Dave Jasinsky of Millbrae, and the bride's brother, Darrell Tavenner of San Rafael.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the Tamalpais Woman's Club and the young couple left afterward for a wedding trip to Disneyland. They will live in Anaheim.

The bride is a graduate of San Rafael High School. She is the sister of Ronnie Tavenner of Corpus Christi, Tex., and Randy and Dita Tavenner of San Rafael. Her grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilcox of Novato.

A graduate of San Mateo High School, Richard is employed as an electrician with the Stein Electric Company in Anaheim.

Now You Mix Own Shoe Dyes

However unique the color of a garment is, you can match your shoes, belt, handbag to it simply by mixing up a brew of hues in the kitchen.

Although dyeing shoes with the ease of changing the nail polish on your toe nails is still an innovation hardly a year old, competition has mushroomed. The upshot has been a variety of improved products.

The latest is the color multiplier system called mix and match. It enables you to match your swatch, or garment to a color chart of 120 different shades. The rest is like mixing paints. Under each color sample is the recipe, telling how much of which of the company's basic 24 shades should be mixed together. To avoid miscalculation, mixing cups are part of the kits.

Island Picnic, Swim Party On Debs' Weekend Calendar

KATIE O'NEILL

Katherine Whitney O'Neill will be honored at a swim party buffet barbecue and dance to be given Sunday by Dr. and Mrs. H. Jack Siefert at their home in Lafayette.

All of the debs and their escorts have been invited. Also invited is Katie's mother, Mrs. John Steven O'Neill of San Rafael.

And tomorrow evening the girls and their escorts will embark from Tiburon for a picnic supper on Angel Island, a gathering given by Mr. and Mrs. Matthew P. Dillingham and Mr. and Mrs. George R. Reiter, all of Mill Valley, for their deb daughters Julia Dillingham and Sara Reiter. Another guest will be the girls' Tamalpais High School friend, Lynn Crawford of Mill Valley.

Jill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Clumeck of Ross, will be married to John Friedenrich Sept. 1 in a garden ceremony at the home of her parents. Rabbi Alvin Fine will officiate at the wedding which will be followed by a reception and dinner. Jill and John are both graduates of Stanford University and John, also a graduate of Stanford Law School, will begin legal practice in the fall.

Carla, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rosenbaum Jr. of San Rafael, is engaged to Michael Geister, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Geister of San Rafael. Their wedding date has been advanced to Nov. 24 because of a change in Mike's business plans. He and Carla had first set a wedding day in February. Their wedding on Nov. 24 will take place at Temple Emanu-el in San Francisco with Dr. Irving Reichert officiating.

Carla and her mother recently gave a luncheon at El Prado in San Francisco for Jill. Also at the luncheon were Mrs. Clumeck, Mrs. David Friedenrich and Kathie Anixter, who will be maid of honor for both Carla and Jill.

MRS. OTTO H. POEHLMANN entertained at two luncheons at her San Anselmo home this week. Monday she had 21 guests and on Tuesday, 17. Following luncheon the guests played bridge or bolivia, an advanced form of canasta.

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES STROM of San Rafael have had as their houseguests for two weeks her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Franconi of East Williston, Long Island. The Stroms took the visitors to Lake Tahoe, Carmel and Las Vegas. Mr. and Mrs. Franconi will fly back to Long Island Tuesday.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN BURESH of San Rafael, their daughter Susan, and son Scott, have returned from a motor trip north. In Seattle, Sue, who is a sophomore at Scripps College, visited a classmate, Barbara Long. The Buresh clan then drove to British Columbia and stayed at a beautiful resort, Harrison Hot Springs, drove around the island and to picturesque Victoria. They had to return home sooner than they expected as Mr. Buresh, an attorney, had some legal business which required immediate attention.

MRS. VERA HARLAN of Sausalito and Henry F. Clouette Jr. took a sentimental journey to Nevada Saturday to exchange marriage vows in the Methodist Church in Carson City. The bridegroom's father, the late Henry F. Clouette, was born in Carson City where his parents were married.

Mrs. Harlan, a long time resident of Sausalito, is a director of the Marin County Historical Society and active in many other organizations. Her father, John W. Haffley, lives in Pittsburgh, Pa. Mr. and Mrs. Clouette, who honeymooned at Lake Tahoe, will make their home in Sausalito. He is bridge and building superintendent of the Northwestern Pacific Railroad and has been with the company many years. Mr. and Mrs. Clouette will make a delayed honeymoon trip in October.

THE RUSSELL JOHNSONS, who are leaving their three children with a housekeeper and nurse at their Kent Woodlands home, fly to New York Sept. 2 and sail from there aboard the S.S. France for Europe. The ship will make port in Le Havre. The Johnsons will go from there to Paris where they'll buy a car in which they will tour the continent.

The George Faulkners of Fairhills, San Rafael gave a bon voyage dinner for the Johnsons. Also in their honor is the dinner Mr. and Mrs. William Milliken of San Anselmo are hosting tonight.

WEDDING PLANS were discussed by Jill Clumeck, left, and Carla Rosenbaum at a luncheon given recently by Carla's mother, Mrs. Charles Rosenbaum Jr. of San Rafael.

Ruth E. Tavenner Becomes Bride In San Rafael Rite

Ruth Elaine Tavenner of San Rafael became the bride of Richard John Jasinsky of Millbrae on Sunday, at St. Raphael's Church, San Rafael.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marley E. Tavenner of San Rafael, and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jasinsky of Millbrae.

The double ring nuptial rites were performed at 2 p.m. by the Rev. Louis C. Emmerth. Ruth was wearing a floor length gown of white organza and lace when she was given in marriage by her father. Her attendants were gowned in floor length aqua taffeta dresses.

They were her sister, Mrs. Dean Burford of New York, matron of honor, and Sharon Adriano of Cotati, Donna Agusto of San Rafael and Rena Nestlehut of Kentfield, bridesmaids.

Susie Burford, the bride's niece, and Vicki Jasinsky, the bridegroom's niece, were the flower girls. They wore frocks of yellow nylon over organdy.

Best man for the bridegroom, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jasinsky, was his uncle, Vic Stein of Millbrae. Serving as ushers were the bridegroom's brothers, Robert Jasinsky and Dave Jasinsky of Millbrae, and the bride's brother, Darrell Tavenner of San Rafael.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the Tamalpais Woman's Club and the young couple left afterward for a wedding trip to Disneyland. They will live in Anaheim.

The bride is a graduate of San Rafael High School. She is the sister of Ronnie Tavenner of Corpus Christi, Tex., and Randy and Dita Tavenner of San Rafael. Her grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilcox of Novato.

A graduate of San Mateo High School, Richard is employed as an electrician with the Stein Electric Company in Anaheim.

Now You Mix Own Shoe Dyes

However unique the color of a garment is, you can match your shoes, belt, handbag to it simply by mixing up a brew of hues in the kitchen.

Although dyeing shoes with the ease of changing the nail polish on your toe nails is still an innovation hardly a year old, competition has mushroomed. The upshot has been a variety of improved products.

The latest is the color multiplier system called mix and match. It enables you to match your swatch, or garment to a color chart of 120 different shades. The rest is like mixing paints. Under each color sample is the recipe, telling how much of which of the company's basic 24 shades should be mixed together. To avoid miscalculation, mixing cups are part of the kits.

Island Picnic, Swim Party On Debs' Weekend Calendar

KATIE O'NEILL

Katherine Whitney O'Neill will be honored at a swim party buffet barbecue and dance to be given Sunday by Dr. and Mrs. H. Jack Siefert at their home in Lafayette.

All of the debs and their escorts have been invited. Also invited is Katie's mother, Mrs. John Steven O'Neill of San Rafael.

And tomorrow evening the girls and their escorts will embark from Tiburon for a picnic supper on Angel Island, a gathering given by Mr. and Mrs. Matthew P. Dillingham and Mr. and Mrs. George R. Reiter, all of Mill Valley, for their deb daughters Julia Dillingham and Sara Reiter. Another guest will be the girls' Tamalpais High School friend, Lynn Crawford of Mill Valley.

Bride-Elect Susan Zensius Will Be Honored At A Tea

A tea honoring Susan Zensius, who will become the bride of Rolf Schuette on Sept. 28, will be given tomorrow afternoon by Mrs. Val Gates at her home in Loch Lomond. Some 50 guests are invited, including Susan's friends and their mothers, from the San Rafael area.

A white and gold theme will be carried out by the table centerpiece of carnations, stock and chrysanthemums and an arrangement before the fireplace. Pouring tea will be Mesdames Stewart Barker of Daly City, Norman Lockhart of Peacock Gap, Matthew Hosmer and Maurice St. Gaudens Jr. of San Rafael.

Other guests who will attend the gathering for Susan, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Zensius of San Rafael, will be her grandmother, Mrs. Ruie Peugh; her aunt, Mrs. William Taber of Burlingame; her great aunts, Mrs. George Hagemann and Mrs. H. W. Blagg of San Francisco, and her cousin, Mrs. Larry Gapinski of San Anselmo.

REDWOODS PRESBYTERIAN Church in Larkspur was the setting Sunday for the wedding of Wyna Joan Barron and Ulysses Brown of San Francisco. After a Carmel wedding trip the couple will live in San Francisco where the bridegroom is a teacher and is taking graduate study at San Francisco State College. The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theo Barron of Marin City, is a teacher with the San Francisco school district. (Bob Hax photo)

What Other Women Wear

Do you know that sometimes a Turkish woman will display her entire dowry of gold pieces from a band on her forehead at the front of a hat?

Can you describe a pagri (an Indian hat), or a chirpa (an Argentine cowboy skirt)?

Maybe you can't, but thousands of boys and girls across the world are adding these odd words and these facts to their fund of knowledge.

Their information comes from an unusual book called "Wonderful World of Clothes." It was created in cooperation with the United States Committee for UNICEF. It is a 40-page costume guide containing more than 75 color illustrations.

This fall when some three million school children participate in an annual Trick-or-Treat fund-raising drive this year, it is expected that many of the youngsters will be dressed according to pages in the book, and that they will attend Hallowe'en parties in these costumes.

The book has been selected by the U. S. Information Agency for distribution in 140 countries. The book sells for 50 cents and all profits from its sale go to aid needy children throughout the world through the facilities of the United Children's Fund.

Marin Women

For The Huntress

NEW YORK (UPI)—Husband-hunters will find that New York is not a likely place to find a mate. Women greatly outnumber men in the metropolis. Nina Farwell in her new book, "The Unfair Sex," advises single women also to avoid Washington, D.C.; Dallas, Savannah, Ga., and Richmond, Va. Where to go? To Lawton, Okla., Wichita Falls, El Paso or Amarillo, Tex., Columbus, Ga., or Norfolk, Va., where there are 117 men to every 100 women.

Timoteo Open House

An open house for the kindergarten at Don Timoteo Elementary School is planned for Thursday. The gathering will be held from 9:30 to 11 a. m., with refreshments served by the committee.

Include Children In Moving Talk

URBANA, Ill. (UPI) — Make moving to a new neighborhood a family affair to help lessen the psychological effects of change on children, suggests Mrs. Shirley Clark, University of Illinois family life specialist.

Research shows that the occurrence of emotional disorders in children sometimes parallels family moves, she said.

Mrs Clark listed several ways to make moving a family affair:

Move during the summer if possible to ease the child's adjustment to a new school.

Anticipate children's needs for friends as you house-hunt. Neighborhoods go through cycles in family age composition. If even the teen-agers are gone from middle-aged families in the neighborhood, there may be scarcely a playmate for young children within blocks.

Be the first to tell your children about the move. Except for very young children, present your decisions in a straightforward manner. Tell them your plans as far in advance as possible so they have a chance to work out of their concerns, resistances and misconceptions. Encourage them to bring up questions and comments about the move before and afterwards.

Go as a family to see the new home. Or, if you go alone, supply the children with specific information about schools, playground and recreation facilities.

Encourage the children to pack their own possessions or sort them for the movers.

Some Ill Children Better Off Up

NEW YORK (UPI)—A British physician suggests that bed rest for a sick child can be overdone.

Recovery from most childhood diseases, such as respiratory infections, measles or even rheumatic fever is not speeded by long bed rest, reports Dr. R. S. Illingworth of the University of Sheffield. Reporting in "Modern Medicine," he said that the child confined to bed when he feels like getting up is bored, isolated, and has trouble sleeping at night.

The risk of spreading infection to other children apparently is not increased by permitting the sick child to get up.

Doctor Illingworth said that polio and liver disorders are two exceptions. In such illnesses, the child should stay in bed until the symptoms disappear.

Heavy News

NEW YORK (UPI)—Men 20 per cent overweight have a 25 per cent higher mortality rate than men of normal weight. So states a study of approximately five million life insurance policy holders. An added fact: Women 10 per cent too heavy were found to have a 10 per cent higher mortality rate than women who maintained their desirable weight.

McFaddin-Olson Rite On Saturday

Juanita Sue Olson of San Rafael became the bride of Ned D. McFaddin of Douglass, Kan. on Saturday at the First Presbyterian Church in San Anselmo.

Nuptial rites were performed by the Rev. James Young at 7 p.m. and the bride was given in marriage for the double ring ceremony by her father. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Olson of San Rafael.

Juanita wore a full length gown of white Chantilly lace with a train. Her attendants were attired in full length dresses in rainbow colors, a color scheme chosen because the bride is a past worthy advisor and grand representative to New Hampshire of San Rafael Rainbow.

Maid of honor was Kay Wright of El Sobrante and bridesmaids were Ann Mayer, Carol Osborn and Lynn Honsinger, all of San Rafael.

The bride's niece, Lorie Olson of Fairfield, was the flower girl, and her nephew, Timothy Olson, was ring bearer.

Best man for the bridegroom, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. McFaddin of Douglass, Kan., was his brother, Dee McFaddin of Douglass. Showing guests to their seats were the bride's brother, Paul Olson of New York; Wayne Wright of El Sobrante and Gary Henderson of San Rafael.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the San Rafael Improvement Club and the couple spent a few days' honeymoon at the Sheraton-Palace in San Francisco. They are living in South San Francisco.

The new Mrs. McFaddin is a graduate of San Rafael High School and is employed in the San Francisco office of the Beneficial Finance Company. She formerly worked in the San Rafael office of the same company.

She has three more brothers, Richard Olson of San Rafael, James Olson of Tiburon and Earl Olson of Fairfield.

Ned is a graduate of Douglass High School in Douglass and served five years in the U.S. Navy. He is employed with United Airlines in San Francisco.

Kim McFaddin of Douglass is his second brother.

How To Count

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Nutritionists in the U.S. Department of Agriculture offer this calorie count for fruits and vegetables. Ten to 15 calories — cabbage, snap beans, greens, cauliflower, celery, mushrooms, green peppers, kraut; 20 to 25 calories — summer squash, asparagus, carrots, turnips, tomato juice; 30 to 40 calories — brussels sprouts, cantaloupe, onions, berries, cherries, raw pineapple, one peach; 50 calories—three apricots, two large plums, or one medium orange.

The Bosses Score

NEW YORK (UPI)—In a poll by a watch company, secretaries said 42 per cent of the men for whom they work generally are away from their desks only an hour or less at mid-day. Some 26 per cent said an hour and 15 minutes usually is the lunch hour length.

MARINITES ASK

Meat Inspection Concerns Buyers

The following questions were were asked by Marinites at the recent food buying conference held by the Marin Council of Community Services at the Marin Civic Center. They are answered here by the panel of speakers and distributed by the office of Marin County home advisor.

QUESTION: In regard to horsemeat: Is there any local service for purchase of U. S. inspected horsemeat for human consumption? Is it true that horses are not as susceptible to contagious diseases as cows are?

ANSWER: There is no local source for purchase of U. S. inspected horsemeat for human consumption. The California Agricultural Code states that it is unlawful to slaughter horses, mules, or burros in establishments where cattle, sheep, or swine are slaughtered for human consumption. It is also unlawful to bring horsemeat into establishments where meat or meat food products are prepared for human consumption.

According to Dr. Christiansen of the Federal Meat Inspection Service, there are no restrictions on the importation of horse meat and much does come in from Mexico and South America. It is imported for use in pet food and is usually adulterated with charcoal and unfit for human consumption. Dr. Christiansen also said it is true that horses are considered generally more healthy animals than some of our commonly used food animals.

QUESTION: Frances Cook said fruits and vegetable are washed. Can we eat apples by just wiping and not washing thoroughly?

ANSWER: Yes, it is true fruits and vegetables are washed. As far as pesticidal or spray residues are concerned, it is safe to eat fruits without washing. However, from a sanitation standpoint because of dirt, dust, handling and possible animal contamination, it is probably best to wash fruits and vegetables before using them. (Resource: Al Ballard, Asst. Agricultural Commissioner, Marin County).

QUESTION: How can a housewife tell the grade of meat in a store when it does not state it on the package or in the store?

ANSWER: There is no way to tell the grade of meat unless it is marked or the information can be obtained from a clerk. Meat inspection is mandatory, but meat grading is voluntary. The meat processor or butcher must pay to have meat graded. All meat must be inspected and the carcass must show either a State or Federal inspection stamp, but the grading of meat is voluntary.

QUESTION: With regard to "Farm Surpluses," do you believe that removing such items as butter from the list of "loss leaders" would help alleviate this problem somewhat?

ANSWER: Mr. Carpenter's answer stated that he doubted it would affect the surplus problem to remove butter from the list of foods that cannot be sold as "loss leaders." Because of the normal price difference between butter and margarine, plus the publicity regarding poly-unsaturated fats in the diet, it is felt that butter will continue to lose its per capita consumption.

QUESTION: Can anything be done to have weights on one standard side (such as front right lower corner)?

ANSWER: Only through legislation can this be done. In California, the Consumer Counsel, Governor's Office, Sacramento, is working on consumer aids such as this. You could write to this office with your suggestions and recommendations as well as write to the local representatives in Sacramento.

Patch It!

NEW YORK (UPI) — Patches are back in fashion. Look for the elbow patch to show for fall on sweaters, blouses, jackets loungewear, even children's wear. The patch has a long fashion industry — first worn, according to some fashion sources, by Englishmen on their shooting and hunting jackets. The influence spread to the men's wear field, with the Ivy League schools picking it up. The fad spread to other types of clothing after World War II. And the patch shirt idea for women came along in the summer of '62.

McFaddin-Olson Rite On Saturday

Juanita Sue Olson of San Rafael became the bride of Ned D. McFaddin of Douglass, Kan. on Saturday at the First Presbyterian Church in San Anselmo.

Nuptial rites were performed by the Rev. James Young at 7 p.m. and the bride was given in marriage for the double ring ceremony by her father. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Olson of San Rafael.

Juanita wore a full length gown of white Chantilly lace with a train. Her attendants were attired in full length dresses in rainbow colors, a color scheme chosen because the bride is a past worthy advisor and grand representative to New Hampshire of San Rafael Rainbow.

Maid of honor was Kay Wright of El Sobrante and bridesmaids were Ann Mayer, Carol Osborn and Lynn Honsinger, all of San Rafael.

The bride's niece, Lorie Olson of Fairfield, was the flower girl, and her nephew, Timothy Olson, was ring bearer.

Best man for the bridegroom, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. McFaddin of Douglass, Kan., was his brother, Dee McFaddin of Douglass. Showing guests to their seats were the bride's brother, Paul Olson of New York; Wayne Wright of El Sobrante and Gary Henderson of San Rafael.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the San Rafael Improvement Club and the couple spent a few days' honeymoon at the Sheraton-Palace in San Francisco. They are living in South San Francisco.

The new Mrs. McFaddin is a graduate of San Rafael High School and is employed in the San Francisco office of the Beneficial Finance Company. She formerly worked in the San Rafael office of the same company.

She has three more brothers, Richard Olson of San Rafael, James Olson of Tiburon and Earl Olson of Fairfield.

Ned is a graduate of Douglass High School in Douglass and served five years in the U.S. Navy. He is employed with United Airlines in San Francisco.

Kim McFaddin of Douglass is his second brother.

How To Count

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Nutritionists in the U.S. Department of Agriculture offer this calorie count for fruits and vegetables. Ten to 15 calories — cabbage, snap beans, greens, cauliflower, celery, mushrooms, green peppers, kraut; 20 to 25 calories — summer squash, asparagus, carrots, turnips, tomato juice; 30 to 40 calories — brussels sprouts, cantaloupe, onions, berries, cherries, raw pineapple, one peach; 50 calories—three apricots, two large plums, or one medium orange.

The Bosses Score

NEW YORK (UPI)—In a poll by a watch company, secretaries said 42 per cent of the men for whom they work generally are away from their desks only an hour or less at mid-day. Some 26 per cent said an hour and 15 minutes usually is the lunch hour length.

Pillow Talk

Make Your Views Known About That Auditorium

Three groups with somewhat divergent views are advocating a go-ahead on a Veterans Memorial Auditorium at the Civic Center.

First, the Auditorium Action Committee has, as the name implies, sparked a movement to "get going." The committee includes a good many individuals and representatives of groups interested in providing for the performing arts music, drama, etc. They, of course, prefer a sloped-floor auditorium which provides the very best acoustics and visibility for musical and dramatic presentations. They are NOT sympathetic to the idea of a flat-floor all-purpose building which, they say, provides something less than the best acoustics and visibility for performing arts.

The veterans seem to prefer a flat-floor, all-purpose auditorium which would enable them to hold banquet meetings, sporting events and displays; a boat or auto show, for instance.

The Marin Visitors Bureau also is an interested advocate, hoping for a meeting place which will help attract conventions to Marin.

The Civic Center Committee appointed by the supervisors to study and make recommendations in such matters has asked all interested persons to submit pertinent information by the end of this month.

To assist in this process, the Visitors Bureau is distributing a questionnaire aimed at determining what the needs of potential users are.

The Action Committee has a different questionnaire to circulate among performing arts people, aimed at measuring the need for the kind of auditorium which the committee would prefer.

These groups are to be commended for their efforts to get this factual material, via questionnaire, for the Civic Center Committee's edification. And we suspect the Civic Center Committee is most grateful to receive it.

But the results are valid only to the degree that they represent a cross-section of interested citizens.

These efforts deserve support. Individuals and organizations interested in the "shape" of the future auditorium should take time to study the questionnaires and make their views known to the Civic Center Action Committee before the end of the month.

The Miwoks And Herb Medicine

Taken as a group our California Indians were a rather primitive lot. They did no farming, wore almost no clothing and slept in very crude huts. But in one thing they excelled—making use of native plants for food and medicine.

Marin's Miwoks had this knowledge along with the rest of the state's Indians. Although they wore only short capes made of skins during our coldest weather, they had a practical knowledge of the plants which grew here before the coming of white men that even a botanist might envy.

This knowledge led to and developed from the use of plants in treating various sicknesses. They made use of the buckeye, the bay, the manzanita, the poison oak, the toyon and almost all others. The early Spanish settlers adopted many of these old Indian remedies and recorded them for posterity.

Like much herb medicine the world over, it is likely many of the treatments were worthless. But others probably had genuine value. We hope someday a real study will be made to determine the value of these California Indian medicines.

We'll venture the results will show that some are surprisingly effective.

Let's Not Overlook The Point That A Democrat Runs, Too

By ART BUCHWALD

WASHINGTON—There has been a great deal of speculation as to who will be the Republican candidate for president of the United States in 1964. But no one has given any thought as to who will be the Democratic candidate.

The way we see it, the race is wide open.

The leading candidate, Henry Ford, has jeopardized his chances of getting the nomination by separating from his wife, and it's difficult to conceive of the public's going for someone who is in the process of getting a divorce.

GOV. ROSS BARNETT has a great following in his own home state. But unfortunately there is a question as to whether he would get enough votes in the South after he failed to stop James Meredith from graduating from the University of Mississippi.

Sen. Strom Thurmond on paper looks good. He has led the fight against the public accommodations bill in the Senate and has the support of 112 restaurant owners and 16 boarding house proprietors throughout the nation.

James Landis, the former SEC commissioner and dean of the Harvard Law School, looked like a shoo-in for the nomination until it was discovered that he failed to file income tax returns for five years. This oversight has hurt his chances with tax-conscious Democrats, who advocate increased government spending.

VICE PRESIDENT JOHNSON could have a chance except that nobody has heard of him since 1960, and there is a feeling among Democratic professionals they would prefer somebody who is better known to the American public.

Jack Paar, the American television star, has been talked about for the candidacy, but unfortunately Paar supported Fidel Castro in the beginning, and this could work against him among people who think we should have taken a tougher line in Cuba.

Adlai Stevenson still has a large following among the liberals in the country, but he is a Protestant and the Democrats are afraid of injecting the religious issue into the campaign.

There has been talk that Robert Kennedy, the attorney general, may throw his hat in the ring, but insiders point out that Kennedy does not wear a hat. Friends also say that the Kennedy philosophy has always been to work for public service and stay out of politics.

MAYOR DALEY of Chicago has been discussed as a dark horse candidate. For one thing, Daley can deliver enough votes in Illinois to balance those of New York, Pennsylvania and California combined. And so it goes. As convention time grows near, worried Democratic leaders are trying to come up with a candidate who is young, has experience, is known to the American public, and can appeal to the independent voter.

The big question is can the Democrats develop anybody in time. This is something we'll all have to wait and see.

TAKING IT EASY

Billy Rose's Pigeons Not Quite Enough

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — As he nears 64, money is by no means everything to Billy Rose, one of the biggest little firecrackers that ever exploded on Broadway.

The bantam-sized producer set 50 million dollars as his life goal some years ago, and probably is about halfway there.

Right now, however, one of his chief pleasures is raising pigeons on a five-acre island he owns off Connecticut.

"I'M DOING some of the things I couldn't do as a kid on the Lower East Side," explained Billy. "I'm also raising some decorative birds and a herd of spotted deer."

Rose had no time when growing up for the ordinary joys of childhood. At 17 he was the world's shorthand speed champ.

In the years since then he wrote 500 songs, ran 11 cabarets, produced shows that over a 30-year period played to 100 million people, turned out one of the most successful columns in the history of journalism, made a fortune in Wall Street, assembled a noted art collection, and had three wives.

TODAY HE lives alone in his huge, five-story Manhattan mansion—"I don't know how many rooms it has, I never counted them" — with a 3½-pound Yorkshire terrier named Jumbo.

"She gets three tablespoons of minced chicken once a day," he said. "I've had dogs for a long time. If you overfeed them, you lose them."

Billy dwells quietly on a single floor in his big museumlike home. The rooms have a barber chair, a gymnasium, and an old high desk on which Jonathan Swift is reputed to have written "Gulliver's Travels."

Once or twice a week Rose has a couple or two in for dinner. Once or twice a week he goes out on the town.

"I'd rather be hit with a baseball bat than own another nightclub," he remarked.

"On Thanksgiving I have a party for all the strays I know, and on Christmas Eve I have a bustup for maybe 100 people and their kids."

HIS STOCK MARKET investments, running his two theaters, and writing occasional magazine articles take up most of his time.

He's also flirting with the idea of producing a musical with Bert Lahr, and he's building an outdoor art museum in Jerusalem to which he is contributing his million-dollar collection of sculptures.

Rose says wealth hasn't made him lonely and that the only money that really counts is "the 11 bucks you have in your pocket when you need it."

But there's something Billy would like right now—to be married again.

"The single life," he said, "is like a red and gold box of Christmas candy. When you open it, all it holds is a couple of lousy bon bons."

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

Leo Durocher reports that in one hotly contested ball game last summer, a rookie pitcher just brought up from the sticks was hurriedly summoned from the bull pen.

Durocher told shortstop Maury Wills, "This boy needs more warming up. When the ump signals 'Play ball,' make believe you've got something in your eye. It'll give the boy a chance to take a few more practice pitches."

Wills performed his part perfectly — so perfectly, in fact, that when he hollered, "Time out, please. I got something in my eye," the rookie pitcher came running over from the mound yelling, "Lemme get it out for you, Mr. Wills!"

Sandy McTavish (surely you remember him!) won two hundred thousand dollars with a sweepstakes ticket, and his friends were properly jubilant. Sandy asked, however, that they restrain themselves. "It wasn't as much as you lads seem to think," he cautioned them. "Remember that the ticket cost me five dollars."

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Let Legs Wait Till Later!

Editor, Independent-Journal:

The recent San Rafael recreation department's "Miss Wading Pool" beauty contest for seven-year-olds is unbelievably revolting. These children should be competing in mud pie and hop scotch contests.

The recreation department and those parents in particular who allowed their daughter to enter are contributing to a nationwide trend to deprive our children of their childhood by forcing their attention to things that should come much later. What seven-year-old after being voted the girl with the "cutest figure, prettiest legs or cutest walk" will be happy going back to dolls and pin the tail on the donkey?

When these "little females," and this is what they are being forced to become, reach their middle teens, the very age when they are just ready to begin living in an adult world, they will have done everything with nothing to look forward to short of becoming a child bride.

Other Firemen Assisted

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Your Monday front page article "Fire in Marinwood Destroys Farm Animals, Vintage Cars," states that 16 firemen from Marinwood, two trucks from Marinwood, and one from Hamilton Air Force Base answered the call.

May I add that although the Terra Linda Fire Department did not have its trucks at the Sequeria Ranch, at least four Terra Linda firemen rendered aid to our neighbors to the North.

Please give them the credit they earned. Thank you.

REMEMBER WHEN?

10 YEARS AGO

Corte Madera home delivery of mail was promised sometime soon by Postmaster Emma Baily, about to retire after 18 years. Three carriers will make the deliveries, she said.

Belvedere residents met to discuss ways of preserving part of the lagoon area for benefit of hillside residents wishing to sail, swim or picnic.

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By AL BOCK

Bock's Law: Now They've Found 34 Particles, Must Be 35!

SINCE READING last week that physicists have discovered the 34th particle, I have had a good deal of trouble making up my mind as to whether the news is good or bad.

The particle was "the last elementary particle of matter in the list of those that nuclear physicists have expected to find," according to the New York Times. Now, if I understand correctly, this discovery seems to pretty well wrap things up as far as descriptions of matter are concerned.

If that's true, and I somehow suspect it isn't, it would seem that everything is accounted for and we are all spinning nicely through the universe with no leftover bits and pieces of matter to search for.

Such a state of affairs lacks romance and is, in fact, rather dreary. If there is not a morsel nor a jot to rummage about for, we seem to have set up limits once and for all. All the frontiers have been closed.

BUT THERE is some satisfaction in knowing that order has at last been established. Every atom and sub-atom has been put in its place. We have our environment tidied up and can pursue other tasks. It's perhaps pleasant to know there are no loose ends lying around.

It's still a little frightening to realize that everything is so regular and familiar. Any possibilities of something strange or wild are dismissed. The 34th particle, called the anti-Xi-zero (because it is the anti-particle of Xi-zero), has been tracked down by the science detectives. Its underworld has been invaded, and there's no more mystery.

There is, however, some consolation in the report that the 34th particle (I have no idea what the other 33 might be) is last on the list of particles which physicists "expected" to find. This implies they might find more particles lurking somewhere which will turn out to be unexpected.

I AM always happy when people admit the existence of unexpected matter, or pieces of matter, as the case may be. Apparently the big event in the discovery of the 34th particle is that it "confirms the essential symmetry that exists among the constituents of matter."

Physicists had considerable difficulty in finding the anti-Xi-zero. Because they had already rounded up 33 particles they thought there must be a 34th around somewhere, since even numbers are always handier to deal with, and nobody gets to fighting over the odd particle.

With perseverance they found the anti-particle they were looking for. I guess the nuclear scientists are happy with 34 particles and may not go out of their way to look for a 35th one, only to upset the whole system once again.

PERSONALLY, I am awaiting the day that the unexpected 35th maverick might expose itself. It may just be waiting till things are settled down and suddenly appear when nobody really wants to find it. Then physicists can go to work again restoring symmetry by demanding that the 36th reveal itself.

With luck, they might not find it, and matter would exist in an uneven quantity. Everything would be a little topsy-turvy — the way life usually is.

Rough-'N'-Tumble Primary Fight Won't Hurt GOP Candidates

WASHINGTON — The tendency of some Republican leaders is to raise their hands in horror at the prospect of Gov. Rockefeller and Sen. Goldwater getting into a rough-and-tumble contest for the presidential nomination.

Their avowed fear is that they are likely to hurt each other to the disadvantage of the party itself and provide campaign ammunition to the opposition which can be used against them (if either is nominated) next fall.

THIS IS being unneccesarily squeamish—for two reasons:

The choice of presidential candidates within the party involves a choice of policy as well as personality, the same as the presidential election itself. Therefore, differences between the candidates need to be stressed if there is to be a meaningful choice.

Secondly, there is little evidence and certainly no recent evidence to suggest that a hard-fought pre-convention contest—even a little rough debate — hurts the nominee when he gets into the final campaign.

Examples: Lyndon Johnson versus Sen. John Kennedy. Mr. Johnson branded Mr. Kennedy as a kind of appeaser on the ground that he favored apologizing to Khrushchev for the U-2 incident. And Harry Truman versus Sen. Kennedy. Mr. Truman on the eve of the convention suggested that the country was not ready for Mr. Kennedy and that Mr. Kennedy was not ready for the presidency!

ANY EXCHANGES between Mr. Goldwater and Mr. Rockefeller will be gentle raillery compared with these — and yet they left no lasting scars nor did they prevent the two senators from running on the same ticket.

I am not urging a political brawl between the two currently first and second runners for the Republican nomination. To the contrary, the most desirable thing is for Gov. Rockefeller and Sen. Goldwater to stop sparring on the street corner, where the tendency is to talk AT each other, and to accept an orderly and direct confrontation of their views TO the Republican voters in several representative primaries.

The first of all the primaries next year in New Hampshire and the last in California would be excellent for such a confrontation. Mr. Rockefeller will be prepared to enter both of these primaries and it would seem reasonable that Mr. Goldwater would welcome the opportunity to give the Republican voters the chance to measure and choose between them at first hand.

THERE IS another excellent primary which ought not to be omitted — this is Oregon where the circumstances are just right for the appearance of both Goldwater and Rockefeller.

Oregon has an outstanding Republican governor, Mark O. Hatfield, who is not running for the presidential nomination and would not be taking sides.

Oregon's primary election laws require its Secretary of State to enter the names of candidates who are being "generally advocated" and are "so recognized in the national news media." This would guarantee the appearance of the names of both Goldwater and Rockefeller in the primary—and perhaps others.

Make Your Views Known About That Auditorium

Three groups with somewhat divergent views are advocating a go-ahead on a Veterans Memorial Auditorium at the Civic Center.

First, the Auditorium Action Committee has, as the name implies, sparked a movement to "get going." The committee includes a good many individuals and representatives of groups interested in providing for the performing arts music, drama, etc. They, of course, prefer a sloped-floor auditorium which provides the very best acoustics and visibility for musical and dramatic presentations. They are NOT sympathetic to the idea of a flat-floor all-purpose building which, they say, provides something less than the best acoustics and visibility for performing arts.

The veterans seem to prefer a flat-floor, all-purpose auditorium which would enable them to hold banquet meetings, sporting events and displays; a boat or auto show, for instance.

The Marin Visitors Bureau also is an interested advocate, hoping for a meeting place which will help attract conventions to Marin.

The Civic Center Committee appointed by the supervisors to study and make recommendations in such matters has asked all interested persons to submit pertinent information by the end of this month.

To assist in this process, the Visitors Bureau is distributing a questionnaire aimed at determining what the needs of potential users are.

The Action Committee has a different questionnaire to circulate among performing arts people, aimed at measuring the need for the kind of auditorium which the committee would prefer.

These groups are to be commended for their efforts to get this factual material, via questionnaire, for the Civic Center Committee's edification. And we suspect the Civic Center Committee is most grateful to receive it.

But the results are valid only to the degree that they represent a cross-section of interested citizens.

These efforts deserve support. Individuals and organizations interested in the "shape" of the future auditorium should take time to study the questionnaires and make their views known to the Civic Center Action Committee before the end of the month.

The Miwoks And Herb Medicine

Taken as a group our California Indians were a rather primitive lot. They did no farming, wore almost no clothing and slept in very crude huts. But in one thing they excelled—making use of native plants for food and medicine.

Marin's Miwoks had this knowledge along with the rest of the state's Indians. Although they wore only short capes made of skins during our coldest weather, they had a practical knowledge of the plants which grew here before the coming of white men that even a botanist might envy.

This knowledge led to and developed from the use of plants in treating various sicknesses. They made use of the buckeye, the bay, the manzanita, the poison oak, the toyon and almost all others. The early Spanish settlers adopted many of these old Indian remedies and recorded them for posterity.

Like much herb medicine the world over, it is likely many of the treatments were worthless. But others probably had genuine value. We hope someday a real study will be made to determine the value of these California Indian medicines.

We'll venture the results will show that some are surprisingly effective.

Let's Not Overlook The Point That A Democrat Runs, Too

By ART BUCHWALD

WASHINGTON—There has been a great deal of speculation as to who will be the Republican candidate for president of the United States in 1964. But no one has given any thought as to who will be the Democratic candidate.

The way we see it, the race is wide open.

The leading candidate, Henry Ford, has jeopardized his chances of getting the nomination by separating from his wife, and it's difficult to conceive of the public's going for someone who is in the process of getting a divorce.

GOV. ROSS BARNETT has a great following in his own home state. But unfortunately there is a question as to whether he would get enough votes in the South after he failed to stop James Meredith from graduating from the University of Mississippi.

Sen. Strom Thurmond on paper looks good. He has led the fight against the public accommodations bill in the Senate and has the support of 112 restaurant owners and 16 boarding house proprietors throughout the nation.

James Landis, the former SEC commissioner and dean of the Harvard Law School, looked like a shoo-in for the nomination until it was discovered that he failed to file income tax returns for five years. This oversight has hurt his chances with tax-conscious Democrats, who advocate increased government spending.

VICE PRESIDENT JOHNSON could have a chance except that nobody has heard of him since 1960, and there is a feeling among Democratic professionals they would prefer somebody who is better known to the American public.

Jack Paar, the American television star, has been talked about for the candidacy, but unfortunately Paar supported Fidel Castro in the beginning, and this could work against him among people who think we should have taken a tougher line in Cuba.

Adlai Stevenson still has a large following among the liberals in the country, but he is a Protestant and the Democrats are afraid of injecting the religious issue into the campaign.

There has been talk that Robert Kennedy, the attorney general, may throw his hat in the ring, but insiders point out that Kennedy does not wear a hat. Friends also say that the Kennedy philosophy has always been to work for public service and stay out of politics.

MAYOR DALEY of Chicago has been discussed as a dark horse candidate. For one thing, Daley can deliver enough votes in Illinois to balance those of New York, Pennsylvania and California combined. And so it goes. As convention time grows near, worried Democratic leaders are trying to come up with a candidate who is young, has experience, is known to the American public, and can appeal to the independent voter.

The big question is can the Democrats develop anybody in time. This is something we'll all have to wait and see.

Billy Rose's Pigeons Not Quite Enough

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — As he nears 64, money is by no means everything to Billy Rose, one of the biggest little firecrackers that ever exploded on Broadway.

The bantam-sized producer set 50 million dollars as his life goal some years ago, and probably is about halfway there.

Right now, however, one of his chief pleasures is raising pigeons on a five-acre island he owns off Connecticut.

"I'M DOING some of the things I couldn't do as a kid on the Lower East Side," explained Billy. "I'm also raising some decorative birds and a herd of spotted deer."

Rose had no time when growing up for the ordinary joys of childhood. At 17 he was the world's shorthand speed champ.

In the years since then he wrote 500 songs, ran 11 cabarets, produced shows that over a 30-year period played to 100 million people, turned out one of the most successful columns in the history of journalism, made a fortune in Wall Street, assembled a noted art collection, and had three wives.

TODAY HE lives alone in his huge, five-story Manhattan mansion—"I don't know how many rooms it has, I never counted them"—with a 3½-pound Yorkshire terrier named Jumbo.

"She gets three tablespoons of minced chicken once a day," he said. "I've had dogs for a long time. If you overfeed them, you lose them."

Billy dwells quietly on a single floor in his big museumlike home. The rooms have a barber chair, a gymnasium, and an old high desk on which Jonathan Swift is reputed to have written "Gulliver's Travels."

Once or twice a week Rose has a couple or two in for dinner. Once or twice a week he goes out on the town.

"I'd rather be hit with a baseball bat than own another nightclub," he remarked.

"On Thanksgiving I have a party for all the strays I know, and on Christmas Eve I have a bustup for maybe 100 people and their kids."

HIS STOCK MARKET investments, running his two theaters, and writing occasional magazine articles take up most of his time.

He's also flirting with the idea of producing a musical with Bert Lahr, and he's building an outdoor art museum in Jerusalem to which he is contributing his million-dollar collection of sculptures.

Rose says wealth hasn't made him lonely and that the only money that really counts is "the 11 bucks you have in your pocket when you need it."

But there's something Billy would like right now—to be married again.

"The single life," he said, "is like a red and gold box of Christmas candy. When you open it, all it holds is a couple of lousy bon bons."

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

Leo Durocher reports that in one hotly contested ball game last summer, a rookie pitcher just brought up from the sticks was hurriedly summoned from the bull pen.

Durocher told shortstop Maury Wills, "This boy needs more warming up. When the ump signals 'Play ball,' make believe you've got something in your eye. It'll give the boy a chance to take a few more practice pitches."

Wills performed his part perfectly — so perfectly, in fact, that when he hollered, "Time out, please. I got something in my eye," the rookie pitcher came running over from the mound yelling, "Lemme get it out for you, Mr. Wills!"

Sandy McTavish (surely you remember him!) won two hundred thousand dollars with a sweepstakes ticket, and his friends were properly jubilant. Sandy asked, however, that they restrain themselves. "It wasn't as much as you lads seem to think," he cautioned them. "Remember that the ticket cost me five dollars."

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Let Legs Wait Till Later!

Editor, Independent-Journal:

The recent San Rafael recreation department's "Miss Wading Pool" beauty contest for seven-year-olds is unbelievably revolting. These children should be competing in mud pie and hop scotch contests.

The recreation department and those parents in particular who allowed their daughter to enter are contributing to a nationwide trend to deprive our children of their childhood by forcing their attention to things that should come much later. What seven-year-old after being voted the girl with the "cutest figure, prettiest legs or cutest walk" will be happy going back to dolls and pin the tail on the donkey?

When these "little females," and this is what they are being forced to become, reach their middle teens, the very age when they are just ready to begin living in an adult world, they will have done everything with nothing to look forward to short of becoming a child bride.

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Your Monday front page article "Fire in Marinwood Destroys Farm Animals, Vintage Cars," states that 16 firemen from Marinwood, two trucks from Marinwood, and one from Hamilton Air Force Base answered the call.

May I add that although the Terra Linda Fire Department did not have its trucks at the Sequeria Ranch, at least four Terra Linda firemen rendered aid to our neighbors to the North.

Please give them the credit they earned. Thank you.

Bock's Law: Now They've Found 34 Particles, Must Be 35!

SINCE READING last week that physicists have discovered the 34th particle, I have had a good deal of trouble making up my mind as to whether the news is good or bad.

The particle was "the last elementary particle of matter in the list of those that nuclear physicists have expected to find," according to the New York Times. Now, if I understand correctly, this discovery seems to pretty well wrap things up as far as descriptions of matter are concerned.

If that's true, and I somehow suspect it isn't, it would seem that everything is accounted for and we are all spinning nicely through the universe with no leftover bits and pieces of matter to search for.

Such a state of affairs lacks romance and is, in fact, rather dreary. If there is not a morsel nor a jot to rummage about for, we seem to have set up limits once and for all. All the frontiers have been closed.

BUT THERE is some satisfaction in knowing that order has at last been established. Every atom and sub-atom has been put in its place. We have our environment tidied up and can pursue other tasks. It's perhaps pleasant to know there are no loose ends lying around.

It's still a little frightening to realize that everything is so regular and familiar. Any possibilities of something strange or wild are dismissed. The 34th particle, called the anti-Xi-zero (because it is the anti-particle of Xi-zero), has been tracked down by the science detectives. Its underworld has been invaded, and there's no more mystery.

There is, however, some consolation in the report that the 34th particle (I have no idea what the other 33 might be) is last on the list of particles which physicists "expected" to find. This implies they might find more particles lurking somewhere which will turn out to be unexpected.

Sick Bird Helping Science Make Space Travel Possible

LOS ALAMOS, N.M. (UPI) — For six years, the plight of a sick bird has been puzzling scientists at the Atomic Energy Commission's laboratory here.

The bird is frail and something of a diagnostician's nightmare; No one can figure out where it hurts and why.

No wonder. The bird's diet is hydrogen gas!

The bird with the belly ache is Kiwi, an experimental nuclear reactor that is the heart of the United States' first nuclear rocket engine designed for space flight.

Named for a flightless New Zealand bird, the prototype's intestinal spasms are taking a lot of time and costing millions of dollars. But the diagnosis and cure for the ailment may be worth every penny and every fretful moment.

Looking beyond the projected manned Lunar journey called Project Appollo, the best minds in the American space program concede man cannot venture much farther than the moon without nuclear rocket power.

Kiwi is a division of Rover, a project which within the next few years probably will cost considerably more than 1 billion dollars. Scientists at the Los Alamos scientific laboratory have found from the beginning that almost everything is harder than in convential rocket-building.

The present good prospect that Project Rover will succeed owes much to the little-publicized but insistent case which Sen. Clinton P. Anderson (D-N.M.) has pressed for years to get more money and talent committed to it.

An Albuquerque lawyer and insurance man with a genius for comprehending intricate subjects, Anderson persuaded the National Aeronautics and Space Administration that Rover had to have support.

As chairman of the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy, he argued that chemical rockets like Apollo's Saturn C-5, which will be as big as an ocean-going vessel, simply cannot provide the power needed for journeys to the other planets and, perhaps, beyond the solar system.

Anderson backed Rover from its bare-loins start six years ago and today, not merely seeking more pork barrel benefits for New Mexico (most Rover funds are spent elsewhere with the basic research done here), he prevailed. Congress is expected to provide somewhat more than 200 million dollars for the coming year's work.

Science, however, is not so easily persuaded to cooperate. Project Rover is hung up with technical troubles and any hope that the first journey to the moon might have utilized nuclear power officially has been abandoned.

Rover scientists at Los Alamos remain convinced, though, that they will succeed — within this decade—in building and testing a workable nuclear rocket.

Last April, the director of the space nuclear propulsion office described a 400-day space expedition in which a nuclear-propelled vehicle would travel to an orbit around Mars, land men for 40 days of exploration, then recover and return them to earth.

Harold Finger, whose office coordinates AEC and NASA work on Project Rover, told Anderson's committee on aeronautical and space scientists that "a nuclear-propelled spacecraft would weigh one-fifth to one-tenth the weight of a chemically propelled spacecraft . . . without nuclear propulsion we do not believe this kind of mission would be possible."

Dr. Glenn T. Seaborg, chairman of the AEC, told the same committee: "For many of the proposed missions by NASA and others in space there appears to be no substitute for nuclear power because of the requirements for large amounts of energy in compact form.

"Nuclear rockets will be required to carry out many different proposed missions . . . logistic supply for manned lunar stations (Post Apollo) . . . observations of Venus and probes of more distant planets . . . manned exploration of the near planets."

No one yet knows, for a certainty, that Project Rover will succeed. But the timetable for the chemically-powered Apollo manned lunar expedition already is in doubt.

The earliest NASA ever hoped for a manned moon shot was 1967. If that date should in reality be as late as 1970, and if Rover hereafter progresses without major hitches, the first moon astronauts may —after all—enjoy the big boost of nuclear power.

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Bridge Experts Can Fall On Their Noses, And It's Fun To Watch

Bridge experts take great delight in laying down the law to lesser mortals.

That's what makes it so delicious when we fall on our noses in actual play, as so many of us did recently in the national tournament.

Opening lead — ♣ 8

West's opening lead of the eight of clubs would not win any beauty prizes, although South found it highly attractive.

East put up the queen of clubs in a futile attempt to falsecard, and South won with the ace with just as little success in obscuring what was going on.

LEADS ACE

For lack of anything better to do, South led out the ace and king of spades and then gave up a spade trick to East's jack.

The defenders were now in position to take two trumps and two red aces. Nothing could be easier for two average players.

NOT AVERAGE

As it happened, East and West like to think they are not average players.

Modesty, or perhaps shame, forbids me to name the East player; and a wish to keep my few remaining friends prevents me from naming West.

DIAMOND RETURN

West took the ace of diamonds and decided not to cash the ace of hearts. Instead he returned his other diamond.

"I don't believe it," said South. Clicking his tongue at us in a fatherly way, he took the king of diamonds, discarding the losing heart.

FINESSE

Then he led a club to finesse through the jack, and the contract was home.

It happened a few weeks ago, and we're still arguing about whose fault it was. Maybe we ought to ask a bridge columnist.

ALMANAC

Today is Friday, Aug. 23, the 235th day of 1963 with 130 to follow.

The moon is approaching its first phase. The morning stars are Jupiter and Saturn. The evening stars are Mars and Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1630, for the first time in America, legislation controlling labor was passed in the Massachusetts Bay Colony.

In 1924, Mrs. "Ma" Ferguson became Democratic nominee for governor of Texas.

In 1926, hundreds of thousands of women mourned the death of Rudolph Valentino.

House Beautiful
This custom built, well planned rambling ranch style, 4 bedrm. home in an area of distinctive properties is truly a beauty! Here you can enjoy the feeling of uncluttered spaciousness, from the moment you step into the large slate entry! It's a perfect home for entertaining too, since it has the charming formality of a separate dining room, plus a huge family room with fireplace and wet bar. The kitchen's a show place, with everything you can imagine built in, including a concealed bar. Spectacular is perhaps not an adjective. Outdoor living areas. Magnificent mature trees grace this perfectly landscaped home which is a joy to behold in the day and the unusual lighting makes it a Fairy Land by night! You must see this new listing to appreciate the 2500 sq. foot of exceptionally fine home planning & design that's priced at $57,900.

NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S SALE

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on Friday, September 6, 1963, at the hour of 2:00 o'clock P.M., at the south front center door of the Marin County Court House, in the City of San Rafael, County of Marin, State of California, DRAKE FINANCING, INC., a California corporation, as Trustee, will sell, at public auction, to the highest bidder, for cash, in lawful money of the United States, all payable at the time of sale, that certain real property situate in the County of Marin, State of California, described as follows:

BEGINNING at a point on the Northerly line of the Parcel of land described in the Deed from Irving Bartel to Felix M. Warburg, recorded June 10, 1958 in Liber 1194 of Official Records at page 374, Marin County Records, said point being the intersection of the courses set forth in said Deed as "North 62° 06' East 767.00 feet and South 27° 54' East 170.00 feet", thence North 44° 02' 30" West 110.233 feet; thence North 45° 57' 30" East 70.676 feet; thence North 10° 36' East 164 feet to a point on the South line of Vistazo West Street as said Street is shown on the map of Marinero Residence No. 1, filed in the office of the Recorder of Marin County on September 7, 1960 in Book 10 of Maps, at page 75; thence along said South line of Vistazo West Street and along the arc of a curve concave Southerly, having a radius of 50 feet; through a central angle of 58° 46' 31", an arc distance of 51.291 feet; thence South 10° 36' West 282.749 feet to the point of beginning.

TOGETHER WITH AND SUBJECT TO an easement for access, utility and incidental purposes over that certain real property lying Northerly of the following described line:

COMMENCING at a point on the Northerly line of the Parcel of Land described in the deed from Irving Bartel to Felix M. Warburg, recorded June 10, 1958 in Liber 1194 of Official Records, at page 374, Marin County Records, said point being the intersection of the courses set forth in said Deed as "North 62° 06' East 767.00 feet and South 27° 54' East 170.00 feet"; thence North 10° 36' East 221.431 feet to the True Point of Beginning of the line to be described herein; thence at right angles North 79° 24' West 89.651 feet to the South line of Vistazo West Street, as said street is shown on the Map of Marinero Residence No. 1, filed in the office of the County Recorder of Marin County on September 7, 1960 in Book 10 of Maps, at page 75.

Said sale will be made without covenant or warranty regarding title, possession or encumbrances to satisfy the obligation secured by and pursuant to the power of sale contained in that certain Deed of Trust, executed by HENRY NICHOLAS CAM and DONNA C. CAM, his wife, and LESLIE SMITH and MIRIAM SMITH, his wife, as Trustors, to DRAKE FINANCING, INC., a California corporation, as Trustee, and for the benefit and security of ROSS VALLEY SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION, a California corporation, as Beneficiary, dated December 11, 1961, and recorded on December 14, 1961, in Book 1525, at page 66, of the Official Records, in the Office of the County Recorder of Marin County, California.

Notice of Default and election to sell the described real property under the hereinabove described Deed of Trust was recorded on April 26, 1963, in Book 1681, at page 216, of the Official Records, in the Office of the County Recorder of Marin County, California.

NOTICE OF HEARING: PETITION FOR ORDER DIRECTING CONVEYANCE OF REAL PROPERTY
No. 15195

In the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Marin.

In the matter of the Estate of BEATRICE G. MARKS, aka BEATRICE GLADIOLA MARKS, Deceased.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that ROBERT E. MARKS, the executor of the estate of BEATRICE G. MARKS, alias, the decedent, has filed herein a petition for an order authorizing and directing the executor of the estate of the above-named decedent to convey the property described below to ERNEST A. SCHROER, Jr., in compliance with the terms of the written agreement to sell and purchase entered into by decedent, in her lifetime, as seller, and by purchaser named herein, as buyer, and the petition has been set for hearing in Department 1 of the above-entitled Court on the 26th day of August, 1963, at 10:00 o'clock a.m.

The property to be conveyed is described as follows:

That portion of Lot 1 in block "K" of Crescenta Canada, in the city of Glendale, county of Los Angeles, State of California, as per map recorded in book 5 pages 574 and 575 of Miscellaneous Records, in the office of the county recorder of said county, described as follows:

Beginning at the intersection of the westerly line of New York Avenue, 66 feet wide, shown as unnamed street on the map of said tract, with the northeasterly line of the southwesterly 195.00 feet, measured at right angles, from the center line of Foothill Boulevard, as said boulevard is shown on said map; thence along said northeasterly line, North 53° 14' 04" West 152.49 ft.; thence South 2° 30' 12" West 175.44 ft. to the northeasterly line of said Foothill Boulevard as described in the deed to the State of California, recorded in book 12076 page 10 of Official Records of said county; thence, along said last mentioned northeasterly line, South 53° 14' 04" East 151.00 feet to the most westerly corner of the land described in the deed to the State of California recorded in book 55814 page 338, Official Records of said county; thence, along the northerly line of said last mentioned land, North 63° 30' 53" East 9.00 feet to said westerly line; thence, along said westerly line, North 0° 16' 06" East 170.37 feet to the point of beginning.

Said property being commonly known as the northwest corner of Foothill Boulevard and New York Avenue, in said City of Glendale, County of Los Angeles.

Reference is made to the petition on file herein for further particulars.

NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S SALE

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on Friday, September 6, 1963, at the hour of 2:00 o'clock P.M., at the south front center door of the Marin County Court House, in the City of San Rafael, County of Marin, State of California, DRAKE FINANCING, INC., a California corporation, as Trustee, will sell, at public auction, to the highest bidder, for cash, in lawful money of the United States, all payable at the time of sale, that certain real property situate in the County of Marin, State of California, described as follows:

BEGINNING at a point on the Northerly line of the Parcel of land described in the Deed from Irving Bartel to Felix M. Warburg, recorded June 10, 1958 in Liber 1194 of Official Records at page 374, Marin County Records, said point being the intersection of the courses set forth in said Deed as "North 62° 06' East 767.00 feet and South 27° 54' East 170.00 feet", thence North 44° 02' 30" West 110.233 feet; thence North 45° 57' 30" East 70.676 feet; thence North 10° 36' East 164 feet to a point on the South line of Vistazo West Street as said Street is shown on the map of Marinero Residence No. 1, filed in the office of the Recorder of Marin County on September 7, 1960 in Book 10 of Maps, at page 75; thence along said South line of Vistazo West Street and along the arc of a curve concave Southerly, having a radius of 50 feet; through a central angle of 58° 46' 31", an arc distance of 51.291 feet; thence South 10° 36' West 282.749 feet to the point of beginning.

TOGETHER WITH AND SUBJECT TO an easement for access, utility and incidental purposes over that certain real property lying Northerly of the following described line:

COMMENCING at a point on the Northerly line of the Parcel of Land described in the deed from Irving Bartel to Felix M. Warburg, recorded June 10, 1958 in Liber 1194 of Official Records, at page 374, Marin County Records, said point being the intersection of the courses set forth in said Deed as "North 62° 06' East 767.00 feet and South 27° 54' East 170.00 feet"; thence North 10° 36' East 221.431 feet to the True Point of Beginning of the line to be described herein; thence at right angles North 79° 24' West 89.651 feet to the South line of Vistazo West Street, as said street is shown on the Map of Marinero Residence No. 1, filed in the office of the County Recorder of Marin County on September 7, 1960 in Book 10 of Maps, at page 75.

Said sale will be made without covenant or warranty regarding title, possession or encumbrances to satisfy the obligation secured by and pursuant to the power of sale contained in that certain Deed of Trust, executed by HENRY NICHOLAS CAM and DONNA C. CAM, his wife, and LESLIE SMITH and MIRIAM SMITH, his wife, as Trustors, to DRAKE FINANCING, INC., a California corporation, as Trustee, and for the benefit and security of ROSS VALLEY SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION, a California corporation, as Beneficiary, dated December 11, 1961, and recorded on December 14, 1961, in Book 1525, at page 66, of the Official Records, in the Office of the County Recorder of Marin County, California.

Notice of Default and election to sell the described real property under the hereinabove described Deed of Trust was recorded on April 26, 1963, in Book 1681, at page 216, of the Official Records, in the Office of the County Recorder of Marin County, California.

SUMMONS
No. 37964

In the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County of Marin.

ELSIE STUART,
Plaintiff
vs.
ROBERT L. JOHNSON; CALIFORNIA PACIFIC TITLE AND TRUST COMPANY, a California corporation; TITLE INSURANCE AND TRUST COMPANY, a California corporation and successors in title and interest to CALIFORNIA PACIFIC TITLE AND TRUST COMPANY, a California Corporation; and ALL PERSONS UNKNOWN claiming any right, title, estate, lien or interest in the real property described in the complaint adverse to plaintiff's ownership or any cloud upon plaintiff's title thereto, Defendants.

The People of the State of California,

TO: ROBERT L. JOHNSON; CALIFORNIA PACIFIC TITLE AND TRUST COMPANY, a California corporation; TITLE INSURANCE AND TRUST COMPANY, a California corporation and successors in title and interest to CALIFORNIA PACIFIC TITLE AND TRUST COMPANY, a California Corporation; and ALL OTHER PERSONS UNKNOWN claiming any right, title, estate, lien or interest in the real property described in the complaint adverse to plaintiff's ownership or any cloud upon plaintiff's title thereto, Defendants:

You are hereby directed to appear and answer the complaint of the above named plaintiff, filed in the above entitled Court in the above entitled action brought against you in said Court, within ten (10) days after the service upon you of this Summons if served within the above named county, or within thirty (30) days if served elsewhere.

You are hereby notified that unless you so appear and answer, the said plaintiff will take judgment for any money or damages demanded in the complaint as arising upon contract, or will apply to the Court for any other relief demanded in the complaint.

The object of this action is to make the above named defendants set forth the nature of their claim or claims to the real property in the complaint and hereinafter described, if any they have, and that such claim or claims be adjudged of no effect and void, and that plaintiff's title to said real property be quieted against them.

The real property is situated in the City of Mill Valley, County of Marin, State of California, and more particularly described as follows:

COMMENCING at the Southerly corner of Lot 14, as said lot is shown and designated on "Map of Heckman Tract Subdivision of Lots 1, 2, 3, Block 3, Tamalpais Land and Water Company Map No. 7", filed in the office of the County Recorder of the County of Marin, State of California, in Map Book 3 at page 8, on March 3rd, 1909; running thence along the Easterly line of Heckman Street as shown on said Map, North 15° 24' East 79.0 feet, thence leaving Heckman Street, South 73° 59' East 79.8 feet to a point on the East line of said Lot 14, distant 21.6 feet Southerly from the Northeast corner of said Lot 14; thence Southerly along the Easterly line of said Lot 14, 80.4 feet to the Northerly line of Evergreen Avenue as shown on said Map; thence Westerly along the Northerly line of said Evergreen Avenue 105.0 feet to the place of commencement.

EXCEPTING THEREFROM the following described real property:

BEGINNING at the Southeasterly corner of Lot 14, as the same is shown on that certain Map entitled, "Map of Heckman Tract, Subdivision of Lots 1, 2 and 3, Block 3, Tamalpais Land and Water Company Map No. 7", filed March 3, 1909 in Map Book 3 at page 8, Marin County Records, and running thence along the Easterly line of said Lot 14, North 2° 29' West 80.4 feet more or less to a point distant on said line, South 2° 29' East 21.6 feet from the Northeasterly corner of said lot, thence North 73° 59' West 1.20 feet, thence South 0° 05' West 81.02 feet, more or less to the Southerly line of said Lot, thence along said line, South 74° 36' East 5.0 feet to the point of commencement.

Always Ready

VATICAN CITY (AP) — This city-state's fire department of 20 men can often be seen rushing full speed along ancient roadways in their red jeep-like fire truck. But they are only drills. There has been no fire at the Vatican in more than a century.

Quarry Plans To Come Again To Designers

A third application to build more than 300 apartments in the old quarry site of Corte Madera will be made Monday night despite recent rejection of earlier plans.

The application comes despite a town council move to block further apartment plans there.

The council on Sept. 16 will hold a public hearing on a planning commission recommendation that the 24-acre site in the Meadowsweet area west of Highway 101 be zoned from apartment to duplex.

Meanwhile at 7:30 p.m. today the new plans for Kaehler-Farrar Development, Inc., will be submitted in Town Hall to the town board of design by architects Faradg Gilan-Farr and D. Hugh Coleman.

The plans would be for 335 apartments of one, two and three bedroom units on the site south of Tamalpais Drive.

Plans show no building would be more than four stories.

On July 8 the town planning commission rejected plans by the same developers and architects for 384 units—49 more than now sought — with the tallest buildings to be eight stories.

These plans were rejected 3-1 on the grounds the apartments would be inharmonious with the area.

Though these second plans had received board of design approval, developers on July 15 were denied an appeal by the town council.

On June 6 the first set of plans, for 384 apartments in buildings ranging to three towers 110 feet high, were unanimously rejected by the planning commission. The stormy meeting was attended by 50 persons who jammed town hall and heard resident after resident attack the plans.

At this time the commission suggested developers return with plans for 200 to 240 apartments.

But after rejecting the second plans the commission voted 4-0 on July 30 to recommend that the area be rezoned. It is this recommendation that the town council will discuss next month.

The board of design Monday night also will consider resubmitted plans for a branch of Campbell Bishop Chevrolet Co. on Paradise Drive at the Corte Madera interchange and plans for an office building at the corner of Casa Buena Drive and Conow Street.

Angry Boy, 14, Beats Neighbor With (Big) Wrench

SANTA CLARA (UPI) — Mrs. Patricia Shafer, 26, was reported in serious condition today with a double skull fracture as the result of an unprovoked attack by a 14-year-old boy.

Doctors at O'Connor Hospital said she had been struck on the head and face "at least" seven times with a heavy wrench. They performed emergency surgery on her yesterday, and she was reported "holding her own" today.

Lt. Joseph Ledesma of the Santa Clara Police Department identified he rattacked as Greg Walker, son of a retired naval officer. He was booked at Juvenile Hall.

The boy told Ledesma that he had been having trouble with his parents and finally became "so mad I had to do something to somebody."

MARIN FIRE CALLS

5:04 p.m., Fairfax—Small spot grass fire out on arrival on Cynthia Court in Oak Manor.

6:45 p.m., Tamalpais—Fire, possibly caused by children, burned front seat of abandoned car at 502 Palmer Way.

Glasgow Bans Trading Stamps With Whisky

GLASGOW, Scotland (AP) — Magistrates yesterday banned Glasgow bars from giving trading stamps.

They said they did not want to encourage a practice which meant the more whisky a person drank, the closer he was to a free tea-kettle, blanket or what-have-you.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Muscle Stiffness Will Fade After Constant, If Light, Exercising

VAN DELLEN

Some individuals never exercise because they have learned through experience that physical activity is followed by stiffness and soreness.

If they are more persistent, in time aching will disappear and their muscles will increase in strength, bulk, and tone. The softie goes through the same experience as the athlete does during the first days of training.

The normal muscle is stretched between two points of insertion. It is elastic and ready to contract at a moment's notice. But with inactivity, the fibers become thin and elongated. When these flabby muscles are put to use, they have a double duty to perform because the slack must be taken up before a good contraction is possible. This leads to stiffness and cramping which can be relieved by heat and a few aspirins.

MUSCULAR rheumatism (fibrositis) is more prevalent today because more of us are living a sedentary existence. The best remedy is to use rather than pamper the involved muscles. It is here that a little exercise every day goes a long way.

Many of those bothered periodically with a stiff neck can alleviate the condition by simple neck stretching exercises that take less than five minutes a day. (Send a self-addressed stamped envelope for leaflet on neck exercises.)

EXERCISE ALSO helps backache and stiffness of the shoulders. The best procedures are those employing resistance. Weight lifting, rowing machines, bicycling also help. The secret is to take it easy at first and be persistent. It is well to remember that a few minutes of exercise on a busy day is better than none. In time it becomes a habit.

We are not asking every man to be an athlete. But we do suggest that he use his muscles every day, as nature intended. Most housewives can forget what we have said because they get all the exercise they need keeping the home spic and span.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

DAILY FLUIDS

Mrs. T. J. writes: I have a friend who does not drink water. She says that even a sip makes her sick. She claims that as long as she drinks tea or coffee every day, she is getting all the liquids she needs. Will you please comment on this problem?

REPLY

Your friend is right because fluids are fluids, whether in coffee, tea, soup, or fresh from the tap. She also obtains water from most solid foods she consumes.

SORE THROATS

N. R. writes: What would cause severe attacks of sore throat after the tonsils have been removed?

REPLY

Infection. Tonsillectomy may lessen the number of attacks of sore throat provided these structures were acting as the focus of infection, but does not guarantee against future throat infections.

ORIGINS OF ASTHMA

C. J. writes: Is asthma all physical, all psychological, or a combination of both?

REPLY

The cause may be physical or emotional. In addition, the psychological factors may aggravate the physical and vice versa.

EFFECTS OF CAFFEINE

B. F. writes: Why is it that the excessive use of coffee doesn't bother some people but makes others nervous?

REPLY

Because people differ in their response to drugs, including caffeine.

School Teacher Takes Over Congo Problems

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Alphonse Massemba-Debat, head of the former Franch Congo's new provisional government, is a mildly leftist school teacher of 42 and one-time president of his country's national assembly.

He was for a time a member of former President Abbe Fulbert Youlou's government but was fired last May for opposing Youlou's one-party system plans.

He is a Christian in a country whose population is mainly pagan.

Massemba-Debat was born in 1921 at N'kilo, in what at that time was the French colony of Middle Congo. He was educated in French colonial schools and was trained at a school for higher grade technicians in the capital of Brazzaville.

From 1940 to 1947 he taught school at Fort Lamy in what now is the Republic of Chad. He returned to the Congo after that and was principal of several schools there.

He went into politics for the first time in 1959 when the Middle Congo became a self-governing member of the French Community.

He was elected to the national assembly on a moderate leftist ticket in 1959, became cabinet chief of the Ministry of Education and later was named president of the assembly.

Youlou took him into his cabinet in June, 1959, first as minister without portfolio and then as minister for planning and equipment.

He was national assembly president until 1961 when he was named minister of state.

He headed the Congolese delegation to the fourth session of the United Nations Economic Commission for Africa at Addis Ababa in February and March, 1962.

Last May, as a result of his hostility to Youlou's "strong man" policies, he was ousted from the government. In an effort to get him out of the capital city of Brazzaville, Youlou offered him the job of ambassador to Paris but Massemba-Debat refused.

Massemba-Debat speaks fluent French and is regarded as something of an "intellectual" in his country. He holds the French decoration of Officer of the Legion of Honor.

He is a member of the Lari tribe.

San Jose Colts Win Series Tilt

SHAWNEE, Okla., (UPI)—San Jose exploded for a total of six runs in the last two innings to defeat Rockford, Ill., 10-5 in the Colt World Series here last night.

The loss eliminated Rockford from the double elimination tourney.

San Jose meets unbeaten Charlotte, N.C., tonight in the battle for the title. If Charlotte wins that game, they win the title. A San Jose victory would mean the two teams would battle for the crown again tomorrow night in the showdown match.

Lions Rummage Sale Set At Point Reyes

The fourth annual West Marin Lions Club Rummage Sale will open at 10 a.m. tomorrow in the Red Barn at Point Reyes Station, and the collection of "treasures" offered for sale will be just as varied as always.

The sale will continue through Sunday. Closing time both days is 5 p.m. Among the items for sale is a 24-foot sailboat.

Ghosts are still considered to roam many historic castles, churches and homes in Britain.

Quarry Plans To Come Again To Designers

A third application to build more than 300 apartments in the old quarry site of Corte Madera will be made Monday night despite recent rejection of earlier plans.

The application comes despite a town council move to block further apartment plans there.

The council on Sept. 16 will hold a public hearing on a planning commission recommendation that the 24-acre site in the Meadowsweet area west of Highway 101 be zoned from apartment to duplex.

Meanwhile at 7:30 p.m. today the new plans for Kaehler-Farrar Development, Inc., will be submitted in Town Hall to the town board of design by architects Faradg Gilan-Farr and D. Hugh Coleman.

The plans would be for 335 apartments of one, two and three bedroom units on the site south of Tamalpais Drive.

Plans show no building would be more than four stories.

On July 8 the town planning commission rejected plans by the same developers and architects for 384 units—49 more than now sought — with the tallest buildings to be eight stories.

These plans were rejected 3-1 on the grounds the apartments would be inharmonious with the area.

Though these second plans had received board of design approval, developers on July 15 were denied an appeal by the town council.

On June 6 the first set of plans, for 384 apartments in buildings ranging to three towers 110 feet high, were unanimously rejected by the planning commission. The stormy meeting was attended by 50 persons who jammed town hall and heard resident after resident attack the plans.

At this time the commission suggested developers return with plans for 200 to 240 apartments.

But after rejecting the second plans the commission voted 4-0 on July 30 to recommend that the area be rezoned. It is this recommendation that the town council will discuss next month.

The board of design Monday night also will consider resubmitted plans for a branch of Campbell Bishop Chevrolet Co. on Paradise Drive at the Corte Madera interchange and plans for an office building at the corner of Casa Buena Drive and Conow Street.

Angry Boy, 14, Beats Neighbor With (Big) Wrench

SANTA CLARA (UPI) — Mrs. Patricia Shafer, 26, was reported in serious condition today with a double skull fracture as the result of an unprovoked attack by a 14-year-old boy.

Doctors at O'Connor Hospital said she had been struck on the head and face "at least" seven times with a heavy wrench. They performed emergency surgery on her yesterday, and she was reported "holding her own" today.

Lt. Joseph Ledesma of the Santa Clara Police Department identified he rattacked as Greg Walker, son of a retired naval officer. He was booked at Juvenile Hall.

The boy told Ledesma that he had been having trouble with his parents and finally became "so mad I had to do something to somebody."

6:45 p.m., Tamalpais—Fire, possibly caused by children, burned front seat of abandoned car at 502 Palmer Way.

Glasgow Bans Trading Stamps With Whisky

GLASGOW, Scotland (AP) — Magistrates yesterday banned Glasgow bars from giving trading stamps.

They said they did not want to encourage a practice which meant the more whisky a person drank, the closer he was to a free tea-kettle, blanket or what-have-you.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Muscle Stiffness Will Fade After Constant, If Light, Exercising

VAN DELLEN

Some individuals never exercise because they have learned through experience that physical activity is followed by stiffness and soreness.

If they are more persistent, in time aching will disappear and their muscles will increase in strength, bulk, and tone. The softie goes through the same experience as the athlete does during the first days of training.

The normal muscle is stretched between two points of insertion. It is elastic and ready to contract at a moment's notice. But with inactivity, the fibers become thin and elongated. When these flabby muscles are put to use, they have a double duty to perform because the slack must be taken up before a good contraction is possible. This leads to stiffness and cramping which can be relieved by heat and a few aspirins.

MUSCULAR rheumatism (fibrositis) is more prevalent today because more of us are living a sedentary existence. The best remedy is to use rather than pamper the involved muscles. It is here that a little exercise every day goes a long way.

Many of those bothered periodically with a stiff neck can alleviate the condition by simple neck stretching exercises that take less than five minutes a day. (Send a self-addressed stamped envelope for leaflet on neck exercises.)

EXERCISE ALSO helps backache and stiffness of the shoulders. The best procedures are those employing resistance. Weight lifting, rowing machines, bicycling also help. The secret is to take it easy at first and be persistent. It is well to remember that a few minutes of exercise on a busy day is better than none. In time it becomes a habit.

We are not asking every man to be an athlete. But we do suggest that he use his muscles every day, as nature intended. Most housewives can forget what we have said because they get all the exercise they need keeping the home spic and span.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

DAILY FLUIDS

Mrs. T. J. writes: I have a friend who does not drink water. She says that even a sip makes her sick. She claims that as long as she drinks tea or coffee every day, she is getting all the liquids she needs. Will you please comment on this problem?

REPLY

Your friend is right because fluids are fluids, whether in coffee, tea, soup, or fresh from the tap. She also obtains water from most solid foods she consumes.

SORE THROATS

N. R. writes: What would cause severe attacks of sore throat after the tonsils have been removed?

REPLY

Infection. Tonsillectomy may lessen the number of attacks of sore throat provided these structures were acting as the focus of infection, but does not guarantee against future throat infections.

ORIGINS OF ASTHMA

C. J. writes: Is asthma all physical, all psychological, or a combination of both?

REPLY

The cause may be physical or emotional. In addition, the psychological factors may aggravate the physical and vice versa.

EFFECTS OF CAFFEINE

B. F. writes: Why is it that the excessive use of coffee doesn't bother some people but makes others nervous?

REPLY

Because people differ in their response to drugs, including caffeine.

School Teacher Takes Over Congo Problems

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Alphonse Massemba-Debat, head of the former Franch Congo's new provisional government, is a mildly leftist school teacher of 42 and one-time president of his country's national assembly.

He was for a time a member of former President Abbe Fulbert Youlou's government but was fired last May for opposing Youlou's one-party system plans.

He is a Christian in a country whose population is mainly pagan.

Massemba-Debat was born in 1921 at N'kilo, in what at that time was the French colony of Middle Congo. He was educated in French colonial schools and was trained at a school for higher grade technicians in the capital of Brazzaville.

From 1940 to 1947 he taught school at Fort Lamy in what now is the Republic of Chad. He returned to the Congo after that and was principal of several schools there.

He went into politics for the first time in 1959 when the Middle Congo became a self-governing member of the French Community.

He was elected to the national assembly on a moderate leftist ticket in 1959, became cabinet chief of the Ministry of Education and later was named president of the assembly.

Youlou took him into his cabinet in June, 1959, first as minister without portfolio and then as minister for planning and equipment.

He was national assembly president until 1961 when he was named minister of state.

He headed the Congolese delegation to the fourth session of the United Nations Economic Commission for Africa at Addis Ababa in February and March, 1962.

Last May, as a result of his hostility to Youlou's "strong man" policies, he was ousted from the government. In an effort to get him out of the capital city of Brazzaville, Youlou offered him the job of ambassador to Paris but Massemba-Debat refused.

Massemba-Debat speaks fluent French and is regarded as something of an "intellectual" in his country. He holds the French decoration of Officer of the Legion of Honor.

He is a member of the Lari tribe.

San Jose Colts Win Series Tilt

SHAWNEE, Okla., (UPI)—San Jose exploded for a total of six runs in the last two innings to defeat Rockford, Ill., 10-5 in the Colt World Series here last night.

The loss eliminated Rockford from the double elimination tourney.

San Jose meets unbeaten Charlotte, N.C., tonight in the battle for the title. If Charlotte wins that game, they win the title. A San Jose victory would mean the two teams would battle for the crown again tomorrow night in the showdown match.

Lions Rummage Sale Set At Point Reyes

The fourth annual West Marin Lions Club Rummage Sale will open at 10 a.m. tomorrow in the Red Barn at Point Reyes Station, and the collection of "treasures" offered for sale will be just as varied as always.

The sale will continue through Sunday. Closing time both days is 5 p.m. Among the items for sale is a 24-foot sailboat.

Ghosts are still considered to roam many historic castles, churches and homes in Britain.

Vandals Cut Water Supply In Inverness

About 15 to 20 Inverness homes were without water yesterday morning after vandals broke off a fire hydrant earlier in the day.

With water spouting high into the air at breakfast time "there were people gathered around there with pots and pans getting water for their coffee," said Floyd Kirkendoll, local manager for the Inverness Water Co.

The hydrant was broken off from its two-inch pipe between 2:30 and 3 a.m. Water at first spouted as high as 25 feet, rushed by pressure from spring fed water tanks. About 135,000 gallons of water was lost, flowing down a creek near the hydrant at Aberdeen and Cameron roads in "second valley" in Inverness.

Kirkendoll said resident water pressure in the area would not be up to normal until sometime this afternoon.

Reactor Construction

COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP) — The University of Missouri is building a $3.3 million nuclear reactor, described as the largest such research project by an American university.

Police Catch 4 Runaways In San Rafael

Four runaways from St. Vincent School for Boys stole their way through San Rafael Wednesday, but were finally nabbed by police.

Leaving the school at noon, the youths, three 11 years old and one 10, walked into San Rafael and stole a bicycle, abandoning it two blocks laster at a grocery store.

At the store they stole candy, bread and soft drinks. Caught by a clerk they "were given a break" and let go, they told police. At another store they stole a watermelon.

Entering the bar of the Bermuda Palms Motel, 737 Francisco Boulevard, San Rafael, through a side door, the youths helped themselves to cherries and broke into cigarette machines, getting between $3 and $4 in cash.

The youths were caught in the bar, questioned by police and released to school officials.

Cyclists Pedal 120.7 Miles

Four cyclists completed a 120.7-mile run from Corte Madera to Marshall and back over the weekend, Kenneth Potter, organizer of the Marin Cyclists, announced.

The four are Potter, Vince Mulligan of San Rafael, Robert Wunder, 16, of Larkspur, and Marc Grabinsky, 14, of Corte Madera. Medals will be awarded to all but Wunder, not yet a club member.

The next club meeting will be held at 8 p.m. Sept. 4 at the Corte Madera Bike and Repair Shop after the 10-mile time trials that start at 7 p.m. on Paradise Drive.

FILM FARE

'L-Shaped Room' Tops British Films

By LES DARD

Moviedom's offerings are plentiful this weekend. Here's what's doing on Marin County screens:

LARK THEATER

A picture to take its place among the truly great British films is "The L-Shaped Room," now showing.

Leslie Caron achieves a dramatic triumph as a little French girl come to London.

Most footage is spent in a shabby rooming house in a poor section of London. Miss Caron, who rents an oddly-shaped room on the top floor, finds her life peopled by incredible neighbors.

There's a friendly jazz musician (Brock Peters), an old variety artist and a landlady who refuses to tolerate any deprecation of her rat-ridden, bug-infested residence.

There is Tom Bell, a talented but unsuccessful writer with whom the girl finds genuine love.

RAFAEL THEATER

"Thrill of It All," which opens Sunday, is an airily delightful laugh-fest headed by box-office attraction Doris Day, who doesn't sing a note.

As the thrifty housewife, she is tempted by an $80,000-a-year offer to do a weekly TV commercial for a soap company. She becomes an instant hit, but the job takes up all her time.

Husband James Garner objects to her neglect of himself and children.

Outstanding in the cast also are Arlene Francis, Edward Andrews as her ad exec husband. Reginald Owen and Zasu Pitts are hilarious.

101 DRIVE IN

In much the same character, but with somewhat more spice, is "Come Blow Your Horn," screen version of the stage hit and starring Frank Sinatra. It moves to the 101 Sunday.

Frankie lives it up as a Manhattan playboy with the swankiest penthouse Hollywood could dream up, surrounded by beautiful girls.

In essence, it's a collision between generations. Frank's Jewish mama and papa don't approve of his happy bachelordom at age 36.

Molly Picon as the mother, Lee Cobb as the indignant father are bright spots in this pleasant farce.

FAIRFAX THEATER

Now showing is "Mutiny on the Bounty," starring Marlon Brando and Trevor Howard in the famous Nordhoff-Hall sea story.

Howard as Captain Bligh shies from the cruel caricature given this role in the past, plays a dedicated naval officer determined to make a good record. Brando interprets Fletcher Christian as a twaddle-tongued dandy whose manliness you will sometimes doubt—until the crisis.

NOVATO THEATER

Romance, comedy and action combine in "Donovan's Reef," coming Sunday. It's directed by John Ford and stars John Wayne.

The latter plays Donovan, an ex-GI who with two others stayed in the Pacific after the war. The Reef is his saloon on the South Sea paradise island.

Lee Marvin excells as Wayne's brawling sidekick, and Dorothy Lamour really takes you back in her role as a good-hearted saloon singer.

SEQUOIA THEATER

The musical delight "Bye Bye Birdie" arrives Sunday.

Jessie Pearson, a handsome newcomer, plays the Presley-like pop singer Conrad Birdie. About to be drafted, he's brought to Sweet Apple, Ohio to plant a farewell kiss on a teen-aged fan—Ann Margret.

Dick Van Dyke, Janet Leigh and Ed Sullivan are part of a large, good-looking cast.

MOTOR MOVIES

Held over is a family double bill:

"Flipper," a film about a young boy who cares for a wounded dolphin and makes a pet of him. His father, a fisherman in the Florida Keys, objects, and the boy has a time holding onto his piscatorial pal.

Chuck Connors, TV's Rifleman, plays the father and Luke Halpin, a marvelous swimmer, the boy.

Co-featured is "Cattle King," a conventional Western starring Robert Taylor and Joan Caulfield.

TIBURON PLAYHOUSE

Excellent family fare is showing through Saturday night:

"Jumbo" stars Doris Day and Jimmy Durante in the dazzling circus world of tinsel and tanbark.

"The Courtship of Eddie's Father" is a top comedy production revolving around a boy's efforts to replace his deceased mother. It stars Glenn Ford, Shirley Jones, Stella Stevens, Dina Merrill, Roberta Sherwood and a seven-year-old newcomer named Ronnie Howard, who plays Eddie.

TAMALPAIS THEATER

It's a third week for "Longest Day," Hollywood's monumental re-enactment of the 1944 invasion of Normandy.

With enormous scope, the film examines the huge operation from the American, British, French and German sides—as seen by the ordinary soldier, as well as top command.

GLAMOR QUEEN OF OLD

PT&T Wage Boost Agreed In New Pact

Wage boosts totaling more than $7,600,000 a year for Pacific Telephone and Telegraph employees in Northern California were approved Wednesday after contract negotiations between company officials and representatives of the AFL-CIO Communications Workers of America.

The increases will range from $2.50 to $8 a week. If accepted by union membership, the raises will be retroactive to last Sunday. Membership voting must be completed by Sept. 5.

The contract calls for company participation, for the first time, in the cost of a basic medical expense plan. The contract would continue in effect until 1966. The $7,600,000 a year cost does not include the cost of wage reviews in 1964 and 1965.

Paris Graduate Slates Piano, Harmony Class

Russian born Ivan Vovk, a graduate of the Ecole Cesare Franck in Paris, will give piano and harmony lessons in San Rafael starting the first week of September.

Further information about his classes may be obtained by calling Mrs. Frances McMullen, who lives at 68 Brookdale Avenue, San Rafael.

High School Registration Set For New Tam Students

Registration of new students, who have moved into the area during the summer, for the three high schools of the Tamalpais district, has been announced by Supt. Chester G. Carlisle.

For Sir Francis Drake High in San Anselmo new students should register Aug. 30, said principal Harold Allison. If that date is not convenient, parents may telephone the school.

At Tamalpais High, Mill Valley, counselors will be on duty beginning Tuesday to register new students. Parents are requested to phone for appointments, said principal Robert H. Prather.

Students entering Redwood for the first time may call the school's counseling office at any time for an appointment, said principal Donald Kreps.

Incoming freshmen from elementary schools within the district were registered last spring.

Larkspur Plan Committees Set Joint Meeting

All five citizens committees working with the Larkspur Planning Commission to devise a new city master plan will meet jointly in the club room of city hall at 8 p.m. Thursday.

The committees will discuss information gathered during the summer by planning interns Sheldon Backus and Dobie Jenkins, working under planning consultant John Erickson. Backus and Jenkins end their services Sept. 1.

These committees will meet: land use, headed by planning commissioner Henry Taylor; population, commissioner Andrew Gilardi; economics, commissioner William Schnell; circulation, commissioner Earl J. O'Grady; and public facilities, commission chairman David Scott.

Reserve Officer Gets Promotion

One Marin County air force reserve officer has been promoted with the 2479th reserve sector in San Francisco and another has earned a commendation.

Promoted to the rank of lieutenant coloney was Ronald E. Daggett, director of personnel for the 2479th, who lives at 732 Montecillo Road, San Rafael.

Lt. Col. Thomas E. Thompson, Deputy Commander of the 2479th, recently received the Air Force Commendation Medal for meritorious service. Colonel Thompson lives at 164 Lakeside Drive, Corte Madera.

Held over is a family double bill:

"Flipper," a film about a young boy who cares for a wounded dolphin and makes a pet of him. His father, a fisherman in the Florida Keys, objects, and the boy has a time holding onto his piscatorial pal.

Chuck Connors, TV's Rifleman, plays the father and Luke Halpin, a marvelous swimmer, the boy.

Co-featured is "Cattle King," a conventional Western starring Robert Taylor and Joan Caulfield.

TIBURON PLAYHOUSE

Excellent family fare is showing through Saturday night:

"Jumbo" stars Doris Day and Jimmy Durante in the dazzling circus world of tinsel and tanbark.

TAMALPAIS THEATER

It's a third week for "Longest Day," Hollywood's monumental re-enactment of the 1944 invasion of Normandy.

With enormous scope, the film examines the huge operation from the American, British, French and German sides—as seen by the ordinary soldier, as well as top command.

GLAMOR QUEEN OF OLD

PT&T Wage Boost Agreed In New Pact

Wage boosts totaling more than $7,600,000 a year for Pacific Telephone and Telegraph employees in Northern California were approved Wednesday after contract negotiations between company officials and representatives of the AFL-CIO Communications Workers of America.

The increases will range from $2.50 to $8 a week. If accepted by union membership, the raises will be retroactive to last Sunday. Membership voting must be completed by Sept. 5.

The contract calls for company participation, for the first time, in the cost of a basic medical expense plan. The contract would continue in effect until 1966. The $7,600,000 a year cost does not include the cost of wage reviews in 1964 and 1965.

Paris Graduate Slates Piano, Harmony Class

Russian born Ivan Vovk, a graduate of the Ecole Cesare Franck in Paris, will give piano and harmony lessons in San Rafael starting the first week of September.

Further information about his classes may be obtained by calling Mrs. Frances McMullen, who lives at 68 Brookdale Avenue, San Rafael.

High School Registration Set For New Tam Students

Registration of new students, who have moved into the area during the summer, for the three high schools of the Tamalpais district, has been announced by Supt. Chester G. Carlisle.

For Sir Francis Drake High in San Anselmo new students should register Aug. 30, said principal Harold Allison. If that date is not convenient, parents may telephone the school.

At Tamalpais High, Mill Valley, counselors will be on duty beginning Tuesday to register new students. Parents are requested to phone for appointments, said principal Robert H. Prather.

Students entering Redwood for the first time may call the school's counseling office at any time for an appointment, said principal Donald Kreps.

Incoming freshmen from elementary schools within the district were registered last spring.

Larkspur Plan Committees Set Joint Meeting

All five citizens committees working with the Larkspur Planning Commission to devise a new city master plan will meet jointly in the club room of city hall at 8 p.m. Thursday.

The committees will discuss information gathered during the summer by planning interns Sheldon Backus and Dobie Jenkins, working under planning consultant John Erickson. Backus and Jenkins end their services Sept. 1.

These committees will meet: land use, headed by planning commissioner Henry Taylor; population, commissioner Andrew Gilardi; economics, commissioner William Schnell; circulation, commissioner Earl J. O'Grady; and public facilities, commission chairman David Scott.

Reserve Officer Gets Promotion

One Marin County air force reserve officer has been promoted with the 2479th reserve sector in San Francisco and another has earned a commendation.

Promoted to the rank of lieutenant coloney was Ronald E. Daggett, director of personnel for the 2479th, who lives at 732 Montecillo Road, San Rafael.

Lt. Col. Thomas E. Thompson, Deputy Commander of the 2479th, recently received the Air Force Commendation Medal for meritorious service. Colonel Thompson lives at 164 Lakeside Drive, Corte Madera.

Leap-To-Freedom Man Identified

Red Guard Now Living In Village

(EDITOR'S NOTE — Two years ago an East German soldier crossed the Berlin border with a leap that symbolized the repression of the Communist - built Berlin Wall. The picture of his leap across a barbed wire barrier was printed around the world, but the soldier was not named. Now he has been identified and traced to a village in West Germany.)

By JOHN FIEHN

KRUEMBACH, Germany, (AP)—Freedom was all Conrad Schumann wanted when he leaped from East to West Berlin over freshly strung barbed wire two years ago.

A picture of Schumann leaping the fence in the uniform of an East German border guard was printed on front pages. For many it became a symbol of daring to surmount any obstacle in the quest for a life of one's own choosing.

A photograph of Schumann was snapped by Peter Leibing of Contipress, Hamburg, and distributed by The Associated Press. It won prizes and press awards.

The prize Schumann got was freedom.

Did he get what he wanted?

"Yes," he says firmly, "I am free now. I enjoy being out of East Germany and I wouldn't dream of going back unless the Communists go."

Schumann, 21 now and a father, works as a laborer at a bottling plant.

He was one of the first East German wall guards to defect after the Communists closed the 26-mile border cutting through the city. Schumann fled to West Berlin at 4 p.m. Aug. 15, 1961.

He says listening to West German radio stations and RIAS, the American radio station for Germans in Berlin, gave him an idea what life might be like in the West.

"When the Communists closed the border," Schumann recalls, "I decided to flee.

"That day I had gone up on guard duty at 2 p.m. A group of West Berlin youths stood near the fence strung across the street. They shouted 'Come over, man. Come over.'

"Then I saw West Berlin police bring up a small Volkswagen truck and put it up in such a position that the open rear door was facing the barbed wire. One of the police motioned with his hand to indicate 'Jump in.' I nodded quietly, so that nobody in the East would notice."

In a few strides, Schumann reached the fence, jumped over it and dashed toward the police truck. He jumped in, police closed the rear door and off the car roared.

"During those early days of the border closure," Schumann says "the guards were under instructions not to shoot at refugees. I knew I was relatively safe in my break."

West Berlin police handed Schumann over to military authorities of Berlin's French sector. They in turn, passed him on to the Americans, who flew him to West Germany. At a refugee camp officials got him employment in a sanatorium at Guenzburg, near Ulm, in southern Germany. He met a nurse who became his wife.

With his wife and their 11-month-old son, Erich, Schumann lives in a three-room apartment. From his earnings of 500 marks—$125 a month the family has saved enough to buy furniture, a radio and television set. He hopes to buy a car soon.

Schumann was a shepherd's son at a village near the Saxonian town of Meissen. His father and mother, elder brother and sister live in Saxony, and he exchanges letters with his parents behind the Iron Curtain. They sent him family documents he needed for his wedding.

"Before the Communists put me in uniform," Schumann said, "I was earning 300 marks — $75 at the official rate-per month as shepherd. The money didn't go far since prices are high in East Germany.

"The Communists never let us enjoy a weekend. All the time we were kept busy. On Saturday, we usually had to attend political indoctrination courses and often we were called out to do extra Sunday work.

"All I want is to be left alone. All I need is enough money to feed the family and to enjoy life a little bit. That's what I can do now and, because I couldn't do it in the east zone, I fled."

Radio Supply Company Incorporation Noted

California Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan has announced the incorporation of Marin Radio Supply, a new firm which will open for business about Sept. 1 at the old Vic Tanny building at 823 Fourth Street, San Rafael.

The directors of the company are James H. Parr and his son Danny of 1901 Benton Lane, Novato, who own Market Street Radio in San Francisco, and Daniel Olivier of 1423 Donna Street, Novato, who is employed at the San Francisco business.

College Deadline For Applications

Applications for admission to College of Marin fall semester classes must be filed in the dean of students office before 5 p.m. Aug. 30, dean Irwin P. Diamond announced today.

Registration for regular day students has started and will continue through Sept. 6 in room 24, Harlan Hall, at the Kentfield campus, said Diamond. Classes start Sept. 10.

Registration for evening credit classes will be held from 7 to 8:30 p.m., Sept. 3, 4 and 5, he said.

Quick Return To Tokyo Set For Citizen

One of Marin's newest citizens, Mrs. Tomoko Morita Wooden of 132 Walton Avenue, Hamilton Air Force Base, was looking forward to an election and a chance to vote for the first time.

But she will have to wait for that day. Next month, she and her husband, S/Sgt. Donald Wooden, will be sent by the Air Force to Tokyo. There is some consolation in the move for Mrs. Wooden. Tokyo is her native town. This time she will be there as a United States citizen.

"I'll be proud of that," she said.

She was born in Tokyo, Mar. 13, 1937. There she attended school graduating from high school.

She met her husband in a restaurant and the meeting led to their romance. Wooden had been in Japan long enough to be proficient in the language. Mrs. Wooden knew no English at the time, so their romance was carried on in Japanese.

After a courtship that lasted more than two years, they were married in the American embassy in Tokyo. They lived in Japan for two and a half years before being transferred to the United States.

"I think Marin County is nice, now that I have adjusted," Mrs. Wooden said. She explained that the climate and living in Marin County were different from what she was accustomed to and it took her a few months to adjust to it.

Paintings On Display

Paintings by Mill Valley artist H. Kenneth McCurdy will be displayed through Oct. 15 at the Frame Ways Gallery, 542 Miller Avenue, Mill Valley. McCurdy has done work in marble, oils and plastics.

Tam District To Jump In Pupil Population

A total of 5,155 students is expected in the three Tamalpais district high schools on opening day Sept 11—an increase of 465 over the district's total last June.

Anticipated enrollments, based on early registration, show 1,862 students at Redwood in Larkspur, up from 1,637 last year; 1,607 at Sir Francis Drake in San Anselmo, up from 1,518; and 1,686 at Tamalpais in Mill Valley, up from 1,535.

Tamalpais and Redwood will have enough room this year, said Supt. Chester G. Carlisle.

However, Drake High has a maximum rated capacity of 1,500 students. The difficulty at Drake, where temporary classrooms are in use, is with overcrowded laboratory and physical education facilities, said principal Harold Allison.

Supt. Carlisle said the district is planning a bond election, probably in April, to build new schools at either or both the San Geronimo and Tiburon sites now in negotiation. The greater need is the San Geronimo school to alleviate Drake High, he said.

A 1960 bond issue increased classroom capacity at Redwood from 1,200 to 2,400 and at Tamalpais from 1,500 to 1,800.

World War I Veterans Set Barbecue Sunday

The Marin Barracks No. 550 and the Women's Auxiliary of the Veterans of World War I will hold their fourth annual barbecue Sunday at Gerstle Park, San Rafael.

Barbecue chairman Roy Partridge of Larkspur urges all interested veterans and their wives, widows and friends to telephone their reservations for the all-day affair to him.

Salary Appeal Sent To Board By Librarian

John Gallas, Novato Unified School District libarian, will appeal a cut in pay and additional duties at the board meeting Monday night.

When the board adopted a new five step pay scale for teachers on May 9, it indicated that no teacher would take a cut in pay.

Gallas, who will be represented by attorney William Wolfson, will protest the cut in pay for his work on the administrative staff. His basic salary is $7,170 per year. But he received 17 and one half per cent as a member of the administrative staff. This is being cut to 10 per cent, giving him approximately $500 per year less in salary.

"It is not just the cut in salary that I am appealing," Gallas said today, "it is also the other duties assigned by the superintendent."
